CHAS. R. JONES, Editor and Proprietor.

SUNDAY, FEB. 26, 1882.

Denver, Colorado, has a population of 60,000.

New Orleans is attaining some notoriety as the abode of wife assassins.

The Wilmington Star will publish an evening edition, beginning March 1st.

Wm. F. Tucker, Jr., who has been appointed paymaster in the army, is a son-in-law of Gen. Logan.

Mr. B. F. Gravelly, one of the best-known tobacco manufacturers in Virginia, died after a brief but painful illness, on the 23d inst.

Walter D. Davidge and J. K. Porter, the special government counsel in the prosecution of Gulleau, have each been paid $2,500 on account.

The Washington Star states that the President intends to nominate General Fitz John Porter to a colonelcy of infantry in the regular army.

It is now probable that Ellis, Neal and Craft were wrongfully convicted of the murder of the Gibbons family in Kentucky. Ellis has confessed that his first confession was untrue.

Sergeant Mason, who shot at Gulleau, has had a rough time, having spent the 160 days since his arrest in a filthy, dingy cell, infested with rats, and the wonder is that it has not killed him.

Henry Balzer, employed at Carnegie Brothers' rolling mill, Pittsburg, while examining an electric light machine last Tuesday, placed his hand on one of the wires and received a shock which killed him instantly.

The P. I. man of the New York Herald speaks of Mr. Brewster's wife as Mrs. Attorney-General Brewster. This is about as appropriate as Mrs. Police-mansmith, or Mrs. Justice of the Peace Jones.

Three thousand children of deceased wives' sisters are presently to assemble at Exeter Hall, London, and clamor for the repeal of the law which makes them illegitimate.

Grant on the retired list, with a nice little pension for life, and Conkling stowed away for life on the Supreme bench. Don't the boss stalk-walks float right along on the tide of luck—if that's what it may be called.

The department of agriculture has made up its figures, and its estimate of the total product of cereals in the United States and Territories last year is 2,063,029,570 bushels, being 24 per cent. less than for the year 1880.

The "People's Ticket" triumphed over the Republican bosses in the municipal election in Philadelphia, Tuesday. The masses of both parties united against the corruption that has cursed the City of Brotherly Love for a number of years.

The census shows that in Utah, in a population of 143,963, the Americans number 69,899 and the foreigners 43,994. It is evident from this that Americans are in a majority in the Mormon Church. A Vermont man invented Mormonism, and the early promulgator sw real America is.

Mik- McCay, a brakeman on the Louisville and Nashville railroad, has just received a judgment at Louisville, against the company for $7,593.50, for being disabled for life while in the discharge of his duties through the ignorance and negligence of the engineer.

Large sums are required every year to support the pauper immigration to this country. The chairman of the national committee of immigration, in a recent communication respecting the national immigration law, says that nothing less than $25,000 will suffice for that purpose the coming year.

The pay of a general in the United States army is $13,500 a year, of a retired general two-thirds of that amount, which is the sum which Grant will draw for life. This with the $10,000 income from the fund raised for him by his northern admirers a few years ago, and his other investments, ought to enable him to pull through.

The editor of the Salisbury Examiner is informed that the Washington correspondent of the OBSERVER is a woman. Wonder who informed him? But now that he has been informed we trust he will not tell anybody, for it might get to the ears of the correspondent and he would be very much surprised to learn that he is a woman.

In an interview at Washington Senator Brown, of Georgia, put a quietus on the rumored move to place him on the ticket with Blaine in the next presidential race, by saying that he had publicly announced that he intended to vote for a Democrat for the next President, and he didn't think Blaine much of a Democrat.

The Gentiles of Utah own nearly all the 800 miles of railroad in the Territory; half of the taxable property belongs to them; they own much mining property and have invested $500,000 during the past ten years in schools, hospitals and similar institutions. This is a good showing for the Gentiles, who number 32,000 against 112,000 Mormons.

Germany promises to be as great an oil producing region as Pennsylvania. A number of wells have been dug in Hanover and much excitement prevails over the discovery. There is one drawback to the immense yield of petroleum in the world. It is said that whales, owing to the falling off in the demand for sperm oil, are increasing very rapidly, and will soon be the terror of the Northern seas. They have appeared lately in considerable numbers, near New York.

MARDI GRAS AT NEW ORLEANS.

It is one of the cardinal doctrines of faith in the Mohammedan religion that at some time in life the devotee shall make a pilgrimage to Mecca, and offer up his devotion to his prophet and his God in the Holy City. In this day and time, the average American citizen, while not actuated by any moral or religious impulse, feels that it is incumbent upon him to attend the carnival at New Orleans. Such an impulse probably actuated us in 1857—twenty-three years ago, and the duty—or impulse—was cancelled, but an opportunity to again witness the festivities, afforded by the recent meeting of the Southern Press Association in the Crescent City, once more made us loyal to Rex, the King of the Carnival festivities, and last Tuesday found us one of the happy, joyous throng who stood upon the balconies on St. Charles street to witness the passing of the processions.

There is only one New Orleans, and there is but one carnival in America. All others are imitations. To understand it one must know something of the reasons why the people put themselves to the, to us, unnecessary expense of celebrating the carnival season. An old adage teaches us that "All work and no play, makes Jack a dull boy," and that "A little folly now and then, is related by the best of men."

These sentiments are applicable more positively among the people of New Orleans, than any where else, probably, on our continent. Originally peopled by the French, its citizens partook largely of the habits and traits of their ancestors, and hence lightness of heart and frivolity of manner early became a characteristic, if not an individuality, of the New Orleans, so named from its ancestral city in France. Again the people are largely Catholic or Episcopal in religious faith, and both these religious denominations prescribe a period of fasting preparatory to the proper observance of the Church festival at Easter. This period commences with Ash Wednesday and extends for forty days, and comprises the Lenten season. The day preceding the beginning of Lent is Shrove Tuesday, a day set apart in all Catholic countries as an occasion when enjoyment might be indulged in without restraint, particularly in the matter of eating and drinking, as if in preparation for the solemn and fasting season about to follow, called in French mardi gras, or "fat Tuesday." Being then, from time immemorial, an occasion for fun and levity, as well as a time to "eat, drink and be merry," it was therefore perfectly natural that the mardi gras festivities should have been set for this day. Custom for many years has become the law, and the custom and the law have become a part of the civilization of the people. On mardi gras day, except in extraordinary cases, infractions of the law pass unnoticed, and those who go out into the streets properly masked, do so without fear of rebuke. Literally everybody eats and drinks to the fill, (without intoxication, however) and revelry for the time rules the hour. Business for the time is suspended, and the occasion is one of general rejoicing.

This was the original mardi gras. The modern celebration consists in a brilliant street pageant illustrative of such points in history, or such epochs as the finger of time have marked on the dial-plate of the past, as well as the present civilizations. This year the pageants presented in the "Crescent City" were said to be much more brilliant than usual, but to describe them would much more than fill up this page, hence we would say, with this brief history of the occasion itself: "Go and see for yourself."

In the lumber room there was found an antique mortar and pestle. There are grounds for suspicion that deceased took strychnine with the laudanum. He was a well-to-do young man, and there appears to have been no special cause for his suicidal act. He leaves a wife and three or four children.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Middle Atlantic States—warmer. For weather, followed by increasing cloudiness, winds mostly southerly, lower pressure.

South Atlantic, Tennessee & Ohio Valley—increasing cloudiness with local rains, variable winds, mostly southeasterly, stationary or lower temperature and pressure.

Large Cotton Mills Burned. LONDON, Feb. 25.—E. A. Hargrave's cotton mill at Patrictree, Lancashire, has been destroyed by fire. The loss is $25,000. Five hundred hands are thrown out of employment.

A Russian Steamer Sunk. LONDON, Feb. 25.—A dispatch from Constantinople says the Russian steamer Vesta has been sunk in a collision in the Black Sea. It is said that all on board perished.

For the delicate and complicated difficulties peculiar to the female constitution, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the sovereign remedy. It cures all the diseases that cause pain and suffering, and restores the system to its normal state. It is a safe and reliable remedy for all ailments of the female sex.

It is said that the reason why Mr. Arthur has been so slow in filling appointments is that he has been anticipating a break up in the present political organizations, and that he was consequently moving slowly and feeling his way as he went. He has been coquetting with the third party in the South but don't seem thus far to have made much progress in this line.

Gen. Sherman is sixty-two years of age. Should the bill compelling retirement at sixty pass, the general claims that it would not affect him, as his rank is above such petty legislation. Nothing but death is to terminate his command. Thus we are gradually coming to understand the true theory of the government. It was made for the officers, and the people have no part in it but to toil and obey.

Richmond Star: Richmond is famous. She has had her big stock panic, and now may boast as great as Chicago, if not greater. The Danville stock tumbled from 219 to 130, yesterday, and the jubilant bears dandered and hugged one another in great glee, while the poor bulls bellowed and pawed the earth, saw a red flag in every rag and were ready to gore everything that had a bearish look, even to a seal-skin sack.

Replies to the Short Time Proposition. LONDON, Feb. 25.—The secretary of the Blackburn Cotton Spinners and Manufacturers' Association, which includes Blackburn, Ayrton, Darwen, Haslingden and several smaller towns, has received 20 replies to the circular, proposing short time. Of these 23 are favorable to the movement.

Senator Sawyer, of Wisconsin, one of the wealthiest men in Congress, believes in the useful as well as ornamental.

His daughters not long ago gave a dinner, to which their parents and a few friends were invited, and after the dinner announced that they had prepared it themselves, and also made the dresses which they wore upon the occasion. The old gentleman showed his appreciation of their skill and industry by presenting them with a check for $35,000 each, pin money.

IN CONGRESS

THE HOUSE PASSES THE POSTAL APPROPRIATION BILL.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—House—Read, from the committee on Rules, reported a resolution for appointment of a committee of nine to which should be referred all petitions, bills and resolutions asking for the extension of suffrage to women, and removal of their legal disabilities.

Heck raised a point of order that under the rule the resolution must lie over one day. The speaker overruled the point of order and the resolution was adopted, 115 to 85, almost a party vote.

Speakers of Georgia from the committee on coinage, weights and measures, reported a bill to authorize the coinage of silver dollars and for fractions thereof of full standard value of metric silver. Referred to the committee of the whole.

Money, of Mississippi, from the committee on post offices and post roads reported a bill to provide for ocean mail service between the United States and foreign ports. Printed and recommitted.

At 12:50 the House went into committee on the post office appropriation bill. An amendment was adopted that there shall be no more official stamps printed, but that all correspondence on official business shall be transmitted in a penalty envelope.

Considerable discussion ensued over the motion to take out of the clause appropriating half a million dollars for necessary and special facilities on trunk lines the words, "on trunk" so as to leave it in the discretion of the Postmaster General to secure special facilities for mail service on other lines. The amendment was rejected without division.

The committee arose and reported the bill to the House. The amendment authorizing the Postmaster General in case of a default of mail contracts on Star routes to declare or order forfeited and to enter into a contract with the sub-contractor, was agreed to, 112 to 79. The bill then passed.

The House at 5:15 adjourned.

Suicide in Alexander.

Mr. W. Bennett, a merchant at Mt. Pisgah, Alexander county, a young man about 20 years of age, came to his death Sunday morning about 2 o'clock by an act of suicide. He had been heard, on several occasions, to declare his intention to take his own life. His habits were not temperate, and during all of last week he had been drinking more and more freely. The physician, however, did not arrive until 1 o'clock Sunday morning. An hour thereafter Mr. Bennett died, though in the meantime he had been aroused to consciousness.

In the lumber room there was found an antique mortar and pestle. There are grounds for suspicion that deceased took strychnine with the laudanum. He was a well-to-do young man, and there appears to have been no special cause for his suicidal act. He leaves a wife and three or four children.

PREMATURE LOSS OF THE HAIR

May be entirely prevented by the use of BUBBLET'S COGNAC. No other compound possesses the peculiar qualities which are so soft and so soothing to the scalp. It softens the hair when harsh and dry, soothes the irritated scalp. It affords the roots, it prevents the hair from falling off. It promotes its vigorous growth. It is not greasy nor sticky. It is the only hair restorative. Druggists' Flavoring Extracts acknowledge to be the best.
