Medical.

A cold or sore threat may not seem to amount to much, and if promptly attended to can easily be cured; but neglect is eften followed by consumption or diphtheria. No medicine has ever been discovered which acts so quickly and surely in such cases as PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER. The prompt use of this invaluable remedy has saved thousands of lives.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is not an experiment. It has been before the public for forty years, and is most valued where it is best known.

A few extracts from voluntary testimonials read as follows:

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for colds for the past twenty-even years, and have never known it to fail in effecting a cure.—
L. S. Chocker, Williamsville, N. Y.
For thirty years I have used PAIN KILLER, and found it a never-failing remedy for colds and sore throat.—Barron SEAMAN.
Have received immediate relief from colds and sore throat, and consider your PAIN KILLER an invaluable remedy.—GEO. B. EVERETT, Dickinson, N. Y.

invaluable remedy.—GEO. B. EVERETT, Dickinson, N. Y.

I have just recovered from a very severe cold, which I have had for some time. I could get no relief until I tried your Pain Killer, which relieved me immediately. I will never again be without it.—C. O. FORCE, Lowndes, Ga.

Have used Pain Killer in my family for forty years, and have never known it to fall.—Ransom Lewis, Waynesboro, Ga.

I began using Pain Killer in my family twenty-five years ago and have used it ever since, and have found no medicine to take its place.—B. W. DYER, Druggist, Oneida, N. Y.

For whosping-cough and croup it is the best preparation made. We would not be without it.—d. P. Routs, Liberty Mills, Va.

For twenty-five years I have used Pain Killer for colds and chapped lips, and consider it the best medicine ever offered.—GEO. HOOPEE, Wilmington, N. C.

medicine ever offered.—Cro. Hoopen, Wilmington, N.O.

I was suffering severely with bronchitis, and my throat was so inflamed I could scarcely swallow any food. I was advised to try your Pain Killer, and after taking a few doese was completely oured.—T. Wilkinson.

Dr. Wallow writes from Coshocton: Your Pain Killer sures diphtheris, and sore throat, so alarmingly prevalent here, and has not been known to fall in a single instance. This fact you should make known to the world.

Mrs. Ellen B. Mason writes: My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, high fever, and cold chills. Bo many children have deed here, I was afraid to call a physician, and tried your Pain Killer. He was taken on Sunday, and on Wednesday his throat was clear. It was a wonderful cure, and I wish it could be known to the poor mothers who are losing so many children.

For Chills and Fever Pain Killer has no equal. It curve when everything else fails. Delays are offen dangerous. A bottle of Pain Killer in the house is a safeguard that no family should be without.

All druggists sell it at 25c., 50c., a ud $1.00 per bottle.

Pugh vs. Grant, adm'r, Northampton.

RUFFIN, J.: Where fraud is alleged in the endorsement of bonds sued on and upon the production of the instruments accompanied with such proof as entitles the endorsement thereon to be read in evidence, it is error in the Judge to charge that the burden of proof is upon the plaintiff to show whether the assignment of the bonds was an honest transaction or not, for there is a presumption, prima facie, in his favor to the extent that he took them for value and that he was the true owner. It is a presumption that, in a proper case might be rebutted, but the burden of proof would be upon the person who alleges the defect in the title. There is an implication of law, in favor of every holder of a negotiable instrument, until something be shown to the contrary, that he gave value for it and came fairly and rightfully by it. The exception to this rule in favor of the exception to this rule in favor of the holder of a negotiable instrument, is, the 17th instant. when there is any fraud or illegality in its inception upon such proof being of-fered, the holder will be required to show that he acquired it bona fide for value, there being at such a juncture "a shifting of the burden of proof from the defendant to the plaintiff."

Where bonds were executed prior to 1868 the rules of evidence at the date of their execution prevail, with reference to parties there was but one rule, to ex-clude their evidence as being incompe-tent, the only exception was where the interest of the person offered as a witness was evenly balanced, he became a competent witness and might be called by either party. In this case Vincent the endorser was competent to speak of the matters for which he was called and the exclusion of his evidence entitles the plaintiff to a venire de novo.

Wilson & Eaborn vs. Respass, Beaufort.

In this case the plaintiffs leased cerpurpose of raising a crop and an agreement was entered into by which onehalf of the crop raised was to be given to the defendant except the crop of corn raised in a certain field of which he was to receive one-third; during the emporary absence of plaintiffs the defendant entered upon the demised land, took possession of the crop and some cern that was cured by them and refused to allow them to re-enter or in any manner interfere with the standing or gathered crops, and claimed to hold them for himself alone.

Held, That in such case where the lefendant executes a bond for the full sum, and his solvency is not denied, it is not error to vacate the restraining order before obtained or to refuse an injunction or to refuse to appoint a receiver, for the act amendatory of the Landlord and Tenant Act, of March 12th, 1877, in its third section says "— in case there shall be a continuance or an appeal from the justice's decision to the Superior Court, the lessee or cropper, or the assigns of either shall be actioned to retain possessession of said preparty, upon his giving sion of said property, upon his giving bond, &c." When a lessee mortgages his interest in the crop to the lessor, in such case the lessor has the right to give bond, &c, as above.

Barbee, adm'r. vs. Green-Wake. ASHE, J.:

Where a defendant in a suit sets up counter claim which includes the bural case and other funeral expenses of the intestate, the said plaintiff at the ime sueing as administrator, such expenses as were necessary according to the circumstances of the deceased should be allowed.

An action will lie against an administrator for funeral expenses though money so paid was not strictly a debt due by the deceased. It is the duty of the executor or administrator to see that the deceased is decently interred, and the law allows the reasonable expense of so doing above all other debts pense of so doing above all other debts and charges except such as may be a specific lien on the property of the de-

In Adams vs. Butts, 16 Pinck. Mass. 343 it is held, that in an action brought by an administrator to secure a debt due the intestate, a defendant may file in set off, a demand for money paid by him to defray the funeral expenses of deceased. There is an implied promise by the administrator having assets to reimburse one who has defrayed such

There is error in not allowing this defendant so much as was suitable to the circumstances of the deceased in expenses for funeral. Error. Reversed.

State vs. Spellar-Washington.

RUFFIN, J.: The defendant was indicted for carrying a concealed weapon, his counsel proposed to ask a witness introduced by him "What the defendant said as to the possession of the pistol?" but on objection on the part of the State he was not permitted to do so.

It would be vain to disturb a verdict and indement because of the exclusion and judgment because of the exclusion of testimony which could not have any bearing upon the case, and he who complains of such exclusion should plainly set forth in his exception its purport, or substance, in order that it may be seen to be relevant and such as would aid the jury in making up their verdict.

The distinction between the right to "keep and bear arms" and "the practice of carrying concealed weapons" is plainly observed in our constitution. The first, it is declared, shall not be infringed, the latter may be prohibited.

No error, judgment affirmed.

of Brooklyn, New York. He was before the war, and subsequently upon its reorganization, professor of chemistry in the University of North Carolina, occupying at one time, the same position in the University of Tennessee. He has been living in this vicinity for a number of years, engaging somewhat largely in agricultural and horticultural pursuits. He leaves a large family. He was twice married, his first wife being a lady of Edenton; his second a danghplains of such exclusion should plainly No error. judgment affirmed.

State vs. Mott-Wayne.

RUFFIN, J.: The defendant and two others were indicted for larceny at the March term of the Inferior Court, at that term the case was continued, the others gave bail, the defendant was confined in jail to await his trial.

The purpose of the act of 1879 as regards Inferior Courts is two-fold, first, t secures to the party accused a speedy trial of the charge against him, and next, it saves the county, as far as pos-sible, the expense incident to the con-finement of the accused. The statute is a remedial one and therefore must be liberally interpreted. It is not error when the case is transferred from the docket of the Inferior court to that of the Superior Court to try in that court one defendant and continue the case against the others, particularly when they are fortunate enough to escape confinement

State vs. Spier-Pitt.

SMITH, C. J.: Case of the larceny of a hog. Held, that it is error to admit as evidence the declarations of the defendant before the examining magistrate. It is the duty of such magistrate to inform the accused that his refusal to answer would not be used against him. STATE NEWS.

Some eight or ten were found lying around loose, and had to be buried at public expense. It is supposed a careless handling of poison did the work.

Col. David Murchison, whose untimely death is the subject of such general sorrow, was a gentleman very closely identified with this town and section. He was a large stockholder in the Asheville bank, and also the owner of large bodies of land lying about the base of the Black Mountains. He commanded tain lands from the defendant for the a large share of the good will and respect of this community, and the news of his death called out many expresssions of sincere regret.
