STATE NEWS.

Newton Enterprise: The narrow gauge railroad is approaching Newton at the rate of half a mile a day, and our people hope to see it completed to this place in time for the summer travel.

A company has been formed here this week, consisting of men of means to build a cotton factory at this place. The capital for this enterprise has been agreed upon, and will be ready as soon as needed. The location of the factory and other matters of detail are not yet fully determined on. But it is fixed that the factory will be in Newton, and work will be commenced at an early day.

Raleigh News and Observer: Since September 1, we have received 51,317 bales of cotton.

Robert Lawrence, a little negro some ten years of age, on Friday entered the dwelling of Mr. Richardson, on Morgan street, and stole a quantity of linen and jewelry. He was caught, tried by Mayor Manly yesterday, and sent to jail.

Mr. B. B. Bookers, foreman at the wood working shops of Mr. Jacob S. Allen, had his right hand badly lacerated while in the act of adjusting a circular saw, which had previously gotten out of fix. Surgical aid being called for, it was found necessary to take off three of his fingers. At last accounts he was doing well.

Wilmington Star: On Sunday last, at Bannerman's Bridge, in Pender county, a son of Mr. Lewis Savage, about 14 years of age, in the employ of Mr. John B. Bannerman, was riding on a lumber cart, which had a heavy log attached, when he accidentally fell off, and one of the wheels of the cart passed over his chest, which inflicted such serious injuries that he died before he could be conveyed to his home.

North Carolina granite and brown stone are being used as a part of the material in the construction of the large brick store on Market street for Messrs. Hancock & Daggett.

We learn that the members of Rev. Willis Wooten's (colored) chapel have purchased the house on the corner of Ninth and Bladen streets and intend to convert it into a church. There will be services there to day, morning and evening.

Two tramps were hauled up before the mayor yesterday morning, when one of the arrested men, from Texas and the other from California; and that one was trying to make his way to Washington City and the other to New York. They were held for the present.

One of them, which was lying at full length, appeared to be grasping to its breast a purse in which were a gold coin of Vesuvius, six silver and ten bronze coins, pearls and engraved precious stones. Feeding the Hungry.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—There is no change in the condition of Representative Black.

GEN. GARFIELD'S ILLNESS.

The Extravagant Demands Made upon the Government for Services.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The minority of the committee on expenses incident to Gen. Garfield's illness will oppose the extravagant allowance to the physicians made by the majority. They will not recommend any specific amount, but will oppose anything like $25,000 for Dr. Bliss and others in proportion. It appears that the committee has had a stormy time over the consideration. At the last meeting Blackburn denounced the doctors and declared that it would be a burlesque and an insult to the intelligence of the country to pay a man $25,000 for treating a pus cavity for two months as a gunshot wound and never discovering his mistake until he dissecting knife revealed it after the victim was dead. The friends of the high allowances, it is said, have been trying to arrange for the passage of their bill through the House the day with a rush and without reference, trusting to sentiment to aid the accomplishment of this end. The minority, however, will insist that the bill take its place on the calendar and be brought to the light of examination and discussion. It is not believed that it will be reached till next session, and many are in favor of that course, thinking that then time will have cooled the passions of all concerned and that it will be possible to bring it up for consideration. Said one of the committee to-day: "If the people of this country could see the bills brought in for allowance general disgust would be the result. It would not soon be taken up by Congress to pay me for nursing my wife through an illness as to put in such bills as some of these if I were in the place of certain persons I could name."

The Value of Good Bait.

Brooklyn Eagle.

"This is bitin' very good this winter," observed a New York fisherman to the cashier, as he fished around in his pocket for a marriage notice and paid the expense of its insertion.

"Catch many?" asked the cashier, cocking his eye.

"Doin' pretty well, pretty well," replied the old man. "I ketchted the other day one which was a considerable of an eel. Ye see I went to the creek in the morning and cut a hole in the ice and down I ketchted the eel. In about a minute I knowed I had a bite and I went for him. When I had got ten yards of him out I began—"

"Got what?"

"Ten yards of him. Ye see I could not tell how big he was goin' to be, so I just pulled his head over my shoulder and streaked for home, only a mile. Then I followed along back to the hole, and we wasn't out yet."

"How big was he?" asked the cashier, with round, staring eyes and standing hair.

"Hold on till I tell ye. Then I takes another grip on him and reaches for some again, but the eel seem to fetch the whole of him. Well, sir, I traveled between the house and the hole all day long, and when I got him all out he made a coil on my farm a quarter of a mile in diameter and 400 hundred yards high! Fact, sir! I tell you ye was considerable eel!"

"What kind of bait do you generally use for that size of eel?" asked the cashier, sarcastically.

"I used three pints of whiskey on that eel. Drank it the night before, you know!"

The result of which was that his marriage notice went into the death column and the cashier sat around and chewed his nails all day.

FOUR LIVES SAVED.

Dr. Bell's cough syrup relieved four of my children, who were suffering from Whooping Cough, from which their throats and necks became so swollen as to prevent them from swallowing food. They were given a few drops of this syrup and were cured in a few days. One bottle, in one night, saved their lives. I was very happy.
