Mad Dog Excitement.

Last Monday a mad dog appeared at the place of Rev. Mr. White, five miles from Charlotte, and after biting several dogs in that vicinity started in the direction of Philadelphia church, going through Berryhill, Sharon, Providence and Morning Star townships, biting a large number of dogs along its course.

The dog was followed and killed near Philadelphia church, and a party was organized Tuesday which followed up its course and killed a large number of the dogs that had been bitten, and the work of extermination was still going on yesterday, the farmers having stopped work to give their time and attention to the matter.

The greatest excitement exists among the people throughout the sections visited by the mad dog, and that the occurrence has almost caused a panic, the women and children being afraid to leave their homes for fear of meeting with a rabid dog.

Reports say the whole county is infested with mad dogs, and the probabilities are that a very large number of dogs will be slaughtered in consequence of the general alarm that is taking hold of the people.

In some instances dogs that have been bitten were not promptly killed. For the information of the public it may be well to state that chapter 38, of Battle's Revised, makes such action punishable by a fine of $50, to be recovered by any party who will sue for the same, and any person failing to kill his dog after he knows it to have been bitten by a mad dog, is liable for any damage which may occur to persons or property through such failure.

The Assault on Miss Moore. In yesterday's OBSERVER an account was given of a murderous assault on Miss Sallie Moore, of Long Creek township, by a negro boy named Ben Withers. While the statement in the main was correct, some of the details were erroneous.

In the first place the affair occurred in Lemley's township, and not Long Creek, as stated. The negro Withers is said to be 18 years old—a grown man—and it appears from additional information that the assault was towards Miss Moore, as it is stated that on the previous Wednesday she and Withers, who was a waiting boy about Mr. Hampton's house, had a quarrel and it is thought that this difficulty provoked the assault. It was stated yesterday that Miss Moore, in her deposition, charged Withers with attempting to rape her, and it is thought that possibly he succeeded in his undertaking, after knocking her senseless.

Withers, after leaving Hampton's, succeeded in getting ahead of his victim, and was sitting behind a bush, thus preventing his discovery until Miss Moore was very close upon him, when he arose and committed the assault. Miss Moore was not found until about three hours after the occurrence, and at the time of discovery was almost dead from loss of blood and cold. She was sufficiently revived afterwards to give the name of her assailant, and the circumstances of the affair, when an attempt was made to arrest Withers, who ran on seeing the officer. Several shots were fired at him, but he was only captured after being run down in a fair foot race. After his crime he returned to Hampton's at which place he was taken into custody.

At last accounts but little hope was entertained of the recovery of Miss Moore, and it is thought that had Withers been kept in the neighborhood over night he would have been lynched by the citizens of the vicinity. Dr. Wilder, who went out Monday to attend the injured lady, had not returned at a late hour last night, and nothing could be learned yesterday of her condition.
