BUSINESS NOTICES.

Who is Mrs. Winslow? As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for upwards of forty years, has unflinchingly devoted her time and talents as a Female Physician and nurse, principally among children, she has especially studied the constitution and wants of the numerous class, and as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup for children teething. It operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is moreover, sure to relieve the bowels. In consequence of this article, Mrs. Winslow is becoming world-renowned as a benefactor of her race; this is certainly no rise up and bliss here; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are daily sold and used here. We think Mrs. Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its benefits, and unite in calling her blessed. No mother has discharged her duty to her suffering little one, in our opinion, until she has given it the benefit of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Try it, mothers—try it now.—Ladies' Visitor, New York City. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.

HOME CHIPLETS.

Col. T. M. Holt, of Alamance, was in the city yesterday. The streets presented a business-like appearance yesterday. Mr. E. D. Latta has gone North to buy his spring stock of clothing. It is believed that Charlotte has the most expert bicycle riders in the States. The Mount Vernon Hotel at Salisbury is said to be one of the best kept houses in the South. Jonathan Ray has been in the city for several days, practicing skating. He is immense on wheels. Mr. Louis Berwanger, who has been in the Northern markets for the past ten days, returned to the city yesterday. A large amount of property consisting of cotton yarn, shoes, boots, tobacco, etc., which had been stolen from freight cars in this city and recovered by the officers of the law, was sold at public auction at the court house yesterday. The Atlanta Constitution whispers that Dr. Ed. Roach will leave Atlanta for North Carolina next week; that he will carry a pair of white kids and a white neck-tie with him, and that he won't return alone. Charlotte is said to be the objective point.

Lost a Finger. The Columbia Register of Friday has the following account of an accident which has befallen a gentleman well known in this city: "Mr. R. W. Trezevant while engaged in coupling a car on the South Carolina Railroad at Ross' Station yesterday had the little finger of his left hand badly mashed. He came up to Columbia on the passenger train and it was found necessary to take off the finger, which operation was performed by Drs. Trezevant and Taylor."

An Explanation. An employee of the business department of this paper got into some trouble at Salisbury about ten days ago, and but for the fact that the matter has been mentioned in a number of our State papers we should not have alluded to it in these columns. The young man was only temporarily employed, and was immediately discharged, but collections made by him have been duly credited on our books, and receipts given by him are valid. Out of respect for his family we withhold the name and refrain from giving the particulars, except to say that all charges and costs have been arranged to the satisfaction of the injured parties.

Store Entered. Friday night a thief went to work with a pocket-knife on the rear door of the store of Messrs. Alexander and Harris, and after cutting a hole through the lower panel sufficient to admit a man's arm, he reached in and unlocked the door, and raised the bolt running into the floor; but another bolt, considerably above the lock, prevented the door from opening. After finding himself unable to open the door in this way, a lever was inserted in the hole, and the panel burst out, through which the thief entered. A chisel or some other sharp instrument was used on the cash drawer, which was forced open, and all the money—a fraction less than $5—taken. The thief was evidently after money, as nothing besides the cash drawer was disturbed. No clue was left by which to trace the thief.

The 20th of May. The different white fire companies of the city have appointed committees of two members from each of the several companies, of which the chief is to act as chairman, to take into consideration and adopt some plan for an appropriate celebration of the 20th of May. We are not advised as to whether the firemen will act in conjunction with the military in mapping out a programme for the occasion, but it is supposed that such will be the case. Neither the Hornets' committee nor the firemen's committee have yet held a meeting, but something definite will be done this week. An effort will perhaps be made to secure an encampment of the military or the State at this place for a week, to embrace the 20th of May. If this arrangement can be made it will add greatly to the interest of the event and will draw many strangers to Charlotte who would not otherwise come. At all events a celebration will be had one that will be creditable in every respect.

New Castle. Chas. R. Jones, Grand Commander Knights of the Golden Rule, for North Carolina, Thursday evening went over to Salisbury and established a new castle of the order in that town. The order is being rapidly introduced, and ere long it will no doubt have a large number of members in this State. The Salisbury Castle starts out with forty-three charter members, with the following officers: P. C.—J. M. Gray. C.—Lee S. Overman. V. C.—A. S. Lewter. M. at A.—J. R. Keene. R. S. and F. S.—R. M. Davis. T.—Julius D. McNeely. P.—W. W. Taylor. H.—W. B. Barker. W.—W. W. Gales. S.—B. Caudle. Trustees.—W. H. Trexler, G. A. Bingham and N. Smith. In selecting a name the members did honor to the memory of one of North Carolina's best and bravest men, and called the castle after Chas. F. Fisher. Fisher's Castle has cause not only to be proud of its membership, but of its name as well. Commander E. H. White, of Charlotte Castle, has gone to Statesville for the purpose of establishing a castle in that town. The first American incorporation upon the obelisk now standing in Central Park, New York, will be "Use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. First 25 cents."

A ROUGH GANG.

Getting into Trouble Among Themselves and Assaulting Citizens. Yesterday about one o'clock Messrs. P. M. Ritch, C. W. Ritch and Deputy Sheriff Newell came into the city with two villainous-looking men in chains, followed by two other men and five women, all belonging to the same gang, on Friday evening, when Mr. P. M. Ritch, who lives in Mallard Creek, six or seven miles from Charlotte, drove up to his gate in a buggy, he found a crowd of eight rough-looking persons in front of his house in the road. The men gave their names as S. H. Crawford, F. Q. Crawford, N. P. Willis and Ed. Groner, and the women, at least four of them, claimed to be the wives of the men. A difficulty occurred in the road between the Crawfords and Willis, in which Willis was knocked down with a stick and shot at. In the midst of the row the women belonging to the party ran into the house occupied by Mr. Ritch's mother, as the men had threatened to kill some of them. The two Crawfords followed the women, and abusing Mrs. Ritch in a shameful manner, using the most outrageous language, and threatened her with a club. At this juncture Mr. C. W. Ritch came up near the door, and when the Crawfords saw him they rushed at him one of them armed with a club, but before the parties got together Mr. Ritch's brother came up and through a pretense of drawing a pistol frightened the Crawfords out of the yard. The women were driven out of the house, and returned to the road, where a perfect pandemonium was kept up for some time afterwards. As soon as Willis escaped from the Crawfords he went to a magistrate and swore out a warrant against them, which was served about one o'clock Saturday morning, and the arrests made. The Crawfords were taken before Justice Waring, where two additional warrants were sworn out against them—one for assaulting Mr. Ritch and one for carrying concealed weapons. After hearing the evidence the Crawfords were sent to jail in default of $100 bail. A more beastly, wicked, or depraved looking set of people than composed this gang has seldom, if ever, been seen in Charlotte. The men are all believed to be living in adultery with the women, who appear to be extremely ignorant, and of the very lowest class. The Crawfords threatened to kill the women if they swore against them at the trial, and one of them, after reaching town, attempted to jerk a standard out of the wagon in which they were riding, to strike one of the women. It is also charged that this gang, while tramping near Fort Mill, S. C., came up with a wagon driven by a negro, took possession of it, and forced the driver to haul them, free of charge, up to Mr. Ritch's. The men claim to be from South Carolina, while the women say they are from Cleveland county in this State, and were on their way to Harrisburg, it is said that one of the Crawfords, wanted in Lincoln county, and that a reward of $200 dollars is offered for his apprehension; but this report may not be correct. When asked what they proposed to do for a living if their husbands were sent to jail, one of the women replied: "They do nothing towards the supporting us; we can get along better without them than with them." The whole party with the exception of one or two of the younger women, were extremely filthy-looking; and where they came from, or what they have been doing for a living, are questions which we will not attempt to answer.

Southern Transportation Rates. The Baltimore Sun of Friday says the rate committee of the Southern Railway and Steamship Association met in that city Thursday, and held an all-day session. Those in attendance were Virgil Powers, of Mason, Ga., chairman and general commissioner of the association; C. A. Sindall, secretary; Solomon Haas, general freight agent of the Associated Lines of Virginia and Carolinas; W. H. Stanford, general freight agent, Old Dominion Steamship Company; E. P. Wilson, general freight agent, Cincinnati Southern Railroad; G. A. Whitehead, general freight agent Central Railroad of Georgia; R. A. Anderson, superintendent Western and Atlantic Railroad; J. R. Ogden, general freight agent, East Tennessee, Virginia, and Georgia Railroad; S. B. Pickens, general freight agent, South Carolina R. R.; J. M. Culp, general freight agent, Louisville and Nashville R. R.; B. S. Fitch, general freight agent Chesapeake and Ohio Railway; E. R. Dorsey, general freight agent Georgia Railroad; J. M. Brown, general freight agent Western and Atlantic Railroad; W. Plummer, assistant to president Merchants' and Miners' Transportation Company; R. D. Carpenter, of Associated Lines Virginia and Carolinas; E. T. Hughes, general agent Southern Railway and Steamship Association. Much of the time of the meeting was taken up in revising classifications. The motion to put petroleum from Baltimore and other seaboard ports for the South in the sixth class instead of the fifth, as now, was voted down. The committee acted upon the question of an advance in rates from western and northwestern ports to South Atlantic destinations, with a view of increasing charges on interior business on Southern lines. This advance will go into effect on April 10. Baltimore and its tributary territory are not interested in this, and only the further Southern and Southwestern lines are concerned. The advance on freights in two classes from Chicago to points South is about 10 per cent. The committee adjourned at 8 p. m., to meet next month, place and date to be fixed hereafter. The last meeting of the rate committee was held in New York in December, 1881. The association has fifty-three railroad and steamship companies in its membership, and a dozen other companies that work in connection with it. It is established on the basis of a revenue or money pool, and, as one of the members stated, does not have inharmonious relations like the east-and-west trunk lines have, and all its difficulties are promptly settled by arbitration.

Religious Notes—Local and General.

Services at the Baptist church will be conducted to-day at 11 a. m. and at 7.30 p. m. by the newly elected pastor, Rev. O. F. Gregory. Strangers and visitors to the city, as well as the public generally, are cordially invited to attend. It is seen from the Carolina Sun that on Friday, the 17th, a large number of the young men of Cheraw, S. C., proceeded in a body to the Baptist parsonage of that town for the purpose of presenting the Rev. Mr. Gregory, who has recently located in Charlotte, with a testimonial in the shape of a handsome gold headed cane. The presentation was made by Mr. R. Caston who made appropriate remarks, which were feelingly responded to by the recipient of the present. Mr. Gregory is said to have been very popular with the young men of his town, and in his response to the remarks of Mr. Caston, said: "I heartily reciprocate the warmth of your affections, and shall carry with me from Cheraw the tenderest recollections of the young men of this town, and their uniform kindness and courtesy to me. I am glad that in your selection of a parting gift you have chosen this beautiful cane. I shall ever value it for your sakes, and as I go about my work among the young men of my new home in Charlotte, I shall have this gift in my hand, and you in my heart." The series of religious meetings which were held for the past two weeks in the Second Presbyterian church of this city have been suspended, but as much interest was manifested in them throughout, it is probable they will be resumed next week. The suspension was had on account of special services in the First Presbyterian church this week, preparatory for the celebration of the communion next Sunday. This being Passion Sunday, the Catholic church is appropriately decorated for the occasion, and will remain so until Easter Sunday. There will be no service at the Lutheran church to-day. The Presbyterian church of Concord received 21 members into their church during last year, and it now has a membership of over 200. The contributions for the year amounted to $3,333.82 of which sum $1,000 was for a new organ. The Lutheran Synod will meet in Concord on the 10th of May. Rev. B. R. Glass, colored, will preach at the Mayor's office at 11 a. m., at 3 1/2 p. m., and at 8 p. m. All are cordially invited. He is engaged in an effort to build an A. M. E. church in the Mechanicsville portion of the city. Bishop Keane, of the Catholic Diocese of Richmond, Virginia, it is stated, can no longer read or write, owing to the condition of his eyes, and is threatened with blindness. He has consulted the most eminent oculists in the country, without obtaining relief. A council of the Catholic bishops of the Province of Baltimore was held at the Archbishop's residence in Baltimore Tuesday to nominate three persons from whom the Vatican will select a successor to the late Bishop Lynch, of Charleston. Archbishop Gibbons presided over the council. The suffragans present were Keane, of Richmond, Kain, of Wheeling, Becker, of Wilmington, Northrop, of North Carolina, Gross, of Savannah, and Moore, of St. Augustine. The names selected by the council are preserved in inviolate secrecy, and the choice of one out of the three will not be known until it comes from Rome. It is said there is a good prospect for the permanent recovery of Bishop Pierce from the throat disease which has been troubling him for many months. The Methodists of Spartanburg are prospecting in the neighborhood of Hendersonville for a suitable tract of land, which they propose to improve as a summer camp meeting resort, after the manner of the popular places of a similar character now so well known at the North. A quarterly conference will be held in Concord Methodist church to-day.
