HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS CELEBRATED.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the great household medicine of the American people.

A Great Literary Work. 900 LARGE 8V0 PAGES OF QUOTATIONS.

50,000 LINES OF CONCORDANCE enabling one at once to find any quotation desired.

Fifty Thousand in Three Weeks.

Hon. F. T. Frelinghuysen, Secretary of State.

Henry Ward Beecher. "Good all the way through, especially the proverb of all nations."

George W. Longfellow. "Can hardly fail to be a most successful and favorite volume."

Wendell Phillips. "Its variety and fulness and the completeness of the index give it value to the scholar."

George W. Curtis. "A handsome volume and a most serviceable companion."

Abigail S. Brewster. "The completeness of the index is almost astonishing. Leaves nothing to be desired."

Ex-speaker Randall. "I send check for copy. It is the best book of quotations which I have seen."

Oliver Wendell Holmes. "A massive and teeming volume. It has never had my own dictionary."

George W. Curtis. "By long odds the best book of quotations in existence."

THE MORE CHIPLETS.

A pleasant situation. Behind a blind horse, in an aged buggy, five miles from this city on any road as night is falling.

It is estimated that about enough power is expended daily by the frequenters of the rinks here to run a saw mill, a cotton factory and one of the largest kind of quartz-crushers.

Will the new arrival in this city who enquired of one of the life-like effigies standing at the door of a prominent clothing store on Trade street favor us with the reply he received?

A bright, sunny day yesterday, but not too much business doing. Plenty of time for proprietors to sit at the door and whistle sticks as much as they wanted to.

The patriots who superintend the erection of the stand-pipe of the water works, that are to be, still unselfishly give their time in overseeing the progress of the work.

Holliday, who has charge of the water works gang proposes to celebrate the turning in of the water, by carrying a keg of beer to the top of the stand-pipe, and as the water begins to fill, he and his friends will "fill in" with the beer.

In the census report for 1880 just issued, it appears that of the present population of South Carolina, North Carolina furnishes: whites 10,415, colored 6,882, which proves once more that the Old North State is a good State to move from.

Part of Coup's circus company passed through Charlotte yesterday. Wasn't the smart young man, exhibiting a wonderful ring trick to admiring groups in one of our hotels, offering to show "how it is done" for a dollar, a member of this company?

On and after to-morrow the due coupons on the second mortgage bonds of the Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta Railroad company, will be paid on presentation at the National Park bank in New York, and at the Central National Bank in Columbia, S. C. See advertisement.

Personal. Col. Thomas McMahon, proprietor of the Greensboro Spoke and Handle Works, spent yesterday in Charlotte. By his energy and ability he has built up a large business and fills orders not only for all sections of this country, but ships largely to Europe, South America and other countries.

A Big Transaction. On yesterday the wholesale house of Wittkowsky & Baruch purchased five hundred bales, or over three hundred thousand yards of cotton goods made in a North Carolina cotton mill. The purchase amounts to over $25,000, and is probably the largest transaction of the kind ever made in the State.

Another Mad Dog. A dog, supposed to be mad, appeared on the streets about 4 o'clock yesterday evening. After tearing around awhile after the fashion of dogs demented, and attacking all other members of the canine race he came across, he finally took refuge from his pursuers in a corner near Canty's barber shop, where he was shot by Policeman Farrington. It is feared that several other dogs were bitten by him in his frantic course.

The way They Do. This is the way the nice young men do in our neighboring town of Spartanburg as stated by the Spartan: "The Spartanburg young man says he goes to 'weep' between the scenes of a play. He is ashamed to cry before all the folks in the opera house. The opinion of a lady is that it is very singular that he should come in wiping his mouth instead of his eyes."

More Cotton Factories. From Mr. W. R. Self, who resides in Newton, Catawba county, we learn that two more cotton factories are in process of erection in that county. One is projected by Messrs. Williams, Finger and others, and will be erected in Newton, and the other will be erected by Messrs. Carpenter and Rabb, about seven miles south of Newton, on the Lincoln road. Let the good work go on.

A Peculiar Quartz. Mr. W. R. Self, of Newton, Catawba county, exhibited in this office yesterday, a large piece of quartz rock, said to have been found on Hog Hill, in that county, which among other peculiarities had imbedded firmly within it a few drops of water. The water could be plainly seen and has probably been locked up for centuries. Who can say how long? Won't some scientist tell us how this tusur naturae came about?

Mayor's Court Yesterday. Annie Metz, whose character, we are afraid, would not bear very close investigation, was brought up on a charge of drunkenness and using profane language. The case being proved, Annie had to pay a fine of $10 and costs. Wm. Sproulls, for "drunk and down," was fined $2.50 and costs; and for a similar offence, Richard Gregg had to pay $2.50 and costs. These cases comprised the morning's proceedings.

Arrested. Laurinburg Enterprise, March 29th says: "Henry Phifer, a colored train hand, who has been evading the police of Charlotte for some time to escape arrest for some misdemeanor, fell into the clutches of officer Hutton of this place last Saturday, and will be conveyed to Charlotte to-day upon a requisition from the marshal of that city. Phifer is also charged with robbing the trunk of a negro train hand in this town about three weeks ago of several dollars."

Officer Hutton arrived here with his prisoner on Wednesday. Phifer appears to be an instance of industry misapplied, being wanted by both State and city police authorities here for larceny and various other offences. This will fully account for officer Hutton's presence in the city on Wednesday, some absurd rumor having got abroad in connection therewith.

Stricken With Paralysis.

An old and highly esteemed citizen, Mr. S. W. Abernathy, while preparing to return home from his place of business, on Tuesday afternoon, was stricken with a light stroke of paralysis in the left arm from which he is confined to his home. The stroke is not considered serious at present.

Election of Officers. Charlotte Commandery No. 2 Knights Templar last night elected officers for the current year as follows: E. C. G. H. King, G. S. S. Pegram, C. G. F. H. Dewey, Pres.—C. W. Alexander, Treas.—Chas. R. Jones, Recorder.—L. W. Ferdue, Sr. W. F. H. Glover, Jr. W. F. H. Glover.

These officers are to be installed Thursday night, April 6. Street Cars for Charlotte. We hear talk of a company being formed to run a line of street cars from the Air-Line depot to the Central depot. It is said that Mr. John Wadsworth will probably hold a large part of the stock should the matter come to a head. We have excellent authority for our statement—that the matter has been "talked of," and as we are always glad to publish news of public interest, beg to thank our informant for this item. Perhaps, however, the news would be more welcome to the public were there something more than "talk" in it.

The 20th May. The Raleigh News and Observer thus alludes to our preparation to celebrate the 20th May: "The Hornets' Nest Riflemen, of Charlotte, are at work preparing for the encampment of the State Guard, which it seems evident will be held at that place on the 20th of May. Adjutant-General Johnstone Jones has been specially urged to order the encampment there at that time, to continue from May 15th to 20th. The people of Charlotte have taken the preparatory steps, and will no doubt liberally aid the movement. The season of the year is particularly suitable, as well as the occasion. Those of us who were so fortunate as to have been at Charlotte May 20th, 1875, will remember the perfect beauty of the weather. The encampment will be pleasant and profitable to the State Guard, whose members need the training that a week's camp life gives."

After Twenty Years. Mr. J. M. Sims, on yesterday showed us a letter which he had received only an hour or so before, and which was dated "Fort Johnson, N. C., Jan'y 5th, 1862," and it bears the post mark of the Wilmington postoffice two days later. In the letter the writer says: "There is nothing new or strange here since I wrote to Barnett. There is no more prospect of a fight here than there was three months ago. There are five of 'Old Abe's' vessels in view of this place at this time. One of them run up within four miles of the battery, at the New Inlet a few days ago and fired at it, but the shot did not reach us."

The letter was written by a gentleman who died during the war, and has long since been forgotten, except possibly by a few intimate friends and acquaintances, and the mystery is how it should turn up at this time. Uncle Sam is frequently dilatory in the delivery of the mails, but we do not now remember an instance where he took twenty years to carry a letter 190 miles.

The following will explain matters somewhat: The party to whom the letter was written was called into the war himself and the letter remained dead in the Confederate postoffice in Charlotte for some time. A Mr. Frank Ross was postmaster at the close of the war, and this letter, with a number of others, was packed in an old box, found its way to an office in the court house, now used by Mr. Waller, county superintendent of public instruction, and has remained there until yesterday, when it was found.

Mrs. Watson's Sarsaparilla is the prescription of one of the best Female Physicians and Nurses in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never-failing success, by millions of mothers and children from the feeble infant of one week old to the adult. It cures scalding, itching, and sore eruptions, regulates the bowels, and gives rest, health and comfort to the mother, and to the child. It is the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhea in children, whether it arises from teething or from any other cause. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the name of Curtis & Perkins, is on the outside wrapper. Sold by all medicine dealers. 25 cts a bottle.

THE MINES OF DAVIE COUNTY.

How she has been neglected by the State Geologist, and why she should no longer be given the cold shoulder.

To the Editor of the Charlotte Observer. If the State Geologist, Prof. W. C. Kerr, could be induced to visit Davie county, and examine her mineral deposits, as he has done the counties lying along the lines of railroads in the State he would be enabled to add very much to his museum of minerals and thereby increase the prosperity of the "Old Rip Van Winkle," so much sneered at by the world at large, and especially by the western and northern States of the Union.

From the census report of 1880, as appears in Green's almanac of 1882, North Carolina ranks 13th in gold which is false; iron and steel is, which is not true; rosin and turpentine 1, and marl and shell phosphates 1. The State pays the Geologist a salary of $2,500 per annum, nearly $2 per acre for each working day in the year, and yet there are very many counties that have been neglected, among which Davie is included.

Those acquainted with the duties devolved upon the State Geologist can make some allowance for his delay in visiting all the counties. He has been in office about 14 years, and still not over 2/3 of the counties have been visited by him.

It must be remembered that it takes time and money to accomplish so much work, and at the same time reflect credit upon the State and the Geologist. We are free to acknowledge our poverty, but in all common reason do not slight us on account of our being poor. There are hundreds, and perhaps thousands of tax payers that cannot see the necessity of the office of State Geologist, and yet, we are paying money for the keeping up the penitentiary, which if turned into this office and have two men instead of one in the office the people would make money.

By his report some northern men have been induced to invest $250,000 in the coal and iron regions on Deep River. There are seven places in Davie county from which gold has been taken: 1st. The Butler mine, eight and a half miles north-west of Mocksville. The gold from this mine was assayed some years ago and found to be two carats finer than anything in the United States.

2nd. The gold mine on Calahann's mountain in Calahann township, six and a half miles north-west of Mocksville. This mine was worked some forty years ago by Hon. Hamilton C. Jones & Co., the father of Col. H. C. Jones of your city, but with what success I do not know.

3rd. The Isaac Allen mine, situated on the plantation of Jno. H. Clement, late Senator of Davie and Rowan, one and one-fourth miles north-west of Mocksville.

4th. There are two mines or deposits of gold in Clarksville township, seven and one-half miles north-west of Mocksville, from which a considerable quantity of gold has been obtained by an ordinary wash pan process.

5th. There is another gold deposit 7 miles north-east of Mocksville in Fulton township. There is to be found on the plantation of Mr. B. N. Allen, six miles east of Mocksville the finest or as fine iron ore as can be found anywhere. This iron mine was worked by Thos. H. Gaither & Co. during the war from which they supplied the Confederate government with a very large quantity and there is on the same plantation, and not far from the iron mine evidence of copper.

7th. There is on the plantation of James A. Kelly, our former member of the legislature, a very rich silver and iron mine. So you can see from this that Davie county is no "sardine" or "small potato" at last. And if the bowels of the earth could be analyzed in her border you could find gold, silver, mica, and iron pyrites, no one could tell how much.

If the N. C. Midland railroad should be finished you see that Mocksville is destined to be, at no great distance, a mining town or city. So a "long pull and a strong pull" and all at "top o' the mornin'" for the North Carolina Midland railroad.
