PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER

A Never-Fading Cure for Burns, Scalds, Bruises, Cuts, Soreness, etc.

After forty years of trial, Perry Davis' Pain Killer stands unrivaled. It is safe! It acts immediately! It never fails!

Editor of the St. John (N.B.) News, says: In fresh wounds, aches, pains, sores, etc., it is the most effective remedy we know of.

From the Cincinnati Dispatch: From I. B. Poirer, U. S. Consul at Greifeld, Rhenish Prussia: After long years of use, I am satisfied that Perry Davis' Pain Killer is a powerful remedy for wounds, bruises, and sprains.

W. W. Adams, Saco, Me.: Perry Davis' Pain Killer is a powerful remedy for wounds, bruises, and sprains.

W. W. Lum, Nicholville, N. Y., says: I use your PAIN KILLER frequently. It relieves pain and soreness, and heals wounds like magic.

J. V. Doe says: For sores and burns it has no equal.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is not a new unfaded remedy. For forty years it has been in constant use; and those who have used it the longest are its best friends.

"Treadwater Jim."

From the Jacksonville Times: "Who's that? Why that's Treadwater Jim—He was little nigger in town—What do folks all say dey'll hang him.

"Well, den dat name he's got—it was gin him by folks what was knowin' de facts.

"Den dey bent der case over like Marsters An' flew ter whar Jim, wid de chile, Wuz dotter 'niz ber' ter keep ter."

"So, yer see, dat's de reason dey gib him de name dat yer hear'd 'em yell call—An' 'noblest' 'niz ber' ter keep ter."

Hon. Cassius M. Clay, of Kentucky, wants Tilden nominated in 1884.

Cornelius Vanderbilt, who killed himself in New York last Monday, was a wild, dissipated fellow, but he had good streaks in him.

The Pittsboro Chamber Record states that David S. Burns, who was a deputy collector under Col. Young in the 4th district, and was dismissed by the colonel because he expressed satisfaction at the assassination of President Garfield, has been appointed a storekeeper.

The board of aldermen of the city of Wilmington have appropriated $62,820 to meet expenses for the current fiscal year ending March 31, 1883.

If good nihilists knew what trouble they caused in printing offices when they killed one of these distinguished Russians with such distinguished names they would think twice before they touched the dynamite.

The shooting down of Jesse James in St. Joseph, Mo., last Monday, will probably be the end of that gang of outlaws who have so long bid defiance to the laws of Missouri and adjacent States.

Corn planting in Southern Kentucky is said to be three weeks earlier this year than usual.

The Augusta (Ga.) News says there is an "epidemic" of religion among the colored people in that city, and that about four thousand of them are to be baptized this spring and summer.

Sciatia is what is troubling Senator Logan, of Illinois. Washington correspondents and "sperits" will get 'em in the long run.

A North Carolina rattlesnake seven and a half feet long is one of the attractions in Richmond, Va., and it is very early in the season for snakes, too.

On Thursday, 6th inst., Miss Eleanor Ewing, daughter of Rev. H. Ewing, of Lancaster, Ohio, and niece of Gen. Tom Ewing and Gen. W. T. Sherman, took the merry veil of the order of the Sisters of Mercy at the convent in Pittsboro. Miss Ewing is a beautiful and wealthy young lady, and was formerly a great belle in Washington society.

Philadelphia Record: The fortitude of the Southern people in misfortune must command the admiration of the world. Accounts from all sections of the inundated regions agree that the people, white and black, seem cheerful, notwithstanding the terrible ordeal through which they are passing.

The reason for this unfavorable trade balance of $141,142,008 is that the people of the countries here mentioned are unwilling to buy our manufactures at prices artificially enhanced by our protective tariff.

The Regulars Win. New Orleans, April 6.—The reorganization of the parish committee last night elicited a spirited contest.
