

A CHANGE OF SENTIMENT.

The municipal elections in the Western States last Tuesday are somewhat remarkable, not only in the number of places carried by the Democrats, but in the fact that some of these towns have never before been carried by the Democrats. This means that there has been a great change in popular sentiment in those States, or that there is an astonishing amount of apathy among the Republicans out there. Perhaps it is both. If simply the latter there must be a cause for it. We know of no reason, from ordinary causes, that would create such a remarkable apathy at this time, nor any why Republicans should be any more indifferent this year about carrying their city elections. There must be some influence at work which has not heretofore been exerted. It is true in some localities there were local reasons which made themselves felt, the liquor question being prominent in Cincinnati and other cities in Ohio, and also in Michigan. The recent legislation in the Ohio legislature on licensing saloons arrayed a very large portion of the German element which had heretofore been voting the Republican ticket, against that party, and perhaps the same element made itself felt in the Iowa towns where a constitutional prohibitory amendment is under discussion, and is very distasteful to the Germans who chafe at the idea of being prohibited from indulgence in their favorite liquor. In these instances we see a cause of a local nature but in other places none to account for the gain of the Democrats nor for the apathy of the Republicans. We see no way to account for this apathy, than in the disgust engendered among a large number of Republicans at the warring of the factions, and dissatisfaction with the management of the party under its present leaders. Stalwartism, half-breedism, star-routeism, and the stalwart effort to bespatter the memory of Garfield are shaking up the concern considerably and making its tenure of prolonged life very uncertain. The attitude of some of the party leaders, too, on the Chinese question, and on the tariff, has no doubt had its influence. That there has been a great change in the relative condition of the parties in the West is evident, but whether it is to continue or be merely temporary it is rather early yet to venture an opinion. As a rule these spring elections are not a safe guidance by which to estimate popular opinion, but the elections of the present week present indications of changes that look as if there might be a turn in the tide. The time was not far in the past when the West was governed and led politically by eastern leaders and eastern ideas, but the West is becoming an empire herself, with her own leaders and her own ideas and interests not in common with the east, and there is being manifested in that section an independence of political thought that did not in former years prevail. The fact is the leadership of both parties has to a great extent passed from the east to the west, and that fact is beginning to be recognized by the masses. As a matter of fact some of these western States which have been held by the Republicans are really Democratic and have been carried by the Republicans only by the lavish use of money and the grossest frauds. It is an acknowledged fact that the sum of $350,000 was sent into Indiana to influence the election in that State just previous to the last Presidential election, and that enormous sums of money have always been furnished to carry on the campaigns and influence the elections in that State and in Ohio because they were regarded as doubtful States, and to carry them was essential to national success. Whether in view of the changes now occurring and the dissensions existing between the rival factions this eastern influence and eastern money will be as potent as they have been in the past remains to be seen. From the present outlook it would seem that they will not be.

TELLER AND CHANDLER.

The President yesterday sent in the names of Senator Teller, of Colorado, for Secretary of the Interior in place of Kirkwood, and W. E. Chandler, as Secretary of the Navy, in place of Hunt, who will go to Russia as minister. This completes the Arthur cabinet by the displacement of all the Garfield appointments save Lincoln, Secretary of War, who will remain. Teller was at once confirmed, as a matter of Senatorial courtesy, we presume, while Mr. Chandler goes over to the committee to pass through the investigating mill, from which he will probably come out recommended, and accordingly confirmed. Chandler is not unknown to fame, for it was he who stepped to the front when it was discovered that Tilden had carried a majority of the electoral votes and telegraphed through the country that Hayes was elected. He took the management of the game into his own hands and laid the foundation for that colossal swindle which left Tilden out in the cold and sent Hayes into the White House. He is a bold, unscrupulous plotter, full of resources, and would hesitate at nothing, from petty larceny to stealing an empire, when party success depended upon it. This appointment is doubtless in recognition of the brilliant services rendered in the past.

Col. John R. Winston, of Caswell county, still comes to the front as the champion of the Greenbackers. A handbill informs us that he will make a canvass of the State, beginning at Reidsville on the 21st inst., and closing at Danbury, May 13. He will favor Charlotte May 10th.

Mad dogs are mauling around and biting people in Lancaster county, S. C.

Col. John T. Rhett, Democratic candidate for mayor of Columbia, S. C., was elected Tuesday last, over Mr. Jno. Agnew, by a majority of 534. The Democratic wardmen and school commissioners were also elected without opposition.

Mr. W. B. Gulick, secretary of the North Carolina Agricultural Society, is now engaged in the preparation of the premium list for the next exposition, to be held in October. He will promptly answer all correspondence addressed to him at Raleigh.

A case of small-pox has appeared in Atlanta, a colored woman, living within a couple of blocks of the Kimball House, in the center of the city. Every precaution is taken to prevent the spread of the disease.

There are bills before Congress asking for the erection of one hundred and twenty-five public buildings at a total cost of $17,000,000.

The spring crop of Democrats out West this year seems to be pretty good.

It was also ordered by the Board of Commissioners that J. W. Swearingen, A. C. Flow and J. A. Houston, school commissioners of school district No. 24, Clear Creek township, and W. McKee Flow, teacher, be notified to appear before this board on Tuesday after the first Monday in May next, and show cause why money which has been illegally paid them shall not be refunded. It was further ordered that the secretary of the Board of Education make due service of this order as required by law.

THE OPINION OF THE GOVERNORS ON THE LEVEE QUESTION.

The States Not Equal to the Task of Keeping up Repairs.

NEW YORK, April 6.—The Herald publishes replies from the governors of Louisiana, Mississippi and Arkansas to inquiries addressed to them as to what they considered should be done by the several State governments affected by the floods, as well as the Federal authorities, to meet the present emergency and prevent further disaster such as the present.

Gov. McEnery intimates that the losses of the people of Louisiana will be so large as to preclude the possibility of raising the half million of dollars necessary to rebuild the levees. He shows that nearly one hundred and eighty thousand persons will sustain pecuniary damage in consequence of the overflow, and considers it perfectly legal and proper that the United States government should undertake to make all requisite repairs.

The governor of Arkansas to a great extent coincides with the executive of Louisiana. He sees no reason why the Federal government cannot take charge of the entire levee system. The tax for river purposes is so small that sufficient funds cannot be gathered to do the work required along the river.

Governor Lowry states that before the war a splendid system of levees was in existence, but by the time the great conflict was over it was completely wrecked. It has never been replaced and the damage now is so overwhelming he says, it is impossible for the State to repair it.

IN CONGRESS.

THE SENATORS TAKE A TILT AT THE ELECTORAL BILL.

Amendments to the Chinese Bill and the Tariff Commission Bill chiefly occupy the House.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—SENATE—Cameron, of Wisconsin, presented and read the bill to amend the act of Congress of Wisconsin protesting against Logan's bill appropriating to the States the revenue from the liquor traffic as an educational fund.

He assented to their opinion that the measure will fasten upon the country the devastating and devilish traffic, which has not a shadow of excuse for its existence except as found in avarice and unbridled avarice, and the determination of the devil to make criminals and paupers of the race and increase the population of hell.

Daves introduced and moved the present consideration of the bill appropriating $2,000,000 to provide for the deficiency in the subsistence of the Cheyenne and Arapahoe Indians. He submitted a telegram from General Pope showing the necessity for an immediate appropriation to provide for the deficiency in the subsistence of the Cheyenne and Arapahoe Indians. He submitted a telegram from General Pope showing the necessity for an immediate appropriation to provide for the deficiency in the subsistence of the Cheyenne and Arapahoe Indians.

Farley introduced another Chinese bill identical with the vetoed bill except that the term of suspension is fixed at sixteen years.

Miller, of New York, from the committee postoffices, reported an original bill to provide for ocean mail service between the United States and foreign ports. It is identical with the measure reported by him on the 16th of March in behalf of the same committee as an amendment to the postoffice appropriation bill. The bill went to the calendar.

Bills were passed directing copies of the official letter books of the executive department of North Carolina to be furnished to said State; authorizing a public building in Key West, Fla., appropriating $100,000 therefor; amending revised statutes to allow perique tobacco as material in the manufacture of cigarette or smoking tobacco without tax.

The Senate bill to fix the day for the meeting of electors of President and Vice-President, and to provide for and regulate the counting of votes for President and Vice-President, and for the opening of questions arising thereon, came up as unfinished business, and Pugh addressed the Senate in favor thereof.

The debate was continued by Garland, Morgan, Blair and Hoar. The bill passed by a vote of 70 yeas to 20 nays.

The Indian Territory railroad bill was placed in order as unfinished business.

On motion of Kellogg the bills authorizing the appointment of an assistant appraiser at the port of New Orleans, and fixing the salary of surveyor at $4,500 per annum, were passed.

Kellogg gave notice that he would urge the consideration of the Mississippi river improvement bill immediately after the pending bill is disposed of.

Executive session.

Adjourned till Monday.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—HOUSE—Calkins, of Indiana, chairman of the committee on elections reported the resolution in the Lynch-Chalmers contested election case from the Sixth Congressional election district of Mississippi, declaring the contestant, Lynch, entitled to the seat. Laid over for future action.

Ryan, of Kansas, from the committee on appropriations, reported back the Indian appropriation bill with Senate amendments recommending concurrence in some, but non-concurrence in the majority of those amendments. The report was agreed to.

Mr. Page, of California, asked unanimous consent to introduce a bill to carry into effect the treaty of commerce with China. It reduces the period of suspension to ten years.

Springer, of Illinois, stated that the House had already passed a bill for that purpose, which had been vetoed by the President and Chinese minister, and objected. Whereupon Page declared that he would ask for consent to introduce the bill until he obtained it, if it took until the end of the session.

Hicks, of Maryland, chairman of the committee on appropriations, reported a bill appropriating $170,000 to supply the deficiency in the appropriation for dies, paper and stamps, $25,000 for the deficiency for distinctive markings on United States securities, and $150,000 to continue work on the Washington monument. Passed.

A report from the committee on accounts, directing the doorkeeper to employ a messenger, met with a good deal of opposition on the Republican side on the ground that Coombs was a Democrat. It was finally adopted. Yeas 127, nays 94.

On motion of Valentine, of Nebraska, a bill introduced by King, of Louisiana, was passed appropriating $20,000 for the purchase and distribution of seed to the sufferers from the overflow of the Mississippi river and its tributaries. Yeas 127, nays 94.

The House then at 2.25 went into committee of the whole, Robinson, of Massachusetts, in the chair, on the tariff commission bill, Kassar, of Iowa, stating in reply to a question that he hoped to take a vote on the measure by the middle of next week.

After speeches by McKinley, of Ohio, and Simonton, of Tennessee, the committee rose, and Mr. Kassar made an attempt to introduce his Chinese bill, but again met with an objection from Springer, who remarked that the bill should first be taken to the White House and submitted to the President, and he withdrew his bill asking that it be referred to the committee of the whole, but to this Springer objected, and he withdrew his bill to the committee on education and labor.

A bill was offered by Willis, of Kentucky, fixing the suspension at fifteen years; by Berry, of California, fixing the suspension at 18 years, both being identical with the vetoed bill with variations of title. Same reference. Adjourned.

W. S. O'B. Robinson Confirmed.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—The Senate confirmed W. S. O'B. Robinson as U. S. Attorney for the eastern district of North Carolina.
