A LION SLAIN BY A TIGER.

The Exciting Encounter That Was Witnessed in a Philadelphia Circus.

A scene of the wildest disorder prevailed in Philadelphia last Tuesday around the quarters of Adam Forepaugh, the veteran circus manager...

The enraged brutes, yielding with pain from the numerous thrusts and blows, gave up resistance.

The cage animals, rather softened during their confinement, began to assume something of their native ferocity at the sight of the noisy demonstration on every side.

"Her Majesty," the ferocious Berlin tiger, who has a record of killing her keepers at the German circus two years ago, would not stir under any consideration, and it was not until a rod of iron at white heat was thrust into her cage that she left with a rapidity...

It was during this tumult that an unlooked-for tragedy occurred. In the same den with two lions were kept two tigers, separated by a strong wooden partition...

Half a dozen employes rushed upon the partition with so much force as to carry it away, and in less than this it was all over.

OR THE QUEEN OF SHEBA'S BEAUTY WAS BUT SKIN DEEP.

The renowned Queen of Sheba, with all her royal pomp, magnificent apparel, and brilliant retinue, would never have appeared within the presence of the grandest of the monarchs of the past, had she not also possessed that which it is the crowning glory of the female person—a skin unchallenged by its Oriental softness and its almost transcendental purity.
