WOMAN.

HER HEALTH AND LIFE

Depend more on the regularity of her menstrual functions than on any or all causes combined. An actual or a "living death" is the inevitable result of derangement of a function which makes woman what she is in every respect, and especially in her mental and bodily constitution. Hence, Immediate relief from such derangements is the only safeguard against wreck and ruin. In all cases of stoppage, delay, or other irregularity of the "courses," Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator is the only sure remedy. It acts by giving tone to the nervous centres, improving the blood, and determining directly to the organs of menstruation. It is a scientific prescription, and the most intelligent physicians use it. Prepared by J. Bradfield, Atlanta Ga. Price: Trial size, 75c; large size, $1 50. For sale by all druggists.

Enterprise Laundry.

I DESIRE to announce to the public that I am now prepared to do washing and ironing in the best possible manner. I have succeeded in getting better water than I have been using, and will now agree to take family washing by the month as follows: For handkerchiefs, towels, socks and napkins at one and a half cents each. All other family goods at 3 cents per article, except lace curtains.

The prices are extremely low and every respectable family in Charlotte can afford to give me a trial. The washing of each family is kept separate, and ladies' clothing is handled exclusively by females. I will call at the house for the wash and deliver it within three days.

I asked the public to pay no attention to outside reports about my business, as I guarantee satisfaction or make no charge.

HOME CHIPLETS.

☞ Farming is in active progress. Cotton is ready to harrow.

☞ Three of our gallant policemen went dog hunting yesterday, mounted on horseback. Five dogs were slain by the trio.

☞ East Trade Street is still in the hands of the Street Committee. It don't look, however, as if it were in the hands of anybody.

☞ A german complimentary to Miss Louise Morehead, of this city, was given in Augusta, Ga., last Friday evening, which the Augusta papers say was largely attended and was a very brilliant affair. According to the News the dance was gracefully led by Miss Morehead and Mr. Thomas Scales.

Sugar Creek Baptist Church.

The communion service, at Sugar Creek Baptist church, will be postponed to the third Sunday in May, on account of the attendance of the pastor, Rev. B. G. Covington at the Southern Baptist convention.

Public Reading.

Miss Lulie C. Bigbie, a young lady with considerable reputation as a vocalist, will give a reading in the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association, over the Merchants' and Farmers' National bank, on Friday evening. Due notice will be given of the programme when it has been arranged.

Personal.

—Major J. G. Harris, of the firm of Alexander & Harris, has just returned from the Northern markets, where he has been to buy a stock of spring goods.

—Mrs. S. E. Allen and children, of Winston, N. C., are in the city on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Weddington.

Sociable To-night.

The young ladies of the First and Second Presbyterian churches will hold a sociable at the residence of Mr. Harvey Wilson this evening from 8 to 11 o'clock. Each and every young person in either one of the churches will be cordially welcomed; also, any of the older members who feel interested in our young people's work.

Assault on Tryon Street Last Night.

Between eleven and twelve o'clock last night Edward Williams was knocked down and injured on Tryon street. He was picked up and taken home, and Dr O'Donoghue being called in found that his nose was broken. J. M. Kendrick and Paul Eagle were arrested on a charge of having committed the assault. It doesn't, however, seem very clear, yet, how the matter occurred, but there had been a dispute among the parties earlier in the evening.

Prospects for the Crops in Iredell.

The idea seems to be prevalent in some sections of Iredell that the prospects for a wheat crop were never more promising. The fruit crop is abundant up to this date. Although there was a considerable frost yesterday morning, still it is hoped that the injury is not serious. Farmers around Cool Springs are making an earnest effort to get their tobacco lands in readiness for a crop. Tobacco plants are said to be in abundance, and there is every prospect for a good crop.

All Wrong.

The Charleston News and Courier of April 30th says: Senator Vance, whose fame as a joker is exceeded only by his reputation as a praying man, will lecture in Richmond shortly on "The Humorous Side of American Politics and Politicians." Our cotemporary is slightly mixed. "Our Zeb." has never been remarkable as a "praying man." It is understood that Gen. Robt. B. Vance does the praying for the family. The Governor (Zeb.) says the difference between him and his brother Robert is that "Bob believes in falling from grace and never falls, while he don't believe in falling from grace, yet is always falling."

Left His Home.

James Stiller, the son of Mr. J. M. Stiller, of Clear Creek township, Cabarrus county, left home on Sunday last. It is believed that he is in the neighborhood of this city.

The cause of his leaving home is unknown to his parents, who are suffering great distress and anxiety of mind about him, and would be thankful to hear from any one who can give them information as to the whereabouts of the missing boy. He is 15 years old, 5 feet 10 inches in height, of slender build, has light hair and blue eyes.

Mr. Stiller's address is Pioneer Mills Cabarrus county, N. C.

A SPECIAL MEETING OF THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

East Trade Street—Where is Fourth Street?—Barkeepers Ask for and Receive an Extension of Hours.

A called meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held yesterday afternoon at the mayor's office.

The first business introduced was the repairing of East Trade Street. The Street Committee were unable to report any further progress in the matter, and some discussion arose on the question of engaging an engineer to advise about the work. Eventually, however, the board decided to leave the matter in the hands of the committee.

Alderman Hutchinson called attention to the fixing of the corners of Fourth and Tryon and Church. It appears that Col. Johnston, who is erecting some new buildings at the corner of Fourth Street, has a claim on several feet of ground either on Fourth Street or on the other side of his lot, and to settle the matter, Alderman Schenck moved to have a survey made to establish the corners of the streets in question. Resolution adopted.

Letters were read from several firms giving prices for dressed stone for paving the side walks.

Alderman Wilkes moved to advertise for several tenders for the supply of curb and paving stones, and for brickwork for the sidewalks. Resolution adopted.

A petition was presented from the barkeepers of the city, asking for the rescinding of the ordinance requiring bars not to open before 5 a. m., during the summer months.

Schenck moved that it be allowable to open the bars at 4 a. m. during summer. Adopted.

The board then adjourned.

The Celebration on the 20th.

—A meeting of the general committee in charge of the celebration arrangements was held last evening. The committee is working very energetically, and indications point to a big affair on the 20th. The committee wish to impress upon all the branch committees the necessity for putting forth every effort in their power, and citizens are asked to subscribe liberally, as a considerable amount of funds will be required to carry out the arrangements in a manner worthy of the occasion and of the city.

—It is anticipated that there will be present to take part in the commemoration from 30 to 40 military and fire companies.

—The Hornet's Nest Riflemen have given an order for 1,000 blank cartridges for the occasion, and intend to give an exhibition of skirmish drill.

—It is thought probable that 10,000 visitors, in addition to those who participate in the ceremonies, will be in the city as spectators.

—A reply has been received from Hose Company No. 2, Danville, Va., accepting the invitation to assist in the celebration.

Macallister and His Wonders.

Charlotte is promised an opportunity of seeing Prof. J. M. Macallister, his "scenic illusions, wonders and miracles." He will be at the opera house for four nights, commencing to-morrow. From the press notices the feats performed by the professor appear to be something marvellous.

The following description of the performance is attributed to Artemus Ward: "In company with a friend we went to see the Great Wizard of the World, as he is termed. And, as usual, another crowded house 'full to overflowing and running over, greeted Macallister, and many were turned away, unable to gain even standing room Macallister is a great individual. He whips his handkerchief out of his pocket and shakes out a dozen large globes of fire. He doubles it up in his hands—mutters a few words of the choicest Hindostan, and a dozen doll babies drop out upon the floor from its folds. He then holds it up by one corner and shakes out of it a dozen hens, two roosters, half a dozen hard boiled eggs and a number of patent egg beaters. He swallows a bamboo fishing rod, eats a whole pig, and then lifts himself by the straps of his boots clear up to the ceiling.

Babies cry to see Macallister and boys have to be whipped to keep them at home; where ever he has been he was surrounded by a loving and patriotic crowd. Hosts of persons visit him every day, to borrow money, and he is so true a gentleman that none get offended when he says "No." We have seen him and can vouch for the truth of this statement.

Notwithstanding his great ability he wears store clothes, and pays his money for them like any other man. By one move of his magical hand he can produce anything he wishes, except puffs. For these he is dependent upon editors. They notice him cheerfully, as they consider him a great genius.

Our only wonder is that a man with such powers should try to live honestly. But this feat, like all the rest that Macallister does, he performs with scarcely any effort.

A Curious Discovery.

A gentleman in Iredell county, a few days ago, made an interesting discovery while engaged in cleaning out a low land ditch, near Belt's bridge. At the bottom of the ditch was found the wall of a house, the logs composing which were almost all quite sound. The wall was four logs in height and 8 feet long by 10 feet wide, and there was a double floor made of split timber. This discovery puzzles the oldest inhabitant, there being no one living in the neighborhood who remembers any house standing there.

How young soever you may be,
With failing teeth, you're grim and old;
And losing your mouth's purity,
Your features seem both dull and cold,
Then man or maid, warned of your fate,
Seek SOZODONT, e'er it's too late.

Rheumatic Discovery.

Asheville, N. C., Aug. 28, 1881.

H. H. Warner & Co.: Sirs—I take great pleasure in stating that I have been entirely cured of rheumatism by the use of your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure. N. P. CHEDESTER.

Mayor's Court Yesterday.

Tom Ellwood was brought up for being drunk on the streets and fined $5 and cost.

Henry Massett (colored) for playing a part in an affray had to pay $5 and cost.

Josephine Harris and Gus Ludwig (both colored) were charged with boisterous singing on the streets on Sunday night. Josephine was fined $1 and cost for her part in the noisy concert; and Gus had to pay $2 and cost.

What Makes You Hiss.

A tooth is missing among the incisors, and you cannot help hissing. Go and get one put in, and then use SOZODONT to keep the others right. You should have done this years ago, but it is better now than never.

The Lucky Man Congratulated.

The announcement that ticket No. 75 414 in the March drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery had drawn the capital prize of $30,000, and that half of the ticket had been sold in Savannah created considerable excitement, and many were inclined to think that there was some mistake. We are pleased to state, however, that there was no mistake, and that the lucky person was our well known townsman, Mr. Eugene B Philpot, of the firm of John Sullivan & Co. During the day Mr. Philpot received the congratulations of numerous friends, who were rejoiced to hear of his good luck. It was a big return on the investment of $1. —Savannah News, March 16th.

He sent to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La. The next drawing will take place on May 9th.
