FRIDAY, MAY 19, 1882. Parson Massey has opened the campaign against Mahone in Virginia.

There were landed in New York last Monday 6,741 immigrants.

Senator Mitchell, of Pennsylvania, is no snooks, and respectfully declines to play second fiddle to Don Cameron.

We think Mr. Stephens of Georgia, would hardly fancy being speered to death and have his funeral celebrated by a few "independent" mourners. Cincinnati is trying to get up a name for music, but Cincinnati's great forte is in converting live hog into dressed pork, which she does in about half a minute. A negro in Washington started out to

John Brown, and now dresses in such style as to excite the envy of all the colored swells in town. Gen. Chalmers, who announces himself as an independent candidate for Congress in Mississippi, says the Dem-take up a collection for the widow of ocratic party has left him. We never knew a renegade who didn't put in that same plea. It costs the government $275,000 a year to pay the surgeons who examine applicants for pensions. How much the surgeons make in addition for passing those who are not entitled to pensions is not so easily got at Louisville has been selected as the headquarters of the Supreme Lodge Knights of Honor, and Supreme Treasurer R. J. Breckingidge, of Springfield, Ky, and Supreme Reporter B. F. Nelson, of Wooster, Ohio, have been ordered to remove their offices to that city.

Philadelphia Record: Prices of many necessaries of life are rising, and labor strikes are announced on all hands. Yet the representatives of the people in Congress steadily refuse to lessen the enormous and unnecessary drain upon the productive energies of the country by reducing the surplus revenues.

Gen. Robert Smalls (colored) feels very sore over the recent refusal of the Revere House proprietors, in Boston, to give him a room. The Boston Advertiser tries to show that Smalls could not find a resting-place at that dignified caravansary because all the rooms were occupied. Smalls avers that he had engaged a room some days before his arrival. It is a clear case of drawing the color line in Boston.

Louisville Courier-Journal: The Republicans of North Carolina have made an alliance with the whisky party, and are making war on the temperance people, while in Virginia they allied themselves with the repudiators and declared for the repudiation of public faith. This is very easily understood by those who have followed the history of the Republican party as a megatharien hypocrite during the last twenty

Ex-Governor C. C. Washburn, of Wisconsin, who died last Sunday at Eureka Springs, Wisconsin, was one of five brothers, all of whom became distin guished in American politics. Three, if not more, of them were governors of States, and four were in Congress at the same time. One of them was United States Senator from Illinois during the war, had much influence with President Lincoln, and was largely instrumental in making Grant the man

PUBLIC CELEBRA TIONS.

There is no people however rude, no people however enlightened which has not its celebrations of some sort and which does not take pleasure in them. The savage of the plain or forest perpetuates the memory of triumphs over his foe in his own rough way, with war dances, feasting and such display as their untutored genius could devise, whole civilized people in all times have had their special days set apart to commemorate some special event in their history, in the celebration of which the while people took an active part and fabulous sums of money were expended. Such were the Olympic games of Greece, the triumphal marches of Rome, which became institutions of these respective countries and had much to do, no doubt, with fostering and keeping alive the patrictic spirit, for which those people were noted and are still remembered.

These celebrations amount to more than a mere passing popular demonstration of idle show. There is something deeper, of more meaning in them. They are history epitomized, drama condensed, the results of grand events, desperate struggles, and magnificent achievements, brought back to memory, and bringing the present face to face with the past.

They are to a certain extent, and no small one, the measure of patriotism, for when a people cease to celebrate the worthy achievements of their sires, they begin to forget, and when they forget they soon lose the pride of nationality which once constituted their glory. The people which treasures not what is worth treasuring in its history, has parted with the better part of its manhood, and soon falls to the rear in the grand march of nations. Men who feel that they are of noble mould are inspired to noble deeds that the prestige of the name or fame they inherit may not be lessened in them, and many a son has made himself a hero by the recollection of the name of his father and the deeds it inspired to, and so many a nation has been spurred on glory's path to preserve the laurels which dead generations had won; national pride incting to grand action and to heroic achievement. The firing of guns, the martial strain' the march of soldiers, the parade of firemen, civic societies, waving fisgs, and varied decoration, are small things in themselves, but in their purposes and effects are suggestive and potent. They are the outward signs that speak of a living patriotism, that remembers the past and is proud of it; proud enough of it to treasure it and to emulate it should occasion pyre as mand. There is no danger of the spirit of liberty dying while there remains among men the spirit to celebrate the achievements which gave liberty life.

Strike Among Chicago Tanners.

CHICAGO, May 18.—The men in all the principal tanneries struck at noon to-day because those in the preparing department who asked for an advance of one dollar a week were refused it. They demanded $12 a week. The employers will shut flewn. About 1,000 of 1,200 hands employed in Chicago are the spirit of liberty dying while there remains among men the spirit to celebrate the achievements which gave liberty life. firemen, civic societies, waving flags, SURPRISING THE COURT. A Washington dispatch informs us that John W. Dorsey, the indicted star router, for whom search was being made by United States marshals in several States, surprised the court by answering to his name after the marshals had reported that he could not be found. He had, it seems, been in Washing for ten days, while they were pretending to hunt for him. Mr. Dorsey seems to come and go at pleasure. When it suits him to go into court he goes, and when it don't, he don't. The courts of Washington are becoming ridiculous, and the administration of justice a farce. Big thieves and distinguished malefactors snap their fingers at them while only the small and insignificant law-breakers stand in awe of them. Howgate steals a half a million and is permitted to walk out from jail, ride out at pleasure, and finally escorted by his guard to visit his family walks off, and the guard comes back without him. He afterwards writes a letter to a friend in Washington from his sequestered re; treat that he will report when the gov-

jail waiting on it. Mr. Dorsey, charged with being the head of a big ring whose swindles run up into the millions, comes and goes at pleasure, while United States marshals are dancing around the country in a vain search for him. What humbuggery. If either of these individuals had been ordinary sneak thieves and had picked a pocket, or stolen a linen duster, they would have been securely locked up, promptly tried, convicted and sentenced long ago. When people steal at Washington they must steal enough to command the respect of the court.

The Republicans in Congress ousted Chalmers, of Mississippi, from his seat on a charge of having swindled Lynch, colored competitor. Now the National Republican, the organ of the Republican Congressmen, endorses Chalmers as an Independent candidate.

CONGRESS YESTERDAY.

THE SENATE DISCUSSES THE FIVE PER CENT. LAND BILL.

The House Continues the Consideration of Amendments to the National Bank Charter Bill, which are Varied and

WASHINGTON, May 18.—SENATE— The Senate passed the bill appropriating $22,271 to reimburse certain citizens of Henderson, Tenn., for excessive assessments levied upon them by General Grant in 1862. The 5 per cent. land bill was taken up as unfinished business. Saulsbury's amendment prohibiting States receiving money from applying any of it to pay agents employed to procure it was modified by Beck, by adding thereto the words "except this be in accordance with laws of the State passed after the passage of this act." Adopted. Gorman offered an amendment, which was accepted by the friends of the bill. requiring the payment of 5 per cent. to be made in cash, instead of bonds. The bill then went over. The bill appropriating $50,000 for a public building at Greensboro, N. C., passed.

Executive session. Adjourned. House-On motion of Wise, of Virginia, a bill was passed changing the boundaries of the fourth collection district of Virginia, and making Newport News a port of entry.

The House then resumed consideration of the bank charter extension bill, the pending question being on the amendment offered by Mr. Buckner, of Missouri, reducing the period for which banks may extend their charters from twenty to ten years. The amendment was rejected-yeas

92, nays 116. Robertson, of Louisiana, moved to reduce the period to two years and stating that he would avail himself of the latitude allowed to debate, proceeded to make some remarks about "the broken banks" of the Mississippi, praising the patriotic message of the President on that subject. He then withdrew his amendment. Hammond, of Georgia, offered his amendment providing that jurisdiction for suits hereafter brought by or against any national banking association except suits between them and the United States or its officers and agents shall be the same as the jurisdiction or suits brought by or against banks not organized under any law of the United States which do or might do banking business where such national banking associations may be doing business when such suits may be begun. Agreed to without division.

Randall, of Pennsylvania, offered an amendment providing that in the organization of any banking association intended to replace any existing banking association and retaining the name, the holders of stock in the expiring association shall be entitled to preference in the allotment of shares in the new association in proportion to the number of shares held by them respectively in the expiring association. Adopted.

Hollman, of Indiana, offered an amendment providing that every banking association which shall obtain the the benefit of this act shall pay the cost of proofs of preparing plates for such new circulating notes as shall be issued to it, and all other costs incidental to the substitution of such new circulating notes for old ones, in addition to the tax now imposed on banking asso-On motion of Crapo, of Massachusetts, the following amendment was inserted at the end of section 7 of the bill: "And the franchise of such association is hereby extended for the sole purpose of liquidating their affairs until such affairs are finally closed."

Section 8 has reference to banking associations which do not avail themselves of the provisions of this act. Cannon, of Illinois, offered the following amendment as an additional section to the bill "that the national banks now organized or hereafter organized having a capital of $150,000 or less shall not be required to keep or deposit with the Treasurer of the United States, United States bonds in excess of $10, 000 as security for their circulating notes and such of these banks having on deposit bonds in excess of that amount are authorized to reduce their circulation by deposit of lawful money as provided by law." Adopted. Yeas, 102; nays, 100. Cannon moved to re-consider and to lay that motion on the Randall demanded the year and nays on the latter motion, stating that he hoped that the House would trayerse the action just taken. The motion to lay motion on the table was agreed to. Yeas, 111; hays, 96. Without further action the House adjourned.

Episcopal Council---Bishop Opposes a

Division of the Diocese.

NORFOLK, VA., May 18.—At the session of the Episcopal council to-day, Bishop Whittle refused to entertain the question of a division of the diocese. He claimed that under the canon he alone had the right to take the initiaernment gets ready to try him; that he tive in the matter. Considerable disgot tired of fooling his time away in cussion ensued when the Bishop stated that if the council decided to have a meeting of the parishes the coming year, and if a majority of the parishes favored a division he would not oppose such action, but until he was satisfied that the majority of the laity favored it he assumed his prerogative. A plan will be offered to-morrow for ascertaining the wishes and views of the laity on the subject, Shot on the Road.

MEMPHIS, May 18.—Levil Preston, a farmer living eight miles below Memphis, was shot dead last night. Suspicion points to one Clark with whom Preston had a fight near the scene of the murder early in the evening. Clark left for home at 6 o'clock. Preston remained until 9 and was shot as he was riding along the road towards home. The report of the gun was heard by several persons.
