HOME CHIPLETS.

A large force of hands are at work macadamizing College street, between Trade and 5th. The members of the Woman's Auxiliary are requested to meet at Judge Bryan's house this afternoon at half-past five o'clock.

Mr. Jacob H. Wight, one of the recently elected directors of the Baltimore and North Carolina copper and gold mining company, registered at the Central, in this city, yesterday.

The improvements on the Second Presbyterian church are now completed and the change is wonderful. The church now presents a very handsome and pleasing appearance.

There will be a meeting of the Pleasure club, at their hall, this evening at 8 o'clock. They are up to something that will interest all the members and a large meeting is looked for.

The weather began to warm up a little yesterday, and the dealers in straw hats and linen goods were wearing brighter faces than has been their wont for a couple of months back.

Col. Johnston has about sixty brick-layers plying the trowel on the walls of his large store house and on the addition to the Metropolitan Hotel.

All of the parties who have not yet returned the United States flags borrowed from the committee on the 20th, are requested to return them to Tiddy's book store, this evening, as they are to be shipped back to Philadelphia to-night.

The Observer was yesterday evening called down from its office to take a drive out to the water works, in one of Chambers' fine turnouts, a brand new carriage drawn by a pair of fine horses.

From the Top of the Stand Pipe. Yesterday evening admittance was given to the waterworks stand pipe and quite a party went up to the top. The view from this elevated place is just splendid.

A Tempting Offer. Dr. McCool, of the Air-Line, has received several bids for his monkey, and is standing undecided between two propositions.

A Large Bear Killed. Last Tuesday a large black bear was killed near St. Paul's, in Robeson county, with a rifle, by Mr. D. A. McGregg.

THE LUTHERANS.

Opening of the General Southern Synod. This morning—Services During Synod—Persons. At 10 o'clock a. m. to-day, the General Synod South will open its sessions at St. Mark's Evangelical Lutheran church in this city.

Since early yesterday morning delegates have been arriving in, and all are not yet here. Almost a half-million of Lutheran communicants will be represented by members of and visitors to the General Synod.

There are some 35,000 Lutherans in the Southern States, the major part of whom belong to the General Synod. Rev. Prof. J. E. Wolf, D. D., of the Theological Seminary, of Gettysburg, Pa., representing the General Synod North, to which the body in session in our city belonged before the war, represents about 125,000 communicants.

Rev. Dr. Jas. A. Seiss of the General Council will represent 165,000, and Rev. G. H. Gerberding, a member of the Joint Synod, of Ohio, will be present, and that Synod reports 90,000 in its folds. This leaves more than half of the strength of the Lutheran church in the United States belonging to other general bodies unrepresented.

Other services will be announced from day to day. PERSONAL MENTION. Rev. G. D. Berneheim, D. D., was inaugurated President of North Carolina College yesterday.

The honorary degree of D. D. was conferred by N. C. College on Rev. J. Hawkins, for a long time editor of the Lutheran Visitor. Also on Rev. S. L. Harkey, A. M., of Mt. Pleasant Penna., author of a S. S. singing book and a contributor to the Lutheran Quarterly Review, frequent and able. Also to Rev. C. F. Bausenier, pastor of the Lutheran church, Jacksonville, Florida.

Rev. F. W. Conrad, D. D., of Philadelphia, is and has been editor of the Lutheran Observer, the oldest and largest and strongest English Lutheran church paper. He has preached in 18 States of the Union and has dedicated Lutheran churches in 14 States.

Rev. J. G. Butler, D. D., of Washington City, is pastor of the Memorial Lutheran church and was for a number of years chaplain in the House of Representatives, under different administrations.

Rev. E. T. Horn, A. M., of St. John's Lutheran church, is the successor of Rev. John Bachman, D. D., and is author of an excellent book entitled "The Church Year." He is also quite a fine poet.

Rev. T. H. Stroecker, pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran church, who has been absent several days to attend a meeting of the board of trustees of North Carolina College, at Mt. Pleasant, returned to the city yesterday.

Painful Accident to Dr. McCombs. The many friends of Dr. J. Parks McCombs will be sorry to learn of the very painful accident with which he met yesterday afternoon. About four o'clock he was starting out of Wadsworth's stables in a sulky, driving his own horse, which was a rather frisky animal.

A Churn Peddler's Doing. Tuesday evening a seedy looking fellow rode into Wadsworth's stables on a spanking gray horse and after having it fed, he opened on Mr. Wadsworth for a sale, representing that he had been selling patent churns, but desired to retire from the business and return to his home in Gainesville, Ga.

The beauties of the face of women are often spoiled by unwholesome soaps, and get rid of by using Dr. C. W. Benson's Skin Cure. It heals eruptions of the skin or scalp and renders the outside smooth and fair. An excellent toilet dressing.

Mining Matters.

The annual meeting of the Baltimore and North Carolina Copper and Gold Mining Company, whose mines are located near this city, was held at No. 61 Exchange Place, in Baltimore, last Monday.

Austin Lane's Little Pistol. Austin Lane, one of the well known city barbers, has laid away the razor and shears for an indefinite time until his shattered hand, the result of too much fooling with a pistol, has grown together again.

Resolutions of Regret. A committee of the Hornets' Nest Riflemen was yesterday appointed to draft resolutions expressing the regret of the company at the resignation of Capt. E. F. Young and First-Lieut. F. J. Ahrens, as officers of the company.

Had a Splendid Time. The Spartans of Spartanburg, one of the fire companies that helped us in our late celebration, seem to have had a splendid time while in our city.
