The Comdemned Assassin--Scurrilous Postal Cards.

WASHINGTON, May 25.-Guiteau appears to have lost some flesh during the past three or four weeks, and the color he then had is fading from his cheeks. Having within a few weeks allowed his beard to grow, his appearance is somewhat changed. Just now he seems to put his entire dependence on Mr. Reed, his counsel, and he seems to be confident that Mr. Reed will succeed in securing a respite, and perhaps a com-mutation of sentence; but, like, Mr. Reed, he is reticent as to what the next move will be. He never mentions the name of Scoville, and seems to have dismissed his relatives from his mind. It would seem that in the case of Guiteau the postal law against sending scurrilous matter through the mails has been suspended by common consent. Daily there are quantities of letters and postal cards of this kind received for healthy Kidneys, Liver and Urinary Organs; for him. There are comparatively few let-ters, his correspondence being almost altogether by postal card, and about nine out of ten have some soothing ref-erence to the scaffold, hell, satan, etc. and for physical derangements generally, this great remedy has no equal. Beware of imposters, imitations and concections said to be just as good. For Diabetes, ask for WARNER'S SAFE DIA-BETES CURE. For sale by all dealers, H. H. WARNER & CO., These scurrilous cards are never delivered to Guiteau.

District Attorney Corkhill said to-day there was but one move which Mr. Reed could make before the courts, and that was to apply for a writ of habeas corpus. He said that no court could grant a writ de lunatico inquirendo, as had been suggested might be done.
