THE LUTHERAN SYNOD.

AFTERNOON AND EVENING SES-SION, THIRD DAY.

Report on Literary Institutions -- Discussion of the Question of "Union or Re-Union With Any Other General Body of the Lutheran Church in the United States," With a Synopsis of the Remarks of the Participants.

Rev. Prof. J. B. Davis. D. D. After reading the minutes and correcting the same, the committee on the president's report offered for adoption the following:

Resolved, That this General Synod select and sustain a missionary in the foreign field, through the foreign mission board of the General Synod North, to be known as "Our Missionary."

The committee on literary institutions submitted the following report: The following institutions of a spe cial literary and churchly character are located within our bounds:

Bath Eden Institute, Webster, Winston county, Miss., principal, Prof. F. B. Brown, A. M. Though in possession of no catalogue of the school, we learn from private sources that it is prospering and accomplishing a good work for our people, in that important military field. We regreat that we have no special communications from Prof. Brown concerning it. We know that he is prosecuting that enterprise with indetatigable zeal and deserves all the encouragement we can give him.

Newberry College, S. C., Rev. G. W. Holland, president. This college is in a most healthful and hopeful condition under the efficient administration of as scholarly president and his worthy associate professor. It has a more exlusive church patronage than any of longed before the war. ur other colleges. This fact will asure its steady and certain success.

North Carolina College, Mt. Pleasant. V. C., has been for some years under is president Rev. G. D. Bernheim, D. D. The president has secured well qualified co-workers to fill its chairs of instruction and Dr. Bernheim we feel assured will promote its interests with his characteristic energy. Roanoke College, Salem, Roanoke county, Va., president, Prof. J. D. Dreher, Ph. D. This school has fought its way through most formidable difficulties to its present success. Though its indebtedness has not been cancelled, the pressure has been removed by an arrangement allowing twenty years for its removal. Its board of trustees, however, do not expect to need that period of indulgence, but are consummating a plan for the early redemption of its bonded debt. Through the agency of its judicious, devoted and unwearying president, a good beginning has been made towards the endowment of its various chairs. It has an encouraging number of students, gathered from widely separated parts of our country. Also a Faculty of tried ability and long experience in imparting instruction.

FOR FEMALES. Walhalla Female College. This institution was founded by Rev. J. P. Smeltzer, D.D., one of the oldest and most successful educators of our church. It has attained a reputation for comprehensive and thorough training, and is perfecting arrangements to increase its usefulness. It already enjoys a large and growing patronage, a fact which is gratifying to us all.

Mt. Pleasant Female Seminary, located at Mt. Pleasant, N. C., has just closed a prosperous year under the judicious control and direction of Prof. L. H. Rothrock, who has most creditably managed its interests for a number of years. It is officially connected with North Carolina, and its buildings belong to that body. Prof. Rothrock has resigned his position as principal and the board of trustees expect soon to elect his successor.

Marion Female College, Marion, Smythe county, Va. This school is un-der the successful management of the worthy president of this General Synod, who is also its founder. It occupies an important field from which it draws a large patronage. It has a qual-ified corps of teachers and gives thorough culture of a high grade. Al-though by its character it is and must continue to be under the central of the Lutheran Church, a lady of another church recently placed at the disposal of the president, for its benefit, eleven hundred dollars, and the board of trustees have determined to erect a chapel, study room and an additional recitation room during the summer vacation, by which the capacity of the institution will be almost doubled. Wytheville Female College, established and presided over by Rev. A. Phillipi, A. M., of Wytheville. As an individual effort this school has attained marked success, and is growing in the confidence of the communities from which it draws its support. Its course of instruction is free and of a high standard. Staunton Female Seminary. This institution owes its origin to the zeal, efforts and sacrifices of Rev. J. I. Miller, A. M., under whose administration it has become eminently flourishing, though having to contend with difficulties of a peculiar and almost insuperable character. Prof. Miller has recently resigned his position as president of that school, to the regret of patrons from various parts of our church. The board of trustees have elected as his successor Rev. J. Willis, A. M., of the Virginia Synod, who is known and ap preciated as a most devoted, judicious and trustworthy laborer in the king-dom of our Lord, and from whom an efficient and capable administration of the affairs of said institution is confidently expected. T. W. DosH, L. A. BIKLE, JOSIAH BROWN, P. N. HEILIG. After the adoption of several sets of esolutions, not of general interest, Synod adjourned with prayer by Rev. W. C. Schaeffer, to meet at 8 p. m.

EVENING SESSION.

Rev. A R Rude, D. D. of Columbia, made the opening prayer. The president, Rev Prof Scherer, stat-ed that the object of the meeting was to discuss the union or re-union with any other general body of the Luther-an church of the United States. Rev Dr Gilbert, of Winchester, Va. then offered in behalf of the commit-tee the following report: Your committee appointed to consider in what definite form the question of union with other general bodies of our church should be presented for discussion, beg leave to recommend that the roll of the General Synod be called and that each member be privileged to express his opinion upon the general question as he may feel moved; no member is to occupy more than 45 min-D. M. GILBERT, S. A. REPASS,

S. F. HALLMAN, W. A. TIGNER. The report was adopted. The roll was called. Rev J Hawkins

J. HAWKINS,

ed to speak later. Rev Dr Rude, Rev E T Howard and others asked to be excused from speaking.

Dr Gilbert spoke urging that the opinions of the bretheren should be given and read the following: Whereas. We can not fail to recognize it as a matter of the first moment, that nothing should be done that would prove inimical to the spirit of unity and harmony existing amongst the churches and synods embraced in this general body, and that would thus tend AFTERNOON SESSION—MONDAY.

The opening prayer was made by to disturb our peace, lessen our efficiency, and imperil, if not destroy, enterprizes for the early success of which continued concord in sentiment and action amongst us is essential: and Whereas, It is our sincere conviction that any steps taken at this time, looking to the dissolution of this body with a view to the union of the synods of which it is composed with any other general organization, or organization, of our church,— would have this result, therefore,

Resolved, That, whilst solemly disayowing that we are influenced by any continued or eclesiastical feeling of sectional or eclesiastical partisanship in our consideration of this question, but on the other hand cherishing a warm fraternal affection for our bretheren of the Lutheran faith in all parts of our common country, and sincerely desiring, not merely to preserve the most cordial relations with them, but to hasten the day when there shall be a more general and more perfect union of the children of our beloved Zion throughout the land-it is the deliberate judgment of this convention, that the best interests of the churches and synods we represent, as well as the best interests of our church at large, demand that our present general synodical organization should be maintained.

After prayer the Synod proceeded to the discussion of the report of the committee appointed at a previous meeting to bring before the Synod in a proper form the subject of organic union or re-union with the General Synod North to which organization this body be-

The first speaker of the evening was Rev. T. W. Dosh. My convictions are very decided, very strong. I have come to this meeting with misgivings ever he presidency of Rev. L. A. It has now for | tion it was announced that the desire was general that this body re-unite with the General Synod. It is premature, however well meant. Nothing but evil can grow out of it. The brethren disposed to the union are really fair and consistent, but all our actions here then in General Synod seems like a farce. In forbearance and love, like a class meeting, let us say in love, how we feel on this subject. Union is desirable. This is not the time, nor isit favorable. Let us increase this peace promoting and peace promoting work, and when God opens the way to further unity, then can we in more harmony act. I can, therefore, but repeat that the whole matter is unfortunate. Some Synod should first have taken action and recommended something for action.

Rev. Prof. Willis, of the Female Seminary, of Staunton, Va., spoke next, and said: We are not prepared for this. our synods did not expect it and we have not been instructed. Let our Synods in some future time instruct their delegates to take action of this matter. We want no external but internal heart union and peace. We must become better acquainted with one another. If this subject had been forced not a third of the number would have been in favor of it. Let the fruit get a little riper before we pluck. Rev. W. C. Schaffer, the secretary of the Synod: There is no one on the floor of the Synod that desires union more than I. I just wish to live long enough to see the whole church of the reformation in this land united. No member of this Synod but loves every Lutheran in the country. There is no minister here who would not accept a call from a General Council, General Syned, Missouri or Ohio Synod church. Our hearts grow warmer towards each other. Let us not press a matter that will not do good. I am willing to go to the General Council, General Synod, or other bodies. The question is, will any decid-ed action be wise or not. If separation will hurt, our Northern brethren will say, wait a little longer. We'll woo you a little longer. Come to us as a unit. I know we love them better than we did two years ago. It is something to look forward to and hope for. Let us bring our congregations up. We must re-unite in Richmond. Over the pulpit we'll put up a flag and on it a blood-stained Confederate flag; showing a union in State government and in the Church, but the time has not yet come.

Rev. Prof. Repass: I am sorry that the statements are so general. I feel quite clear that the time is not yet here. In a few words I'll say what I have to say. We have had no specific action and I am opposed to it. I am opposed to union with any body. 1st. Because we will then be no pacificators in holding back the passions that has made themselves felt in the church north. Our work has been a pacific one. Suppose we unite with the General Council-then we oppose the General Synod and so the reverse, and we must share the bad feeling on the one side or the other. We have a work here in the South. If we keep unity among us, we will gather around it the union of the Lutheran Church South, but what would we gain? We will simply be a larger body. The real, true posi-tion is the one we occupy now. Take our service book. It unites us. In the council and the General Synod we are respected for it. A better state of feeling is being brought about by it.

Rev L G M Miller: I am always in favor of union. It is my hope to see her united all over this land. The Goepel requires it of us. God speed the day when all of God's children shall be united. Christ's prayer teaches us this. I must confess I see no good reasons why we should not be together. The early Christians stood together. So it should be. What are some reasons in favor of it. Let us unite with the General Synod: 1. Our work among the freedmen calls for unity in work. We must work. Pure doctrine must be incarnated in men's hearts. When the subject of the missions comes, we fall back upon the church North. Thence came our financial help. We have time and again acknowledged our weakness. We took our missionaries to their work. If we stand together with them in work, then why not in organic union.

2. The Maryland Syned helped us support our young men who study for the ministry and that is but another form of power without which we can-Henry B Groseclose, Esq, a layman

Sometimes we make progress by waiting. This is the way we are moving. Col Josiah Brown: I'll give a few reasons for my views on this subject. Except we be fully agreed we cannot walk together. Not a single layman is in favor of uniting with a Northern body, both ministers and laymen are di vided. Dividing the laymen is mis-chievous. My head is covered with sil-ver hair; I am old. Let us keep peace. We are growing towards it, but we must not be driven to it. Let us persuade, not force. Col Brown made a touching speech.

Rev J Austin, of Georgia: To unite or promote unity among us. I love our Northern brethren. Our Synod almost to a man is opposed to union. We appreciate the kindness shown us. Rev G D Bernheim, D D: 1st. Our Synod of North Carolina is loyal to the [CONCLUDED ON FOURTH PAGE.]
