No Whiskey!

Brown's Iron BITTERS is one of the very few tonic medicines that are not composed mostly of alcohol or whiskey, thus becoming a fruitful source of intemperance by promoting a desire for rum.

Brown's Iron Bitters is guaranteed to be a nonintoxicating stimulant, and it will, in nearly every case, take the place of all liquor, and at the same time absolutely kill the desire for whiskey and other intoxicating beverages.

Rev. G. W. RICE, editor of the American Christian Review, says of Brown's Iron Bitters:

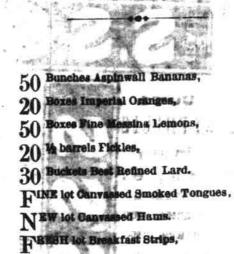

> Cin., O., Nov. 16, 1881. Gents:-The foolish wasting of vital force in business, pleasure, and vicious indulgence of our people, makes your preparation a necessity; and if applied, will save hundreds who resort to saloons for temporary recuperation.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS has been thoroughly tested for dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, weakness, debility, overwork, rheumatism, neuralgia, consumption, liver complaints, kidney troubles, &c., and it never fails to render speedy and permanent relief.

The entertainment to be given by the Library Association, in the basement of the Methodist church, next Thursday evening is to be a novel affair. After the supper a number of songs will be given by fifty young choiristers who will sing to the music of a brass orchestra of six pieces which has been formed and put in practice for the occassion. It will be a great event for our music loving public and one which none should miss.

Death of W. B. Atwell.

Mr. W. B. Atwell, a native of Rowan county, but for a number of years a resident of Mecklenburg, died at his home, four miles east of Charlotte, yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. The funeral will take place at Sugar Creek church to-day at 1 e'clock. Friends of the family are invited to attend. Mr. Atwell was a man who was greatly respected and admired by the people of Mecklenburg, and in his death the county loses a good citizen.

Green Fields and Pastures New. Mr. W. J. Best, who has gained quite a reputation in this State as a buyer up of railroads, has made another purchase, and this time outside of North Carolina. He bought the Washington City and Ohio Railroad, last week. The road is hardly as long as its name, as it is to be only 45 milestong and connects Washington City with Leesburg, Va. Who Mr. Best's syndicate in this purchase is, we were not able to learn, but very probably it is the same old Boston ring. But whoever it is, we do most sincerely wish for Mr. Best greater success than has attended his railroad ventures in this State.

Visiting Friends in Charlotte.

E. N. Peterson, a native of this State. and tormerly a resident of Salisbury, from which place he removed in 1873 to Union Springs, Alabama, where he holds the position of manager of the Western Union Telegraph office, favored us with a call yesterday. Mr. Peterson and wife, who is a daughter of Mr. John W. Abernethy, are on a visit to friends in this city and will remain several weeks. He reports the condition of affairs in his State as flourishing with fine crops, the largest oat crop that has been made in any five years together already harvested, a splendid corn prospect and cotton promising

"A Gloomy Report." Wrong again Mr. News. There never

and Still They Come.

Mr. N. M. Simmons, of Brevard Station, has brought us an acquisition to the cereal department of our agricultural museum, in the shape of some im. mense oats and wheat. The oats is a bunch containing sixty-six stalks, all of which grew from one seed. The lot of wheat comprised 14 stalks and there were 57 grains to each head. In a season like this, it requires something extraordinary in the small grain line to attract attention, and Mr. Simmons' samples are of this kind.

Stabbed in the Back. Last Saturday night two negro men, chums and first rate friends they thought themselves to be, left the city together and were plodding along towards Biddle Institute, when they had a falling out about some trifling matter and of course one of them had to get stabbed before it could be settled. Theophilus Parks got out his knife and sampled the toughness of Hicks Damon's back. When he had stuck Damon, Parks put out and has not been captured. The wounded negro made his way to Dr. O'Donoghue's office Sunday morning and had the gap sewed up. It was not a serious stab, but this was because the knife blade was

Mrs. Pegram had been in failing health for some time, but her death was quite unlooked for and was a sad blow to her relatives and friends. The funeral service was conducted yesterday morning in the First Presbyterian church, by the Rev. Dr. Miller, in the presence of a very large concourse of friends. The pall-bearers were Messrs. R. Y. McAden, D. W. Oates, H. C. Eccles, J. R. Holland, A. G. Brenizer and W: E. Stitt.

Dr. Miller preached an earnest and feeling discourse from 2 Corinthians, 5th chapter, beginning with the verse: "For we know, that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heav-

A Sight in an Oats Field. Yesterday afternoon a Buckeye reaper and binder, the only one of its kind in operation in this section, was put to work on Capt. John Wadsworth's grain farm, and quite a crowd went out fromthe city to see it running. The machine was put to work in a beautiful field of oats, the grain being neck high to a man and so thick that it appeared to be a solid mass. It required three horses to pull the reaper and one man to guide them, and this was all. The machine just went along, cut the grain, bound it in sheaves and tossed them in regular order along its track. As a harvester its capacity is simply wonderful. It cuts down a swath about four feet wide and throws out the sheaves already bound. The sheaves are bound with twine, which is wrapped tightly around them, tied and cut at one movement of an ingeniously contrived piece of machinery. In its ordinary run around the field, the reaper threw out twelve sheaves per minute, which beats the old-time sickle somewhat. The spectators looked upon the working of the reaper as something marvelous. The perfection of such a machine as this is certainly a great achievement and its introduction upon the farms of the South will work a revolution in the old ways of the harvester. The City Graded School.

The annual meeting of the board of commissioners of the city graded school was held yesterday afternoon. Mayor DeWolfe, the chairman of the board, and all of the commissioners, Messrs. H. B. Williams, D. W. Oates, Gen. R. D. Johnston, Dr. E. Nye Hutchison and Capt. W. A. Barrier, were present. The election of Prof. T. J. Mitchell, of Mt. Gilead, Ohio, who was nominated by the board at the meeting last Saturday for superintendent of the city graded school, was unanimously confirmed. Prof. Mitchell is engaged at a salary of $1,400 for the calendar year beginning July 1st.

Capt. Fred. Nash was unanimously re-elected secretary and treasurer of the board, and his bond fixed at $5000, which was promptly given. The board decided to continue the contract for the Miller building as the school house, and it was ordered that the superintendents of both the public schools be notified to send in a list of all their scholars, grades and average attendance, at once. The secretary was instructed to notify the teachers of the public schools that the present school term ends with the current school month. The old committees were re-elected and are as follows: Standing committee on Finance-A Twenty-Two Months and $1,000 Fine. People who are in the habit of chipping, punching and otherwise mutilating coin, will be interested to know that the penalty for the same is of the severest sort—as bad if not worse than hanging. A grocer was last week tried in the courts of New York City on the charge of mutilating coin and was sentenced by the judge to a term of one year and ten months imprisonment and to pay a fine of $1,000. This punishment is inflicted under the provisions of the bill Gen. R. B. Vance had passed through Congress to punish mutilators of coin and this man is about the first unfortunate to fall under it. By the time a few more of them are dealt with in this manner, mutilated coin will begin to disappear in a surprising manner. This man's fate is a timely hint and we need not urge that it be heeded by our people.

Laudanum Instead of Paregoric. The little three-year old child of Mr. and Mrs. Simmons Clarkson, who live on Church street, very narrowly escaped death through the careless blunder of its nurse, who gave it laudanum in mistake for paregoric. Mrs. Clarkson had gone to the funeral of Mrs. Pegram, and during her absence the nurse gave the child a spoonful of laudanum, mistaking it to be paregoric. On Mrs. Clarkson's return home, she noticed the drowsy condition of her child and the nurse being questioned, her almost fatal mistake was discovered. Dr. Jones was hastily summoned and arrived in time to save the little one's life. The poison was pumped out of it and it was walked about for awhile until all the symptoms of the drug had disappeared. It was a very narrow escape. A few

The Pubs and Antis in Gaston.

Gaston county put on her convention day clothes last Saturday and gathered around the court house at Dallas. Two conventions were held that same evening and when the last one adjourned the people still felt unhappy and yearned for more. So far as we could learn, both conventions were orderly, as is usually the case in Gaston. The antiprohibition convention was called together first, by Maj. W. R. Rankin, chairman. On organizing, Geo. W. McKee, Esq., was made secretary. The resolutions adopted by the Mecklenburg anticonvention, of Tuesday last, were read in the meeting and adopted unanimously. Several speeches were made and then the following delegates to the anticonvention in Raleigh, were appointed: R. M. Jenkins, Lee Suggs, John Gamble, W. W. Jewett, Henry Hardy, Joseph

Hoffman and J. F. Wilson. The anti-convention then adjourned, and the Republican county convention was organized, with J. M. Armstrong presiding as chairman and M. W. Jewett, secretary. T. D. McAlpine and Geo. W. McKee were appointed dele gates to the State Republican convention which meets in Raleigh on the 14th. A series of resolutions were adopted and a Republican executive committee for Gaston was appointed. Delegates were elected to attend the congressional and judicial convention.

Both conventions were quite well attended. The delegates appointed to the Republican State convention are said to be in favor of the coalition movement and the two conventions harmonized on this point.
