No Whiskey!

Brown's Iron BITTERS is one of the very few tonic medicines that are not composed mostly of alcohol or whiskey, thus becoming a fruitful source of intemperance by promoting a desire for rum.

Brown's Iron BITTERS is guaranteed to be a nonintoxicating stimulant, and it will, in nearly every case, take the place of all liquor, and at the same time absolutely kill the desire for whiskey and other intoxicating beverages.

Rev. G. W. RICE, editor of the American Christian Review, says of Brown's Iron

Brown's Iron BITTERS has been thoroughly tested for dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, weakness, debility, overwork, rheumatism, neuralgia, consumption, liver complaints, kidney troubles, &c., and it never fails to render speedy and permanent relief. 1.7 1 1 1 1 1

Meeting of the Pioneer No. 2.

At the regular meeting of the Pioneer Fire Company No. 2, held last night, steps were taken towards forming a team for the purpose of entering tournaments, and a committee was appointed to recommend some plan for getting a new reel for the company. A resolution was unanimously adopted tendering the use of their hall to the E. D. Latta Hose Company No. 6, until they were permanently organized and got their hall fitted up. Several new members were elected and some important business transacted.

Commencement at the C. M. I.

The closing exercises of the ninth annual session of the Carolina Military Institute will take place on June 8th to 15th inclusive, which dates will be consumed in the annual examination of the classes. On Sunday, 11th, Rev. J. T. Bagwell, of Charlotte, will preach the commencement sermon. Wednesday, 14th, at 8 o'clock, p. m., the declamation by the members of the fourth class, and the orations and essays by members of the third class will be had. Inge 15th is commencement day, when the members of the second class and the graduates will deliver their orations and read their essays, after which the diplomas will be conferred.

Biddle Institute.

The Rev. Dr. Nelson, of Geneva, N. Y., who preached the Baccalaureate sermon of Biddle Institute commencement in the colored Presbyter an church of this city, last Sunday, is to deliver the annual address before the graduating class at Biddle, this forenoon, at 11 o'clock. There are four graduates from this institution this year, and the attendance has numbered 170 students. Speaking of Biddle, by the way, the sum already subscribed for the new building amounts to $27,000.

The architect's plans call for $40,000, and the subscription will be easily brought up to these figures. It is ex, pected that work will be commenced on the new building within the course of the next month.

Take in Sail ... The Squall's a Coming. In the Republican political circles of Charlotte it appears to be quite lively just now, if we are to judge by the street gossip which one hears at every turn he makes. There is trouble within the wigwam and it looks like peace will not be restored until a couple of the warriors are kicked out. The dissatisfied element are not only moving against postmaster Jenkins, but they are trying to under-pin the colored mail agent Gordon, who it seems has a pro-pensity for teo much talking and speech-making. It was told the reporter yesterday that a petition praying for Gordon's removal was circulated along the A. T. & O. COUNTY AFFAIRS.

What an Inquest Cost--Johnnie Rooke -- Roads -- Treasurer Belk's School Fund Report.

The county commissioners were in session again yesterday, auditing accounts and attending to such business as was brought before them. Quite a number of orders were issued on the treasurer for payments, and among them was one for $50.70, to Coroner Alexander. This settles the bill of costs in the infanticide case of a couple of months ago-the time the coroner was called to hold an inquest over the podies of two infants that were found under the old depot platform, as will be remembered. The inquest lasted eight days, at an expense of $5 per day, making $40; summoning six jurors at 30 cents each, $1.80; twenty-three witnesses, $6.90, and burial expenses $2, a total of $50.70. This is what that inquest cost the county, and had not Coroner Alexander been a man of good judgment and sagacity, it might even have been more. He did his duty in the premises and worked on the case until he found it hopeless, when to save the county as much expense as possible, he adjourned his court of inquiry, after exhausting every means within his reach to trace the guilt home to its perpetrators. He only did his duty, and

Mr. J. B. Rooke was elected standard keeper for Mecklenburg county, in place of the late F. Kuester. Uncle Johnnie is to be congratulated on his good luck. He will make a standard officer.

The monthly report of W. T. Waller, county superintendent of public instruction, was received and filed.

Sheriff Alexander was directed to summon a jury of good and lawful igen to lay out a public road from the Camden road, near Ebenezer church, at Hugh Reid's, to the Providence road, near Mrs. Pharr's, no one having appeared to show cause why said road should not be opened.

The confirmation of the report of the jury, in laying out the proposed public road from Beattie's Ford to Moore's Ferry, on the Catawba river, was rejected on account of the expense of a bridge over McDowell's creek. The books and vouchers of S. E. them in and not Mr. N. M. Fast Legged Drummer. A most exhilarating and refreshing race was witnessed yesterday evening at the Air Line depot, as the Atlanta bound train pulled out. A drummer had deposited his luggage in the car and getting tired waiting for the train to start, got out and struck up a conversation with a friend. He became so absorbed that he did not notice his train start off and his first knowledge of it was when a gamin pulled his duster and shouted:

"Mister, yer train's gone." The train was about fifty yards off, but the drummer gave a hop, step and a ump, and was hot in its track. He must have belonged to the Augusta No s, for the way he showed his heels was a wonder. He caught up with the rain at last and swinging himself on to the platform, waved the crowd a happy adjeu, the signal being a little black flask which he took out of his hip pocket and elevated at a convenient

Exercises at the Female Institute. The Female Institute was crowded last night with a most interested audience. The exercises were opened with the quartet, "Lamb of God," which was most exquisitely rendered by Miss N. Hannah, Mrs. Atkinson and Messrs G. Jordan and Dr. A. Bidez. The Rev. Wm. E. Boggs, of Atlanta, delivered a most excellent address to the young ladies. Its delivery occupied one hour, but throughout it was listened to with the despest interest and most marked attention.

The execution of the allegro by Miss L. Phillips, was most enthusiastically applauded. After the announcing of the distinctions and the conferring of certificates of proficiency to a number of young of diplomas and medals to the graduates. Misses B Caldwell, S. D. Kennedy, E. McDonald, Julia Dowd, I. Parks and S. Spencer were the recipients. After the medals and diplomas had been dis-tributed, the Rev. N. M. Woods presented each of the graduates with a

Bible. The music throughout was most charmingly rendered. Miss S. Finlayson's Molto Allegro con Fuoco was especially fine. "The Summer Storm," by seven pupils, with piano accompaniment, was something too grand for description. The exercises lasted until 11 e'clock, and the lateness of the hour precludes the possibility of our giving the occasion the descriptive notice that

How they Would Recognize Him.

Two Irishmen were yesterday resting from their labors on a building in the city, and were discussing the question as to how they would be identified by their friends in case the house were to burn up and them with it. One of them had a defect in his hearing and that is how their conversation happened to be overheard. "Me frints wid know me by me gould ring," said Mike, "and faith Pat, how wid ye frints know ye poor auld body." "Oh," said Pat, "aisy enough. They wid know me because I'm dafe as the devil."

It is a vindication of the truthfulness of the "Christian Consciousness" of spiritual things, of its equal validity with the natural consciousness of natural things, as against the assaults of the materialistic philosophy of the day. For profound thought, clear cut argument, simple style and happy illustration, it is unsurpassed by any similar production we have met recently. The argument is metaphysical but without the usual incomprehensible jargon of metaphysics. It is metaphysics clothed in every day language; and adapted to popular apprehension. Any of your readers who would like to see something on this very important and practical subject, which they can read with pleasure, and understand without a dictionary, will do well to possess themselves of it. It is published by the Presbyterian Board of Publication, Philadelphia, and will doubtless be on sale at the bookstores and the l'resbyterian, depository at Col. Rankin's store at an early day. S. H.
