DR. J. BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR.

WOMAN'S BEST FRIEND.

It is well known to physicians, and alas! too well known to suffering women themselves, that they are subject to numerous diseases peculiar to their sex, such as suppression of the Menses, painful and scanty Menstruation, Congestion, Ulceration and Falting of the Womb, attended with an endless train of sympathetic and constitutional disorders, which embitters the whole life, and which have long been considered as almost incurable. But at last the remedy has been found in

DR. J. BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR. It is not a "cure-ali" but a remedy for one class of diseases, all of which pertain to the WOMB. Any sufferer from the diseases mentioned can take this reme ty, and thus relieve herself without revealing her condition to any one, and without subjecting her woman's modesty to the shock of an examination by a physician. To bring health and happiness to the homes of suffering women is a mission before which royal favor sinks into insignificance. What earthly benefaction can compare with one which protects from which gives ease for pain, joy for sorrow, smiles for tears, the rose of health for the pallor of disease, the light, elastic step for dragging weariness-mights of soft repose for heavy hours of tossing restlessness, bounding vigor for languishing duliness, the sweet lines of full grown beauty for the sharp and withered form of emaciation, a long life of mental, physical, social and domestic enjoyments for a "few sad days" of pain and gloom, ending in an early grave? Such is the mission, such are the results of Dr. J. BRADFIELD'S FE-MALE REGULATOR, which is hence truly and appropriately styled "Woman's Best Friend."

"That dire d'sease whose ruthless power lihers beauty's transient flower?"

"Whites" and all those irregularities of the womb so destructive to the health, happiness and beauty of women, disappear like magic before a single bottle of this wonderful compound.

All who suffer from any of these diseases are most earnestly inwited to give this great ramedy a trial. It has cured thousands and will cure you.

Don't fail to try it.

Disease is an effect, not a cause. Its origin is within; its manifestations without. Hence, to cure the disease the CAUSE must be removed, and in no other way can a cure ever be effected. WAR-NER'S SAFE KIDNEY and LIVER CURE is es tablished on just this principle. It realizes that

95 PER CENT. of all diseases arise from deranged kidneys and liver, and it strikes at once at the root of the difficulty. The elements of which it is composed act directly upon these great organs, both as a roop and RESTORER, and, by placing them in a healthy condition, drive disease and pain from the sys-

For the innumerable troubles caused by un-healthy Kidneys, Liver and Orinary Organs; for the distressing Disorders of Women; for Malaria, and for physical derangements generally, this great remedy has no equal. Austrain Ladies. Ladies of high birth are wonderfully capable, owing to their excellent system of education. Whatever they may be called upon to do, from cutting a dress to making a salad, they are always ready. Young girls with titles and fortunes are sent to famous milliners and dressmakers, where they serve a regular apprenticeship, and remain until perfectly able to make any garment. An Austrian lady that cannot swim or does not know how to ride a horse is an exception. Needlework of every kind, even to the making of lace, is a part of every girl's education. There is no smattering of anything. Whether she learns the piano or to draw, she learns it thoroughly. If she has no talent at all for an art, which is seldom, she lets that art entirely alone. Her pedestrian accomplishments put us quite to shame. Her efforts of memory are another source of wonder to us. This wonderful memory, which enables Austrian girls to repeat the whole of "Paradise Lost" or an entire drama, comes from practice begun in babyhood. Every day the girl is expected to learn a poem or a page. She often does it while making her toilet; and at last, from habit, a poem requires but a single reading, and it is stowed away in the memory safely. As linguists they are famous. This, too, comes from learning when very young. As the court language is French, learning it is compulsory. Even servants are expected to speak both French and German. It is only among the nobility and higher classes that one finds these accomplishments. The burgher's daughters will not condescend to the learning of dressmaking and cooking, which the titled lady can do without reflecting on her social position. And so the young women to whom such knowledge would be of practical benefit are inefficient, while all the ladies at the court have at their fingers' ends the power to do anything. Cooking is not neglected. The Austrian lady of station is acquainted with every detail of the cuisine. A story is told by a Viennese lady of another who, having neglected this branch of her education, allowed, at a great dinner party which she gave, two dishes of the same color to be served in succession, a fault for which she was hardly to be forgiven. The princesses of the royal household attend a course of lectures from a chef entirely upon the order of serving. Young ladies do not learn the art of cooking at cooking clubs, or from pubic lessons, as here in America, and they rarely learn in their own kitchens. It is the custom to go to some great house -the house of a princess or to a very rich banker's-where there are famous chefs, by whom they are taught. When a chef engages to cook for a nobleman he stipulates that he is to have the privilege of teaching as many young ladies as he chooses. These young ladies need not even know the mistress of the house, and they make their arrangements with the cook only. A Hint for Coffee Drinkers.

Philadelphia Press. While "dining out." one day recently, the coffee, which, though the last, was by no means the least of the good things furnished, was so unusually excellent that it was the subject of general remark, and a word in the ear of the charming hostess after retiring to the drawing room called forth the following explanation of how the good result was obtained: The coffee furnished was a clear amber in color, rich in flavor and deliciously aromatic. To give the hostess' method a fair test it will be no more than just to don one's apron and adjourn to the kitchen. The coffee to be used is Marcaibo and Java, equal parts of each, finely ground. One large cup of coffee, one cup of cold water, one well beaten egg, mix thoroughly, add four cups of cold water and place over the fire. After it reaches the boiling point allow five minutes to finish the process; strain and serve immediately. This seems a very simple process, but in the hands of a servant, if allowed to boil too long, would be easily spoiled.

A Road Engine.

Capt. L. C. Hanes paraded the streets last Tuesday with a traction road engine. After exhibiting the engine alone, he made up a train consisting of two threshing machines and a horse power. They went up and down the principal streets, while men, women and children turned out to see them. It was indeed a novel sight. After the people in town had seen enough of the procession, the engine was taken to the country to test its ability to travel over our roads. It went over Michael's hill, one of the steepest inclines anywhere in the public roads of this vicinity, without any extra exertion. All of these machines will find plenty of work to do this summer.

To Tell the Age of Hens. If a hen's spurs are hard and the scales on the legs rough, she is old, whether you see her head or not, but her head will corrobarate your observations. If indervill is so stiff that you cannot bend it down and the comb thick and rough, leave her, no matter how fat and plump, for some one less particular. A young hen has only the rudiments of spurs, the scales on the legs are smooth. glossy and flesh colored, whatever the color may be; the claws tender and short, the nails sharp, the underbill soft and the comb always thin and smooth.

Origin of the Cabalistic O. K. Memphis Avalanche. The cabalistic O. K. was first officialy used by Old Keokuk, pacific chief of the Sacs and Foxes. When he sold Iowa to Uncle Sam he signed the deed with his initials, O. K. His co-chief, the fiery B. B. (Black Hawk) refused to sell or sign away the rights of his people to this beautiful land and hence the "Black Hawk war." Old Keokuk years ago passed on to the happy hunting grounds of the Great Beyond, but his sign continues to supply a long-felt want in the English language.

neophytes, just caught, added. Now, just look at it. In the powwow there was our old friend-the Boss Radical of the Raleigh District-Ike Young. He was there and he was quite "previous" more than once. It was lovely to see this innocent "Liberal" tickling the elbow and scratching the back of the dear old "Kurnell" who presided, and it was really cheering to behold how the old Democratic officeseeker smiled graciously on Ike in return. How very beautiful it is to see brethren (?) of the same political family dwelling together in loving and gracious unity. Then there were Jeems Harriss, of fraud commission notoriety, and O'Hara and Norment and other old-time Radicals, sitting cheek-by-jowl with Natt Atkinson, who has a conspicuous amount of Buncombe in all he does and says, and Hallyburton, Democractic editor, so-called, and other recent converts to Radicalism. Altogether it was a nice, a very fragrant gathering. This is the concern that is expected to bamboozle the people, to sell out, and break up the old Democratic party. Well, we will see what we shall see but if the Democrats cannot fan out such a ringed, streaked and striped combination as the Liberal-Radical combination for 1882, then it will deserve to go into enforced retirement. Rupert's Love.

Chicago Tribune.

"Do you love me, Rupert?" The soft rays of the evening sun were limning the rocking treetops with a halo of golden splendor; the sephers of night were kissing into somnolence the flowers that by day had smiled in the meadows; the doves nestled their downy heads under their wings, little wotting that the halcyon days of poppies would soon be present; while the old man had the bull dog out in the barn putting a wire edge on his teeth. Such is the chromo that presents itself to the rapidly dying reader.

Esmerelda W. Pike was not handsome, but her manner had that blithe naivet about it peculiar to boardinghouse gravy. As she stood there underneath the lindens, dressed in a flimsy costume of fly-on-the-butter silk, her lily-white hand toying with Rupert Simpson's mustache, one must needs look twice to see what it was. "Do you love me?" the girlasked again, choking back a sob that was water she had taken. Rupert did not speak for some time. He was trying to frame a reply, but could not find a frame to suit him. After a moment his answer came in slow, daetylic cadence, with accent on the antepenult.

SAMARITAN NERVINE

Cures Female Weakness, General Debility, Leu-corrhœa or Whites, Painful Menstruation, Ulceration of the Uterus, Internal Heat, Gravel, Inflam-mation of the Bladder, Irritability of the Bladder. For Wakefulness at night, there is no better remedy During the change of life no Female should be wirhout it. It quiets the Nervous system and gives rest, comfort, and nature's sweet sleep.

SAMARITAN NERVINE

Cures Alcoholism, Drunkenness and the habit of Oplum Eating. These degrading habits are by far the worst evils that have ever befallen suffering humanity. Thousands die annually from these noxious drugs. The drunkard drinks liquor not because he likes it, but for the pleasure of drink-ing and treating his friends, little thinking that he first uses the orug in small quantities as a harmless antidote. The soothing influence of the drug takes strong hold upon its victim, leading him on to his own destruction. The babits of Opium Eating and Liquor Drinking are precisely what eating is to alimentiveness, as over eating first in-flames the stomach, which redoubles its cravings until it paralyzes both the stomach and appetite. So every drink of liquor or dose of opium, instead of satisfying, only adds to its fierce fires, until it consumes the vital force and then itself. Like the glu tonous tape-worm, it cries "Give, give.give." but never enough until its own rapacity devours itself. Samaritan Nervine gives instant relief in such cases. It produces sleep, quiets the nerves, but'ds up the nervous system, and restores body and mind to a healthy condition.

SAMARITAN NERVINE

Cures Nervous Dyspepsia. Palpitation of the Heart, Asthma. Bronchitis, Scrofula, Syphilis, diseases of the Kidneys and all diseases of the Urinary Organs. Nervous Debility, caused by the indiscretions of youth, permanently cured by the use of the invaluable remedy. To you young middle this invaluable remedy. To you, young, middle aged, and old men, who are cov-ring four suffer-ings as with a mantle by silence, look up, you can be saved by timely efforts, and make ornaments to society, and lewels in the crown of your Maker, if you will. Do not keep this a secret longer, until it saps your vitals, and destroys both body and soul. If you are thus afflicted take DR RICH-MOND S SAMARITAN NERVINE. It will restore your shattered nerves, arrest pr-mature delay and impart tone and energy to the whole system.
