Summer

Complaints

At this season, various diseases of the bowels are prevalent, and many lives are lost through lack of knowledge of a safe and sure remedy. FERRY'S PAIN

KILLER is a sure cure for Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Summer

Complaint, and is perfectly safe.

Read the following:

BALTIMORE, N. Y., March 22, 1881.

FERRY'S PAIN KILLER was sent to me by a friend and I have used it for several years. It is a very good medicine. I know of no other that will cure the above diseases so quickly and so safely. I have used it for many years and it has never failed me.

I have used it for many years and it has never failed me. I have used it for many

NEWS NOTES.

A revolution has broken out in Uruguay.

Mr. Quinn, late secretary of the land league, has been released from Kilmal-ham jail.

Nine hundred and four Russian Jews have been sent from Leningrad for America within the past two days.

Mr. Abbey, the American theatrical manager, has signed a contract with Mrs. Langtry, the actress, for a tour in America beginning in November next.

The iron strikers at Irondeau, Chicago, are said to be in want of supplies, but they still hold out. The Hyde Park authorities refuse to aid them.

Matthew Harris, a prominent land owner, has been arrested by the Free-Journal, and is accused of outraging the feelings of Irish nationalists throughout the world.

Near Rome, N. Y., Saturday night, while a special train was passing, a train of about twenty cars, carrying seventy-five miles an hour, the brake beams of the tender broke, but the train was stopped in time to prevent accident.

The policy of the new Egyptian ministry for the present is to preserve the status quo. The falling off in customs revenue and railway receipts in Egypt is giving the European control at Alexandria much anxiety. Mr. Holde, the French secretary of control at Alexandria, has committed suicide.

Charles Van No, editor of the Staats Zeitung, and Joseph M. Wallace, who was arrested in Central Park, New York, have been released. Van No was standing by and a third man who was engaged in the struggle escaped. Van No said Wallace had released his wife and he had freed him to the spot to whip him.

The London Standard says there is reason to believe that there are differences in the cabinet in regard to the Egyptian question, and that the retirement of John Lubbock, active in the intervention decided upon, is probable.

An Alexandria dispatch reports that the Khedive has written to Arabi Pasha entrusting him with the entire command of the army. The Sultan is urging the Khedive to return to Cairo, and Arabi Pasha has given him similar advice. All European employees of the government have been ordered to return to their duties at Cairo.

STATE NEWS.

The revenue collections in the 4th district for the week ending last Saturday were $22,250.51.

Montgomery Star: Blackberry season is almost here when we can walk up to the merchant and tell him we won't give 17 cents per pound for western meat.

A very fine specimen of copper and silver ore was left at our office a few days since. It came from the new mine of Thayer & Mason, near Eldorado, Eldorado is beginning to show that she has the right name.

Raleigh News and Observer: The crops in the northern part of the State are reported as looking up, and cotton has made quite an advance in growth.

Near Millbrook, during Monday's storm, the stable of a Mr. Dean was blown away and a horse in it left standing in what remained of its stall.

Salisbury Examiner: A negro boy with a pocket full of matches, went out into Mr. George Shaver's wheat field

Tuesday to try his skill burning wheat shocks. He had destroyed several before he was discovered.

The second annual session of the Rowan county teachers' institute will begin in the graded school building,

Salisbury, on the third Monday of July and continue three weeks.

Mining Notes.

Salisbury Watchman:

The Carolina Queen Mining Company of Burke county has declared its first dividend of two cents per share. The Queen is a placer mine, next adjoining the Glen Alpine Springs property. It is controlled by Boston capital.

Near Belton, N. C., a man has driven out the water from a mine 200 feet on the mine—down 200 feet on vein.

The work will be continued as soon as fresh air can be supplied, or another shaft driven. The mine is now being worked out, and is sufficiently rich to meet the most sanguine expectations of Superintendent Floyd.

Hancock mine, Burke county, came into a rich deposit in their place soon after the mine was opened. Mr. Boyd, superintending, is much gratified with the prospects.

Gold Hill is in full blast now—mills and all making machinery all going.

We hope to visit the place soon, and may be able to give some description of the workings.
