ALL SOLID.

In speaking of the probable action of the Republican convention at Raleigh we took occasion to say that while there might be some squabbling and wrangling there, the party would remain solid and its leaders would be found pulling harmoniously together as if there had never been any bones of contention between them. Has it panned out so? Notwithstanding all the bravado and bluster of the anticoalitionists before the convention not a solitary voice has been raised in protest against its action, and coalitionist and anti-coalitionist, prohibitionist and anti-prohibitionist sop out of the same dish, and tumble into the same bed as if they had never kicked, cuffed, or mauled each other in all their lives.

Their fraternal intercourse is touchingly affectionate. The organs bow to the inevitable, dutifully submit to the superior wisdom of the convention, and while deploring in gentle strains that their advice was not taken, advise their readers to patriotically swallow their disappointment, come to the scratch, vote the ticket, as nauseating as it may be, and save the party and the country

This is no surprise to us, It is as we expected. There never was since political parties were formed such a thoroughly and effectively organized one as the Republican party, especially in the Southern States with the colored vote almost solid to count upon and as a foundation to build upon. And nowhere and at no time has the same implicit obedience been paid to leaders as is paid to the leaders of the Radical party in the South. No matter what the policy nor the platform; when once adopted, they all fall intoline and work under a common leadership and

The North State, the once vigorous organ of the anti-coalitionists, in speaking of the action of the convention says "expediency is the order of the day," which is true, but not new, for the Republican party, especially in the South, has always been a party of expediency, and never a party of principle. Expediency has been, practically, its watchword and its life. By expediency aided by trickery and fraud it has hopes to regain the power it lost. "Expediency," another word for trickery

And how thep all take to it. What a magnet to draw the jarring factions together! what magic power to close the mouths of noisy disputants and bring harmony into discordant ranks. Expediency is the watchword, and principle

It is this same expediency which has constantly ignored for office the colored Republican who constitutes the voting power of that party but who has been persistently ignored because it was inexpedient to bring him to the front, lest they might offend the white Republicans, who are perfectly willing but not to give in return. But the colored man recognizes the expediency in the case, goes along and does the voting

The Republican leaders have settled their differences, and are now, big and little, of all shades of opinion, united solidly for the coming contest, and under the banner of expediency propose to wage their war against the Democracy. We must recognize this fact that we have a solid, compact, shrewd and unscrupulous enemy to fight, and one that we cannot fight by shutting our eyes to the dangers that are before us and trying to persuade ourselves that the dangers do not exist. We must meet the issues that are presented squarely and fairly, and go before the people with a positive and not simply a negative policy, and the men nominated must be from the people and by the people. The coming campaign means no child's play, and there is work for A Quartet Execution in South Carolina

KINGSTREE, S. C., June 23.-Anderson Singleton, Lucinda Teasdale, Abraham Anderson and Boston Singletary, all colored, were hanged to-day. The first two were convicted of the murder of Phebe Teasdale, wife of Anderson Singletary, and half sister of Lucinda Teasdale on the 12th of January last.

Singletary and Anderson were convicted of robbery and arson on the 27th of March last. The execution was conducted within the jail enclosures, but a crowd of about 2,000 persons were in town. There was no disorder and everything passed off quietly. All the prisoners protested their innocence except the woman who said she killed her sister in self-defence. Singleton in his last speech said the rope had been put around his neck by witch-craft and named a voodoo doctor who he said had bewitched him. The execution occurred at 12 m. All prisoners died easily, except Singletary, who struggled violently and had to be pushed away from

The Federal Land Office has sold and given away in the fiscal year just closing 13,000,000 acres, the largest on record. The Democrats in the 4th judicial district in convention at Fayetteville last Wednesday, nominated James C McRae for judge, and John D McIver for solicitor. The editor of the Greensboro Patriot has made another discovery, and positively asserts that the "CHARLOTTE OB-SERVER is not the West." Such evidences of genius should not go unappreciated. The present year has been a remarkable one for floods, fires, cyclones, &c.

Politically speaking, there are some large sized eruptions going on, and they dont seem to be confined to any particular section of Uncle Sam's dominions. It seems to be a year for general shake-Senator Pendleton's civil service res olution is pending in the Senate, and in the meantime the work of political assessment goes bravely on, and Chairman Hubbell is scooping in the little $20 checks to ensure "a free ballot and a fair count" in the coming Congressional elections.

The North Georgia gold mines are said to be paying large dividends on investments. At Gainesville over 300,000 pounds of new machinery await transportation to the mines in the mountains, and it is stated that upward of 150 pounds of gold dust pass through the neighboring mines weekly for New | won all its victories, and thus again it York and the mint.

The St Louis Globe-Democrat (Republican paper) is a worthy disciple of the lawyer whose bull gored the farmer's ox. It says: "We are not in favor of presidential interference in State campaigns, as a general rule, but when a Republican President does interfere, we like to see him do his best for the Republican ticket.

The "year without a summer" was 1816. Cattle were killed by freezing weather in June that year in the New England and Middle States. In Maine and Vermont the snow was ten inches deep. July was wintry and icy. August was the same, but in September it was to accept the votes of the colored men a little warmer, and then came bitter cold weather until the end of the year-The next year was a productive season.

Richmond State: The decision of Judge Hughes sustained the constitutionality of the State law which lays a heavier license tax on sample merchants from abroad than on our regular merchants, doing business in the State and who pay other taxes, will give great satisfaction to our home trade, but will be far from gratifying to the northern drummers and our hotel keepers. An appeal will probably be taken; but meanwhile the law stands.

THE COUNTY GOVERNMENT QUESTION.

Commenting on the subject of the present system of county government, the Hickory Carolinian, published in Catawba county, where Gov. Vance received a Democratic majority of 1400 votesin 1876, talks thus on the county all. government question:

"That this will be a most important issue in the approaching campaign we presume no reading or thinking man will deny. That the present system is the work of the Democratic party we doubt not will be as readily admitted. Without stopping to inquire whether the change was a necessity of the time or a mistake altogether the question has now to be answered: what will the Democratic party do with it? It may be said the party has spoken and declared its purpose to stand by the present system. We know the Democratic press very generally and many leading politicians have so spoken, and we know furthermore that he who dares to dissent from their views brings upon himself the charge of treason and a purpose to desert. We are prepared for all this, and yet we are not deterred from the faithful discharge of what we deem our duty to the people who compose and should control the party. If we had not once had the elective system perhaps we should not now demand its return. If we had not had an elective judiciary we might find more arguments to sustain the present mode of choosing justices and county commissioners. Revolutions never go backwards and the elective franchise once enjoyed is not willingly surrendered. The change was made, and it is asked shall it remain for the protection of some dozen or more eastern counties from negro rule, when | it is not denied that the same Democratic legislature that changed the law appointed negro magistrates in counties where they had never been elected by the people. Sheriffs, clerks and registers are elected by the people and we have not yet heard that any negro has been elected to said offices. But it is said we shall lose our Democratic strength in the east, or the counties mentioned if we return to the elective system. We shall lose both east and west if we do not. Defeat or victory hangs on this issue.

The people demand a change. The leaders have to yield or give way to others. We have read the Wilmington Star's claptrap reply to the Democrat' who writes to the Henderson ville Herald on the subject. The usual charge is made that 'A Democrat' will 'vote with the Republicans,' and that the usual threat is made that 50,000 Demothe party is in a deplorable condition.

After much abuse and bravado the

AT THE CAPITOL.

THE SENATE SPENDS THE DAY PRINCIPALLY ON THE BANK-RUPTCY BILL.

The House Continues the Discussion of the Bill to Reduce Internal Revenue Taxation and Follows it with Eulogies on the Late Thomas Allen, of Missouri.

WASHINGTON, June 23.-SENATE.-Beck offered a resolution reciting that it is alleged that the directors of some national banks in Richmond, Va., have been permitted to file in the office of the comptroller of currency a modified oath with substantially the following proviso: "The above is subscribed in all respects, except so far as it applies to rate of interest allowed by law in this State."

The resolution directs the secretary of the treasury to furnish certified copies of all oaths which were taken by directors of national banks in Richmond, which were on file in the comptroller's office during the years 1879 and 1880. Adopted.

The Senate took up the rule recently reported from the committee on rules to settle the right of the President pro tem. to designate his own substitute in cases of absence. The subject after occupying three-fourths of the time allotted for the morning business was referred with amendments, suggested by Brown and Gorman, to the committee on rules for further consideration. The House bill to establish a uniform system of bankruptcy, came up as the regular order. The discussion of this bill occupied nearly the remainder of the day's session. It was finally laid aside until Monday.

The Senate then took up and passed the Senate bill to pay for the use by the government of the Protestant Orphan Asylum property at Natchez, Miss. At 3:45 the House resolutions commemorative of the late Representative Allen, of Missouri, were received, and after impressive remarks upon the life and services of the deceased, by Cockrell, Dawes, Brown and Vest, the usual mortuary resolutions were adopted, and the Senate, at 5 o'clock, adjourned until House. -- Townshend, of Illinois, gave notice that if the committee on ways and means did not at an early day report a resolution for the final adjournment of Congress he would himself make a motion to that effect. Kelly, of Pennsylvania, chairman of the committee on ways and means, stated that the matter would be brought to the attention of the House after the next committee meeting. Kasson, of Iowa, from the committee on ways and means, reported back a bill amending section 2,983 of the Re vised Statutes that the duties paid on sugars shall be assessed on the quantity entered into bonded warehouses. Referred to committee of the whole.

The House then went into committee of the whole and resumed consideration of the bill to reduce internal revenue taxation, it being agreed that the general debate thereon should close at 3 o'clock, at which hour eulogies upon the life and character of the late Thomas Allen, of Missouri, would be

Stephens, of Georgia, said that the bill was right as far as it went but that it did not go nearly as far as he would have wished. He thought that the entire internal revenue system ought to be abolished. Internal taxes, except in time of war, were anti-republican and anti-democratic; they were in opposition to the general policy of this government; they were of British origin and had always been viewed with British odium. The best way to raise revenue was by import duties. They bore less heavy on the tax-payers and that was what legislators ought to look to. A general debate followed which occupied the time until 3 o'clock, when the committee rose after addresses by Robinson, of Massachusetts, Hewitt, of New York, and Frost of Missouri. The House, out of respect to the deceased, at 4:15 adjourned.

STORM-STRUCK IOWA. The Work of the Tornado in the Prairie DESMOINES, IOWA, June 23 .- A heavy wind and rain storm passed over Iowa vesterday afternoon. The recently desolated town of Malcolm, Piscawiche county, was visited for three hours by a pitiless storm. The damage to goods rescued from Saturday's hurricane is enormous and will probably prove a total loss.

At Pleasantville, Marion county, the residence of P. L. Lyon was badly twisted, and props against it on the east side were driven through the wall. Numerous chimneys and shade and fruit trees in that vicinity were blown down and signs and awnings whisked away. It is thought the damage east and north of there is even more severe. DUBUQUE, June 23 .- A heavy wind and rain storm prevailed during yesterday afternoon along the lines of the Illinois Central Railroad, west of here, and great damage was done at Inde-pendence. The telegraph wires are all prostrated and it is impossible to communicate with that place. From the reports of returning pas-sengers from that district it appears that the storm struck Independence at a little before 5 o'clock and wrought great destruction. Fences were torn up, barns wrecked, houses levelled and trees uprooted. Nearly all the business houses were unroofed and plate glass

Lightning. Columbia Register, 23rd.

Yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, during a sharp thunder gust, a stroke of lightning fell on the figure of the Confederate soldier capping the beautiful marble monument erected on the State House grounds by the ladies of South Carolina to the immortal Confederate dead. Mr. William H. Anderson, sitting at the door of Mr. Robert Anderson's grain store, at the Northwest corner of Main and Gervais streets, just across from the State House grounds, saw the flashing stroke as it struck off first the head, which fell, and directly after as he relates, the decapitated trunk toppled over. Mr. Anderson saw the whole occurrence and tells us that it was so much like a decapitated human trunk falling in battle that he sprang from his seat with "his heart in his mouth" and with the keenest sense of anguish. We feel that this will be a heavy stroke indeed to our dear, noble women. But our soldier boy must keep his vigil
