NO RESPITE FOR GITEAU. The Attorney General Reports Against it and the Cabinet Unanimously Endorse the Report. WASHINGTON, D. C., June 24--The result of the special meeting of the Cabinet last evening, in considering the case of Giteau, it was made known early this morning by a statement from the Attorney General, that the plea for a respite had been refused.

A Female Crank. Washington Letter. At the Giteau scaffold a young lady from West Virginia exclaimed: "Oh let us form the procession. This gentleman will tell us how. The other gentlemen consented, and the party having been arranged to personate the warden and the deputy, the minister, the condemned and the attendants (the young lady in question taking the place of the warden), the procession, with slow and measured steps, moved to the front of the scaffold. The chaplain here supposed the party would stop, but, while the two or three gentlemen present (the warden, the minister, the judge and the chaplain) were instant relief in such cases. It produces sleep, quiets the nerves, builds up the nervous system, and restores body and mind to a healthy condition.
