OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

THE VANCE COMMITTEE. Interesting Developments--The Whiskey Bill--Personal Paragraphs and Changes in the Postal Service.

There are said to be six million miles of fence in the United States. The bunks sharp who pulled the wool over Charles Francis Adams' eyes has been sentenced to the penitentiary for five years.

If tornadoes continue to do business as they have been doing lately in Iowa, the people will have to build their houses under ground out there.

E. C. Ingersoll, the counsel for old man Christianity in his divorce suit has become insane. A case like that would make any lawyer crazy.

Oscar Wilde is in Texas. Now he has a chance to take a turn with the cowboys and realize the full measure of restlessness.

Prof. W. J. Land, a chemist, of Atlanta, Ga., committed suicide Thursday night. To make sure work, he took poison, severed an artery in an arm, and shot himself in the head.

Robert Bonner, the proprietor of the New York Ledger has invested $382,000 in fast horses since 1859. He keeps them simply for his own gratification and not for sporting purposes.

It will not be difficult for the sovereigns of Maine to find a candidate for governor to vote for this year as there are four in the field, Republican, Democrat, Prohibitionist and Greenbacker.

The story going the rounds of the press to effect that Blaine is worth several million dollars, reminds the New York Sun that John Sherman has also done some miraculous private speculations.

Some of the Georgia people feel so good over the big grain crop in that State that they want the Governor to appoint a day of thanksgiving. The Augusta Chronicle suggests that in the meantime they can pray without a proclamation.

The Georgia murderer, who was sentenced to be hanged on the 30th inst., and petitioned the Governor to fix the time on the 29th, because he did not wish to be hanged on the same day that Guitau was, was rather particular.

If the anti-assessment-civil-service-reform Republicans like Mr. Curtis would have Congressman Hubbell arrested for the assessment programme he is now running it would be a good way to test the legality of that business, and perhaps put a stop to it.

Twenty-five Apache prisoners, captured by the Jesus and Maria Lands in Mexico, were taken out and shot at Chihuahua on the 18th inst. They behaved with wonderful bravery, each one meeting fate with remarkable coolness, and looking defiantly at their executioners.

Labor is very scarce in the Piedmont region of Virginia, and but for the substitution of labor-saving machinery it would be impossible to secure the heavy crop of wheat in that section now ready for harvesting. Many colored men are reported to have left for Pittsburg, Pa., where they find work in the manufacturing establishments. Mahone's reform movement does not seem to be salutary.

A little eight year old son of Mr. Geo. W. Corbett, of Pender county, found his way home last Friday, after having been lost for five days in an unexplored and almost impenetrable swamp, where it spent that time without food or water. During these five days fruitless search had been made in all directions by the parents and a number of neighbors, and when the little fellow put in an appearance they were about to hear their way into this swamp where but few feet had ever trod.

AN INCONSISTENT NOMINATION. Col. Folk, the coalition nominee for associate justice on the Supreme bench, stated in an interview with the editor of the Lenoir Topic, that he regarded the prohibition question as settled, and as not entering into the politics of the State. He also admitted that he was the draughtsman of the bill establishing the present system of county government, and that he vigorously urged its passage, because in his judgment he believed it to be right, and still believed it to be right. On that question he had nothing to recall.

The coalitionists evidently forgot the colonel's record and stultified themselves amazingly when they nominated for the leading position on the State ticket, a man who was the author of and still believes in the bill, opposition to which constitutes one of the main planks in their platform.

THEY "POINT WITH PRIDE." The Republican party in this country is somewhat mixed on the subject of prohibition. In the Western States it is in a quandary, while in the New England States, generally, it is solid for prohibition. We commend the following, the 9th plank in the platform of the Maine Republicans, to the prayerful consideration of North Carolina Republican Anti-Prohibitionists:

"That we refer with confidence and pride to the general record of the Republican party in support of the policy of the prohibition of the traffic in intoxicating liquors, the wisdom and efficiency of which legislation in promoting the moral and material interests of Maine have been demonstrated through the practical prohibition of that traffic in a large portion of the State; and we favor such legislation and such enforcement of law as will secure to every portion of our territory freedom from that traffic. We further recommend the submission to the people of the constitutional prohibitory amendment."

The Dueling Law. Extract from the Act of December 24, 1880. Sec. 7. Whoever shall challenge another to fight at sword, pistol, rapier, or any other deadly weapon, or who shall accept any such challenge, shall for every such offense, on conviction thereof, be deprived of the right of suffrage and be disabled forever from holding any office of honor or profit in this State, and shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary for a term not exceeding two years, at the discretion of the court.

Death of a Baltimore Clergyman. BALTIMORE, June 26.--Rev. John H. Poleski died here last night. The medicine of raw meat, prescribed by some leading physicians, had done him no good, and he died at 11, as a true martyr, Brown's Iron Bitters.

WORK IN CONGRESS.

POLITICAL ASSESSMENTS IN THE SENATE.

After Some Minor Matters the Bill for the Revision of the Internal Revenue Tariff Again Occupies the Attention of the House, and Goes Over for Another Day.

WASHINGTON, June 26.--SENATE.--Brown introduced a bill appropriating $75,000 for a post office and custom house building at Brunswick, Ga. Referred to the committee public building.

Allison, from the appropriations committee, reported back the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill with amendments, and gave notice that he would move its consideration to-morrow. It provides for an aggregate of $20,200,000, being an increase of $282,000 over the amount of the bill as it passed the house. The bill, with sundry tables, showing the changes made by the Senate committee, was ordered printed. Hale presented a conference report on the West Point military appropriation bill, read and adopted.

The resolution moved by Allison, a resolution concerning the political assessments. After some opposition the resolution was taken up. It instructed the committee on the subject to inquire into the expediency of inquiring whether any attempt is being made to levy or collect assessments for political purposes or parties from government employees in Washington, whether the same be under the guise of asking contributions or otherwise, etc.

Mr. Pendleton then read and commented on a resolution which he stated that he would move its consideration to-morrow. The purpose was to levy contributions upon government employees under the guise of a demand for voluntary contributions.

At 2 o'clock the debate on the political assessment resolution was temporarily suspended and a resolution from the House providing for final adjournment on the 29th inst. was briefly considered. The fact was developed that the Senate was decidedly indisposed to fixing a day in the present condition of the bill, and the hour was laid upon the table to await further progress on the appropriation bill.

The discussion of political assessment was then renewed. At 4:30 without action on the political assessment resolution, and after an executive session of one hour the Senate adjourned to-morrow.

The Senate to-day confirmed Francis B. Wadsworth, collector of customs at St. Augustine, Fla.

The remainder of the executive session was devoted to discussing the nomination of Inspector Smith to be postmaster general of the United States.

HOUSE.--Crapo, of Massachusetts, leave to take from the speaker's table "the bank charter" bill for the purpose of non-concurring in the Senate amendment thereto.

McMillan, of Tennessee, objected. Butterworth, of Ohio, submitted the conference report on the army appropriation bill and the same was adopted.

Under a call of States the following bill was introduced and referred. By Forney, of Alabama, authorizing the East and West Railroad Company of Alabama to construct a bridge across Coosa river.

Hiscock, chairman of the committee on appropriations, reported the sundry civil appropriation bill. Ordered printed and recommitted.

Neal, of Ohio, then claimed the floor for the committee on the District of Columbia and the consideration of the District. Business was proceeded with.

At 2:45 the District committee yielded the floor and the House went into committee of the whole on the bill to reduce internal revenue taxes.

The conference report was close and animated, and amendment after amendment was offered and voted down; the greatest number being upon provisions affecting tobacco and spirits.

An amendment was adopted reducing the tax on cigars to four dollars per thousand, and on cigarettes to 75 cents per thousand.

Cox offered an amendment prohibiting political parties upon officers engaged in executing the internal Revenue laws. Ruled out on a point of order. The debate throughout was very sharp and at times personal but good natured. Finally the committee rose and the previous question was ordered on the bill and amendments, thus insuring their coming up to-morrow as unfinished business. The matter then went over.

At 7:30 House adjourned.

D'LONG'S DIARY.

How They Struggled for Life, Starved to Death and Went to Sleep in the Arctic Snows.

WASHINGTON, June 26.--The Navy Department has received from Engineer Melville, of the Jeannette, a detailed report of the finding of the dead bodies of DeLong's party.

Accompanying the report is a copy of DeLong's note book which is a record of the slow starvation of the party and their deaths one by one until but three remained, of whom DeLong, the commander, and one have all died at once as no entry appears in the book after DeLong's decease.

DeLong's first entry is October 1st, being the one hundred and eleventh day after leaving the ship. On that date they had some venison and tea. On October 9th they killed their dog and made a stew of seal blubber and tea.

On that day Erickson died; their tea had given out. A small quantity of alcohol was issued to the men in a half ounce dose. On the 11th of October, the party was ahead for assistance and the safety of these men is already known. Occasionally Elexy, the Alaska Indian, killed a deer, but on October 10th an entry is made of eating deer skin scraps.

On the 11th nothing for supper but a spoonful of glycerine and hot water. Their tea having given out they made an infusion of seal blubber and drank that; on the 13th Lee laid down in the snow and died; on October 15th breakfast consisted of willow tea and two oil boots; on the 16th Alexy, the Indian, broke down and died on the 17th. This day was Collins' 40th birthday. On the 21st Kaack was found dead in the morning, between Dr. Amble and DeLong. On the 25th Iverson died, and on a 26th Dr. Dyer died. Sunday, October 30th, the entry is that Boyd and Gaitz died during the night and Collins is dying. This is the last entry in DeLong's diary.

Shortly after this DeLong, Surgeon, and Sem, must have died. Throughout the record is chronicled the growing weakness of the survivors and their constant hope for succor through the efforts of Nore and Nordvan.

STATE NEWS.

Wilmington Star: James Beasley, a well-known and an able colored man of this city, who has been employed at odd jobs around Mr. Fred. Hoyer's store, corner of Second and Market streets, for sometime past, was accidentally run over and killed by the incoming 6:30 train on the Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta railroad Friday morning, between Meares' Bluff and Hillon bridge.

We learn that there was a general fight among the large number of colored employes at Point Peter Friday afternoon, including both men and women. The row assumed such serious proportions that the foreman came over to the city and had warrants issued for some of the ringleaders.

United States and New Zealand Meats. Just now a rivalry has sprung up in New Zealand as against the United States in the matter of supplying the English consumers with good beef and mutton. Recently a frozen flock of 5,000 sheep appeared on the London and provincial markets, to the dismay of the English graziers and great landlords, who still cling to the fortunes of green fields with their wonted tenacity.

Mr. Pendleton then read and commented on a resolution which he stated that he would move its consideration to-morrow. The purpose was to levy contributions upon government employees under the guise of a demand for voluntary contributions.

At 2 o'clock the debate on the political assessment resolution was temporarily suspended and a resolution from the House providing for final adjournment on the 29th inst. was briefly considered.
