

The Charlotte Observer.

CHAS. R. JONES, Editor and Proprietor.

FRIDAY, JUNE 30, 1882.

Gen Stoneman is the Democratic nominee for Governor of California.

It is said that Capt Paul Boyton, the famous water-wader, has saved the lives of seventy-two people.

President Arthur is an LL.D., for which distinction he is indebted to Union college, of Schenectady, N. Y.

The docks and freight depots in New York are almost deserted since the strike of freight handlers began.

The widow and two children of Andrew Jackson's adopted son are said to be living in destitute circumstances at the "Hermitage."

E. C. Ingersoll, the Washington lawyer, is said to have lost his mind by excessive use of quinine, which he kept about him and took frequently.

Merchants, fruit shippers and others are talking of instituting suits for damages against the Northern railroads which fail to deliver freight on account of the strikes.

Judge Underwood, of Georgia has resigned his position on the bench in consequence of his appointment as one of the tariff commission.

The weather must be getting very warm at Greensboro. The Bugle of yesterday says: Capt Ellington has ordered the Grays to meet to-night without uniform, but with fatigue cap.

If Mr Geo William Curtis keeps right along after assessment collector Hubbell he may succeed by-and-by in calling public attention to the monstrosity of that style of plundering.

Edward H. Green, of the banking firm of E. H. Green & Co., of Philadelphia, committed suicide in that city by taking poison. His body was found in Fairmount Park last Tuesday.

Some of the Georgia papers object to A H Stephens because he sometimes uses whiskey for his stomach's sake. Well, if he didn't use it for his 'stomach's sake' what would he use it for?

The Richmond (Va) State complains that the Democratic party of that State is in a sadly disorganized condition, and unless a change is effected it cannot hope to be successful at the approaching elections.

A hint from the Rothschilds would be very effective in arresting Jewish persecutions in Russia. They have only to whisper in the ears of the Czar, and his ministers that they will not negotiate the next Russian war loan.

The expenses in the star route trials, now pending at Washington, for lawyers, detectives, mileage of witnesses, &c, up to this time have been about $140,000, to which will be added many thousands before the cases are closed. The defence must have spent very large sums also.

Philadelphia Record: It is true, as Jay A Hubbell incidentally asserts, that there is no law to protect the poor pages of Congress, the scrub-women, one-legged soldiers and day laborers in his method of levying contributions, there ought to be an indignant public opinion, more potent than law, for their protection.

The Philadelphia Record remarks that it will take some neat gerrymandering to district South Carolina so as to choose six Democratic members of Congress to one Republican, "but probably not anything more scientific than the present apportionment in Pennsylvania, whereby one-half of the Democratic voters of the State are practically disfranchised."

A reversal of the usual order is thus chronicled by the Washington Critic: "A little before noon to-day a mounted white messenger from the White House arrived at the Interior Department bearing a gorgeous bouquet for the dusky and handsome Miss Needles, of the Land Office, with the compliments of 'Alek,' the fan-colored knight of the whisk who lords it over the underlings at the public expense."

The Burlington Hawkeye learns that Sam Randall doesn't want to be Governor of Pennsylvania, and is moved to tell him this brief story: A beautiful girl looked out of her window one day and saw her rude brother out on the sidewalk, walking about on his hands, with his feet dangling up in the air. "Tom," she said, reprovingly, "don't Tom; I wouldn't do that, Tom; indeed I wouldn't." "Wouldn't?" replied the rude boy, looking up and speaking with marked and malicious emphasis; "wouldn't? By Jocks, you couldn't!"

COL. DOCKERY'S LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE. In another column this morning we publish a letter from Col. Oliver H. Dockery to Col. Wm. Johnston, of this city, accepting the nomination tendered him recently by the Liberal convention for Congressman for the State at Large.

Whatever else "my son Oliver" may have been accused of he has never been charged with double dealing. People always know where to find him, and in this letter he places himself fairly and squarely upon the Liberal platform. He sets forth his views vigorously and energetically on the subject of county government, and declares that the whole internal revenue system should be abolished, but if retained, the moneys arising therefrom should be expended for public school purposes.

He also demands a free ballot and a fair count, and refuses to be counted except by such a ballot as the polls. Although a Republican, and one who has been in public position a good deal no corruption has ever been traced to his doors, nor even an intimation of such a thing so far as we have ever heard.

It is understood that he will canvass the State, and the "old war horse of the Free Press" will make things lively, as he openly boasts that there is but one stump speaker in the State who can make him "run into his hole"—Col. A. M. Waddell, of Wilmington, and Waddell says he makes Dockery "pull the hole in after him."

THE NOMINATIONS.

As stated yesterday the Judicial convention which assembled in Charlotte, Wednesday, nominated Hon. Wm. M. Shipp for Judge of the Sixth Judicial District by acclamation. This was an honor which was hardly to have been expected, but one which was probably deserved.

Judge Shipp, if we recollect correctly, served the State honorably and faithfully as one of her judges on the bench during the war, and until he was displaced at the time of the political upheaval just subsequent to its close. In 1870 he was called from his retirement, and after a most exciting campaign he was elected Attorney-General. This was the first general election carried by the Democratic party, and everybody conceded the fact that it was due in a large measure to the personal popularity of Judge Shipp himself.

Upon the resignation of Judge Schenck some months ago he was appointed to fill the unexpired term, and if elected he will continue to make an excellent judge, because he is a most excellent man.

His opponent is Mr. L. F. Churchill, of Rutherford county, lately nominated by the Liberal and Republican conventions.

The nomination of Mr. Frank I. Osborne for the office of Solicitor of the Sixth Judicial District, was not less a surprise to him than to his friends. He was not a candidate, and his nomination is understood to have been a compromise between the friends of the other candidates. He is a young man of ability, with a future before him, and if elected we have no doubt he will make a capable and efficient officer.

He will be opposed by W. G. Means, Esq., of Concord, whose announcement as a candidate we publish elsewhere this morning. Mr. Means is a young lawyer of character, and his entrance into the campaign means that a good deal of solid work must be done by Mr. Osborne between now and the day of election, because Bill Means means to carry off the persimmons.

THE OUTLOOK IN OHIO.

A correspondent of the New York Times, which keeps a close eye on Ohio affairs, thus sketches the outlook in that State:

That the Republican party will be forced to put forth its best effort to escape defeat is now clearly understood by those who are to a position to know, and the danger is now beginning to be recognized by those who have hitherto thought that the prestige gained during the past few years could not be overcome by the opposition, whatever the party in power might see fit to do. The Ohio Republicans to-day find themselves confronted by a united Democracy, and are threatened by a feeling of dissatisfaction existing in their own ranks among the German and Irish voters, who two years since cast their lot with the Republicans. This defection can no longer be ignored or talked down. The information received from the Hon. J. C. Campbell, the auditor of Hamilton county and a member of the State executive committee, is to the effect that the dissatisfaction in Cincinnati alone will cost the Republicans 3,000 of their votes, a virtual gain of 6,000 for the Democracy. Should Republicans in Cleveland, Toledo, Dayton, Columbus, and other cities show an equal disregard for party ties it does not require an expert in mathematics to ascertain what the result in October will be. It is not at all probable that the Democrats will nominate a second Bookwalter this year; on the contrary, they are likely to put up their best man in the field. It should be understood that the Republican ticket is not headed by Charlie Foster this year, and that the sympathies of the people are hardly likely to be aroused to endorse the administration of a favorite son, or an assassinated president of the nation. Some event may occur that will contribute to Republican success—the Democrats, for instance, may make a fatal error in their platform or nomination, although it is quite clear that they will act with much caution in this respect. There is much indignation felt here over the result of the "three days' contest" in the congressional convention at St. Clairsville, which was extremely bitter, the convention finally adjourned Friday night without agreeing. The opposition to the nomination of Congressman Undergraff could not be put down. Another convention will be called with an entirely new set of delegates, and probably other candidates for congressional honors.

Gen Grant had a narrow escape yesterday, being one of the passengers on the Long Branch train which jumped a bridge and went over into the stream beneath. The General was rescued, unhurt, from the smoking car by a fireman.

IN CONGRESS.

Proceedings in Either House Unimportant.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—SENATE.—The Senate in the early part of the morning hour resumed the consideration of the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill. Several sections were passed over informally for future action. The committee amendment striking out the provision for transfer in the district of pension records from the office of the surgeon-general to the adjutant-general's office. Agreed to after a long and tedious discussion. Without the completion of the bill the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—Hiscock, of New York chairman of the committee on appropriations, reported a joint resolution for the relief of the estate of the late John W. Johnston, of this city, accepting the nomination tendered him recently by the Liberal convention for Congressman for the State at Large.

The committee on elections reported a resolution in the contested election case of Smalls vs. Tilman from the 5th South Carolina district, declaring the contest void and making available for 15 days after the 30th of June, 1882, all appropriations for the necessary operations of the government on the basis of appropriations for the current year.

The House went into a committee of the whole and resumed the consideration of the naval appropriation bill. After a long discussion the debate closed and the bill was read by sections for amendment. The committee rose, and the Senate joint resolution, continuing for fifteen days beyond June 30th, the appropriation resolution on the basis of the current year, was passed after some further unimportant legislation. The House adjourned.

Weather.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—Middle Atlantic, northeast to southeast winds, stationary or lower temperature, higher barometer, partly cloudy weather, with extreme southern portion, local rains.

South Atlantic and East Gulf States, local rains, partly cloudy weather, stationary or slight rise in barometer, slight change in temperature and variable winds.

GUITEAU NEARING THE ORDEAL.

No Weakening in His Appetite—Taking Farewell of His Friends. WASHINGTON, June 29.—Up to this forenoon Guiteau was apparently unconcerned about what was transpiring around him. He slept until 10 o'clock when he took for breakfast a pound of broiled steak with unlimited potatoes, bread and butter and a quart of coffee.

Later in the day as his relatives and friends paid their farewell visits he occasionally gave way to little excitement but the only manifestation of emotion he made was when a bouquet was brought from his sister, Mrs. Scoville. This weakening, however, was very brief. He made a will bequeathing his body to Rev. Dr. Hicks, his spiritual adviser, with the injunction that it shall not be devoted to any mercenary purpose; his book is also left to Dr. Hicks. His counsel, Charles Reid, drew the will. When taking leave of his sister he insisted upon kissing her for the last time through the bars of his cell, asking that it be so recorded. Either Warden Crocker or Assistant Warden Rush was present at all of these final interviews.

At 11 o'clock Guiteau broke out in denunciation of President Arthur for his cowardice, and of the warden and his deputy whom he accused of hounding him to his death.

He then said he wished to be hanged at noon sharp, but the warden, Crocker, has set the hour of half-past one.

The gallows and rope were tested last night with a bag of sand weighing 250 pounds and stood the test successfully.

MRS. JOE PERSON'S REMEDY WILL CURE SCROFULA.

And is unequalled as a Tonic. It will cure Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Chronic Bilious Colic, Eruptions, Echin and Blood Diseases.

Gov. Holden's Opinion. Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 24, 1880. I take pleasure in stating that a member of my family has used Mrs. Joe Person's Indian Tonic with good results. I believe her remedy to be excellent for the purposes for which it is intended.

Judge Strong's Opinion. Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 1st, 1880. Madam—Some months ago I was in bad health, suffering from debility, indigestion and loss of appetite. When a friend who had experienced great benefit from use of your remedy, induced me to use it as a tonic, I was most happy to receive it. I take great pleasure in recommending it as a valuable and efficient Vegetable Tonic, and wish you much success.

Debilily. Newbern, September 8th, 1881. I have used Mrs. Joe Person's for general debility consequent upon living in a low country, and found great benefit from it as an appetizer which gave tone to the stomach.

After Other Remedies had Failed. Oxford, N. C., February 24, 1880. Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy cured our little girl, who was badly afflicted with scrofula in the eyes, after all other available means had failed.

I am prepared to PROVE that I have discovered the vegetable antidote for Scrofula. My Remedy will cure the disease from its origin, thus rendering it the best BLOOD PURIFIER known. I have sold over 400,000 bottles of my Remedy, and received one unfavorable report. Infatigable for Scrofula and Eruptions. Sold and endorsed by the Druggists of North Carolina. Most happy results. Testimonials of remarkable cures. These testimonials come, not from the far West, but from the Territories, from well known citizens of your own State. Ask your druggist for my Remedy. Price $1 per bottle; $5 per half dozen. For further information, address
