ADMIRAL SEYMOUR TURNS HIS GUNS ON THE ALEXANDRIA FORTS AND OPENS THE BALL.

The Forts Return the Fire-Some of them Blown Up-The Suez Canal Managers Displeased with the British Consul's Orders Prohibiting Vessels from Entering the Canal.

LONDON, July 11.—A correspondent of Reuter's Telegram company, on board the Bittern, telegraphs as follows: ALEXANDRIA, July 11-7 a m .- The bombardment has commenced. A correspondent of the Standard, on board the Invincible, telegraphs as fol-

ALEXANDRIA, July 11—7:40 a m.—
The Sultan and Superb have opened fire upon the fortifications. The batteries at once replied, but their shots at first fell short of the ships, the rest of the fleet then joined in and the action became general. After twenty minutes cannonade two of the forts ceased firing. The ships, as far as can be perceived, have not suffered any damage.

PARIS, July 11.—The Turkish Minister has officially informed M. De Freycient that Turkey will not send troops to Egypt.

to Egypt.

LONDON, July 11.—The Standard's correspondent on the Invincible telegraphs the following:

"ALEXANDRIA, July 11.—9.10 a. m.—

The attack on the forts has now been kept up two hours. Smoke hangs over the city along the line of the shore batteries and among the ships, and it is difficult to see what damage has been done. It is certain, however, that the enemy has suffered very heavily. Fort Marsa El Kanot has been blown up. The forts are slackening their fire. The top of the tower of Fort Pharos has been carried away, and many guns dismounted on that and other forts. The flag of the Geneva red cross is flying over the hospital in the city. The Dutch and Greek flags are hoisted over their respective consulates. At the beginning of the bombard-ment immense excitement was visible. Crowds of people were seen wending their way toward the palace. The streets are now deserted, the people having fled or taken refuge in cellars.

There are no signs of surrender so far. A telegram from the Eastern Telegraph Company's steamer Chilton, sent at 11:15 this a. m., says the bombardment still continues. The forts are all gradually being silenced. Ras El Tin forts are suffering severely from the heavy and disastrous fire of the ships— Alexandria, Superb and Temerarail. LONDON, July 11 .- A dispatch to Lloyds from Port Said states that the British consul there, by order of Admiral Seymour, has stopped ships from entering the Suez canal. Admiral Seymour telegraphs as follows: The ships opened fire at 7 o'clock this morning. The return fire from the forts was weak and ineffective. An explosion in Fort Marsa El Kanot had occurred by 8 o'clock. The ships engaged are the Inflexible, Temeraraie, Penelope, Superb, Sultan, Invincible, Alexandra and Monarch.

London, July 11.—11 a. m.—A dis-batch just received from Alexandria says that the Magazine at Fort Ada has been blown up.

PARIS, July 11.—The agent of the Suez canal telegraphs M. De Lesseps that he had written to the Naval Commenders protesting against the action of the British consul at Port Said in preventing vessels entering the canal as a violation of its neutrality, and declaring that the company will hold the British government responsible. The whole staff of the canal remain at their posts. LONDON, July 11-Private telegrams from Port Said state that the French consul has ordered the embarkation of French subjects. The occupation of Port Said is expected to take place to-

3:30 p. m.-An Alexandria dispatch to the Central News says the fire of the fleet commands the railway to Cairo. Up to noon four forts in all were blown up. No casualties to the fleet are dis-cernible.

ALEXANDRIA, July 11.-6:50 p m.-The action is finished for the day. The casualties on the English side amount to 40 wounded and none killed.

An Important Decision. Judge Wellford, in the Circuit court at Richmond, Va., Saturday, rendered a decision against the State in the case of Gannt vs. the State of Virginia, in which Gannt asked an injunction to restrain the misappropriation of the proceeds ($500,000) of the sale of the State's interest in the Atlantic, Mississippi and Ohio Railroad. Gannt in his bill alleged that he was the owner of certain State bonds issued under the funding bill of 1871 and under the amended act of February 7, 1872, and maintained that a part of the contract under which the bonds were issued was that whatever means were realized from the sale of the State's interest in railways and works of internal improvement were especially appropriated to the redemption of the bonds issued under said act, and that the pledge so made "was a material inducement to holders of the bonds issued by the State of Virginia under acts prior to the said act of March 30, 1871, to accept the terms and provisions thereof." The the State's interest in the Atlantic, Mississippi and Ohio Road for $500,000, and the two acts of Assembly of March bill then went on to recite the sale of 6, 1882, and of April 21, 1882, under-taking to dispose of the $500,000 by appropriating $100,000 for the establishment of a normal and collegiate institute (colored) and the remainder to the public free schools, under the plea that t was a return to that fund of moneys diverted from it. Judge Wellford in his decision sustains the position of the complainant, and decides that the appropriation of the $500,000 sought to be made by the General Assembly of Virginia cannot be legally made because the acts mentioned impair the obligation of the contract created with the creditors of Virginia by the act of March 30, 1871. In accordance with this decision Judge Wellford filed a decree enjoining and restraining the board of education from taking or interfering with any part of the money and order. with any part of the money, and ordering the treasurer of the State to take possession of it and pay it over to the commissioners of the sinking fund, to be applied as provided in the act of March 30, 1871. It is understood the attorney-general will appeal. The Tariff Commission.

Wash. Cor Baltimore Sun. The expressions of members of the tariff commission so far confirm very fully the views of those who have held all along that the scheme of organizing a tariff commission was merely for the purpose of holding on as long as possi-ble to the present high protective tariff. The remarks of Mr. Hayes, the chairmsn of the commission, indicate quite plainly that the only result to be expected from the labors of the commission will be a tinkering with the tariff with the interests of the protectionists kept steadily in view, and not a revision which will in any sense lighten the bur-dens laid upon the people by the present tariff.

Better than the Smiles of Kings.

To bring health and happiness to the homes of suffering women is a mission before which royal favor sinks into insignificance. What earthly bene-faction can compare with one which protects from "That dire disease whose ruthless power

"That dire disease whose ruthless power Withers beauty's transient flower?"
which gives ease for pain, joy for sorrow, smiles for tears, the roses of health for the palior of disease, the light elastic step for dragging weariness, nights of soft repose for heavy hours of tossing restlessness, bounding vigor for lar guishing duliness, the swelling lines of full grown beauty for the sharp and withered form of emaciation, a long life of mental, physical, social and domestic enjoyments for a few sad days of pain and gloom, ending in an early grave? Such is the mission, such are the results of Dr J. Bradfield's Female Regulator, which is hence truly and appropriately styled "Woman's Best Friend."
"Whites," and all those irregularities of the "Whites," and all those irregularities of the womb so destructive to the health, happiness and beauty of women, disappear like magic before a single bottle of this wonderful compound.
