THE WAR IN EGYPT. ALEXANDRIA EVACUATED AND

IN FLAMES. Egyptian Troops Demoralized and Retreating to the Interior-The Town Fired by Released Converts, and

More Europeans.

More Europeans.

London, July 13.—The Telegraph ship Chiltern, off Alexandria, July 13. 8:40 a m.—Alexandria has been evacuated and is in flames. The Telegraph ship Chiltern has been ordered to take up a position near the neutral fleets.

In a telegram sent at 9:20 a m. Admiral Seymour confirms the report of the evacuation of Alexandria. The entire garrison withdrew under a flag of truce, lessing the Bedouins to fire and pillage the town. The Decoy has gone to Port Said to assertain the state of affairs there.

The Reuters Telegram company has received the following:

Alexandria. July 18-9:48 a m.—The Egyptian army is greatly demoralized and is in full retreat toward the interior. The European suarter of the town, including the Exchange and Telegraph office, is utterly destroyed. The Egyptians used a flag of truce to enable the troops to withdraw from the town. The Telegraph ship Chiltern is crowded with survivors who fought their way to the beach whence the boats of the fleet removed them. They report having passed a dreadful night, defeading themselves desperately. One hundred Europeans and other Christians in the Ottoman bank and adjoining huilding were massacred. A part of the fleet are now leaving for Port Said. The whereabouts of the Khedive is unknown. whereabouts of the Khedive is un-

London, July 13-11:30 a m.-A correspondent of the Standard on board the Invincible, telegraphing at 8 o'clock this morning, says the whole civil poputation and troops have been with-drawn. The whole of Grand Square is burned. The Helicon, which went to discover the meaning of the last flag of truce last evening, could discover nobody on board the Egyptian vessel, Mahrousa, or in the arsenal. The correspondent accompanied the officer to shore in the steam pinnace, purveyor of the fleet, who was one of the party and was well acquainted with the town, landed and proceeded a considerable distance. All was perfectly silent except the roar of the flames. It is believed Arabi Pasha has concentrated his forces beyond the city to oppose the British advance. The work of the ships is now over, and any further action must be ashore. Fully half of the town is burning. There will be a landing in force to investigate the condition of things and if possible render aid. London, July 13.—A dispatch to the Daily News, dated Alexandria, 8.20 a.

m., says the Bedouins are looting by the thousands. A dispatch to the Standard, dated 935 a. m., says the Europeans, who fought their way down to the beach, number a hundred. They report all other Europeans and Christians, numbering hundreds, massacred.

12.30 p. m.—The reserve squadron arrived at Portland at 4 o'clock this morning. The Daily News says it is understood that the conference has decided that the Egyptian army shall be disbanded and replaced by Gen. D'Amerie. 1 p. m.—The British authorities are chartering a number of vessels to-day for the conveyance of munitions to Alexandria. Five thousand mules have been purchased in Spain. ALEXANDRIA, July 13.-Chiltern has moved into the harbor. The fire in the city is steadily increasing. It is re-ported that Arabi Pasha is marching on to Cairo. London, July 13.-1.30 p. m.-Admiral Seymour telegraphs at 10.40 this morning: "The terms were the surrender of the forts as at first demanded. The use made of the flag of truce by the Egyptians is considered disgraceful. Nothing is known of the Khedive, but it is believed he is still at Ramleh Palace, where his yacht is apparently waiting until the weather will allow his embarkation."

Around the World for Nothing.

Our vivacious Parisian cotemporary Le Figaro, has hit upon an ingenious expedient for effecting a journey around the world without any expense whatsoever to the traveller, which expedient it fervently recommends to en-terprising but impecunious tourists for their adoption. The first thing the wanderer does is to become a Jew. Having performed this preliminary feat, he must contrive to effect a lodgment upon some portion of the Czar's territory. Thence he will be immediately expelled and conveyed gratis to Lemberg, in Gallicia. At Lemberg he will be received by Mr. Lawrence Oliphant, who will forward him to the United States at the cost of the Jewish Relief fund. Arrived in America, the traveller puts on the raiment and demeanor of a Chinese. He will then be conveyed to the Flowery Realm free of charge by a philanthropic company, bent upon eliminating the Celestial element from the Immediately on being set ashore in a Chinese port he should give out that he is a born Russian, intrusted with a secret political mission, and therefore traveling in disguise. The Chinese au-thorities should at once cause him to be transported to their northwestern frontier, where the will hand him over to the Russians. These, as soon as they find he is a Jew, will pass him on to the capital of Austrian Poland; and when, for the second time, he arrives at Lemberg, he will have "put a girdle around about the earth" quite as Inexpensively, if not altogether as expeditidusly, as ever Puck did in his bes days.

Gratitude.

Philadelphia Becord. Mr. Thurlow Weed's ideas of political gratitude are not above criticism. He relates in one of the letters in which he attacks civil service reform that in 1807, when he was a barefooted boy, he held the horse of a Maj. Haight at a "general training" near Catskill, N. Y., while the Major and other military dignitaries were inspecting the militia. The usual fee was a sixpence, but the Major was uncommonly liberal and gave his boy a shilling. Some forty years after, when Mr. Weed had become a boss in New York politics and was running the Whig machine, he chanced to think of Major Haight and had him nominated for State Treasurer, and he was elected. The latter was astounded to find, on returning thanks to his benefactor, that the nomination was due to the extraordinary fee of an extra-sixpence given a barefooted boy forty years before, and Weed seems to think it was creditable all around; and there is much to commend in the politician's grateful remembrance of the favor, But if Weed or his sympathizers would show what right a politician has to pay private favors with public trusts or public money the particular cass would be much clearer.

A CALIFORNIA HAMLET,

Who Appears at the Funeral of His Ophelia and Maises a Row. San Francisco Dispatch & St. Leuis Globe-Dem

A sensational scene occurred on June 21 at the funeral of Hermance Lenoir, a young French girl, who committed suicide Saturday hight because her lover refused to marry her. A young Brazilian, named I arrara Maries, had been paying attention to the girl for some time. She loved him passionately and once before, when her parents he fused consent to her marriage with Maries, she attempted to destroy herself. This led them to an agreement to marriage, but on Saturday last Maries told the girl he couldn't keep his promise and wed her. The result was she took strychnine the same night and died in great agony. She was only sixteen years old, was very pretty and of irreproachable characte.

To-day, at the tuneral in Old Fellows Cemetery, the friends of the family were amazed, when the grave was reached, to see Maries step out of a carriage and approach the coffin and mourners as though to take part in the funeral. This pressure of the man who caused his daughter's death so, incensed the father of the desd girl that he ordered the intruiner to leave. The The young man refused, and made a move to draw his pisch when the father pulled a revolver and began firing. The first shot whizzed dangerously near Maries's head, when the coward turned tail and ran for his life. Lenoir fired five shots, but the lightive made such good time that he got away unhurt. There was great exchement among the mourners, but the lightive made such good time that he got away unhurt. A Fortune Bequestied to Ex-Secretary NEW YORK, July 13.—A Times New Orleans special says: Jose Domingo, a native of Spain, came here 40 years ago, a Carlist exile, and soon became preminent as an importer of cigars from Havana, a buliness in which he accumulated an importer fortune. On Sunday last he died and to-day his will was opened for propate. He declared he had no heirs, gave his relatives and friends a few liberal bequests but left his homestead in Carendolet street, to Cornelia Ridgly Hunt, a daughter of Hon. Wm. H. Hunt, late Secretary of the Navy and now Minister to Russia, the Navy and now Minister to Russia, and the balance of his entire estate to Minister Hunt. ### A LADY SAID

"These Herrid Pimples! No, I Cannot Go. Please Present My Excuses."

Probably two thirds of the ladies in society and homes of our land are afflicted with skin diseases of various kinds, to do away with which, if it could be done without injury, would be the happiest event of their lives. Then she would have instead of a disfigured and marred countenance, one that would be handsome, or at least good-looking, for any one with a clear, pure skin, no matter what the cut of her features are, has a certain amount of good looks which attract everybody. As it is now, she imagines every one sees and talks about "those freckles," "those horrid pimples," and other blemishes with which she is afflicted, and this is true of either sex.

To improve this appearance great risks are taken; arsenic, mercury, or high-sound titled named articles containing these death-dealing drugs, are taken in hopes of getting rid of all these troubles In many cases, death is the result. No alleviation of the burning, heating, itching and inflammation is given. All troubled with Eczema (salt rheum), Tetters, Humors, Inflammation, Bough Scale Eruptions of any kind, Diseases of the Hair and Scalp, Screfula, Ulcers, Pimples or Tender Itchings on any part of the body, should known that there is hope for them in a sure, perfect and elegant remedy, known as "Dr. C.
