HON J. M. LEACH'S LETTER.
HE WITHDRAWS FROM THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

A brief Statement of the Reasons which Impel His Action, and which will be shortly followed by a more extended Statement of His Position.

LEXINGTON, N. C., Aug. 3, 1882.
Col. Charles K. Jones, Editor and Proprietor—Daily Observer:

My Dear Sir: Your letter asking me for my political views and what action I proposed taking in the present canvass, which is likely to be a very exciting and animated one, was forwarded to me at New York where I have been some weeks on business. I have only reached home last night, and am compelled to leave in two hours, to be absent some days, and therefore can not now write to you expressing my views, but will do so at an early date either to you or to the people at large. I merely say now, I shall cease to act longer with the Democratic party, or give the feeble influence of my name in further promotion of its success; and I may add that there are many thousands of true and patriotic men who, in my opinion, and I speak not without knowledge of what I say, will be influenced by the same reasons that impel my action.

In ceasing to act longer with the Democratic party, I shall abandon no cherished political principle of a long public career. As a test of my consistency I invite all to a comparison of my speeches and votes, for twenty-five years, with that of any public man in the State.

I shall invoke the strictest scrutiny of my public acts as affecting internal improvements and the highest interests of the people. I use the word "act" with emphasis, for I have always been a Whig in principle, and a Whig in fact. I should continue to act with the Democratic party if the same causes that first impelled me to do so still existed, and if the party were progressive and patriotic enough to free itself of the influence of the party which the persistent demand for restoration to popular rights in the county governments—for the rights of the East can be protected, if necessary, by wise legislation. I do not believe that the people of the State, as is done—by demanding an absolute repeal of the prohibition act—in utterly ignoring the rights of the South, and in thus rendering it more distinctly, as they did in their recent convention—the engendering anew the strife and ill feeling between the races, thereby seemingly encouraging sections and parties to be debased by all who desire to see the grand old commonwealth grow prosperous and great, and peace, harmony, and fraternal feeling restored between every State of this glorious Union. The great dominating Anglo-American race will always rule in America, but while this is so, it is not stating the question too strongly, that the sublimest mission of humanity, as well as the highest statesmanship, should be exerted in lifting up the lowly, and elevating the laboring classes, of both races, to a higher plane of mental and moral superiority.

I rejoice that not an inch of this land of freedom is polluted by the tread of a slave. I rejoice that this great Union is restored in fact, as I trust it soon will be by a feeling of national pride and fraternal love throughout its broad borders, and thus will sections and parties yield to an ardent love of country. Then will the South receive her just measure of control in the affairs of the national government; then will North Carolina have a chance to elect her President, Cabinet officer, Supreme Court Judge, Foreign Minister, or possibly President of the United States.

I have no time to discuss the tariff or education and internal improvements by the general government.

Excuse the haste with which this is written and its brevity, for, as I indicated above, I shall give my views on the principles which influence me more at length at an early day.

Very respectfully,
J. M. LEACH.

CAUCUSSING ON THE TAX BILL
The Republican Senators Resolved to Press it to a Vote.

WASHINGTON, August 5.—Republican members of the Senate held a fully attended caucus to-day and discussed the subject of continuing the consideration of the tax bill. With few dissenting expressions the opinion prevailed that Congress should not adjourn without adopting, in some form, a bill to relieve the people from the present burdens of taxation. Several Senators urged the importance of passing a knit-goods bill, and it was stated that vest-interests would be sacrificed if the bill should be allowed to go over until December. On the other hand it was urged that should the tax bill be laid aside for the knit goods bill, the Democrats would insist upon its immediate adoption, and that to insist upon action on either bill would result in protracted party strife and unduly prolongation of the session. While the Senators are reticent as to the ultimate decision of the caucus, it is pretty generally understood that a practically continuous debate will be held to press the tax bill to a vote, and if possible secure a vote, without amendments, upon the knit goods bill. This decision if adhered to will, perhaps, result in definitely any action on the House resolution for adjournment.

A Horrible Crime Followed by Suicide.
MEMPHIS, Aug. 5.—A Grenada (Miss.) special says six miles north of Grenada on the Kirkman plantation, Capt. Thos Kirkman, Thursday night, went to the quarters of a colored woman with whom he has lived for several years, and killed her and her four children. Each was killed by single blows from an axe. Kirkman, after the murder, took eight ounces of morphine, coolly undressed and went to bed in the same room with the dead. When discovered he was still alive, though he never entertained of his recovery.

Alexander Mining Matters.
Statesville Landmark.
Some very valuable discoveries have recently been made at the Emerald and Hiddenite mine. Prof. Hidden has gone North now for a few weeks' rest, and meantime work at the mine has been suspended.

Mr Smeaton has been greatly encouraged by his discoveries and will probably go regularly to work in a short time. Mr Osborne Lackey has recently found some fine specimens of Hiddenite on his land in Sharpe's township, just west of the Emerald and Hiddenite mine.

Appointments.
WASHINGTON, August 5.—The President sent the following nominations to the Senate to-day: James W. Johnston, Virginia, collector of customs for the district of Newport News, Va.; Jas. B. Mitchell, Va., surveyor of customs for the port of Yorktown, in the district of Newport News, Virginia.

Suspicious Cases on Board.
GALVESTON, Aug. 5.—The schooner Henrietta from Matamoros, with suspicious cases of sickness having been supplied with medical officers and stores, will sail to-day for the nearest port having a quarantine hospital.

LETTER FROM DANVILLE.
Notes from the Great Tobacco Centre—Jottings on the Wayside—The Political Outlook in the Old Dominion as Seen by a Rambler.

DANVILLE, Va., Aug. 4.—After a rest here for a day or two at the Arlington, one of the finest hotels in the South, I have had time to converse with a few of the "solidest citizens" of both parties on the crop and political outlook, vice versa.

Danville is a city of rugged hills and streets, beautiful and costly residences, and huts that would do credit to an ancient town in Hamshire. And yet I am not writing Hamshire's greatest industry—that of the tobacco-warehouse and manufacturing. There are more than enough of either to be counted on the fingers of both hands twice. There are, however, a few things that are well in Durham. The "Blackwell" have built up the town until it has assumed the proportions of a thriving city. And yet I see the same old, but the Blackwell there, and I do not know whether he is any relation to the Durham Bull Blackwell or not. I haven't inquired.

The tobacco crops, fruit crops and ore crops in all parts of the country are fine—the most promising seen for years. Danville is a city whose chief officials are elected direct by the people. They have yet to learn that the people complain with the way affairs are administered. The city has a Republican mayor, a clever gentleman, J. H. Johnston, Esq., an enterprising man, and an equal administrator of justice.

Nearly everybody here appears to have something to do. Those that can do nothing else can walk the streets, and few there be that need do that for a living. The great tobacco industry here gives employment to thousands. There has been great complaint of a drought in this country, but two days ago a rain set in and fears are now entertained that the lower ground crops will be spoiled. The Dan river rose in twenty-four hours seven feet.

The political situation is very much mixed. It is thought, owing to the fact that the Readjusters have a candidate for congressman-at-large in the person of John S. W. Wilson, who recast the Republicans, and Gen. Mahone and the colored element have placed a colored candidate for the same position in the person of John S. W. Wilson, who recast the Readjusters and Readjuster votes for congressman-at-large over both Wise and the colored brother. Prominent politicians and keen business men assure you correspondents that the fight this fall will be the closest known in the State. The regular Democracy claim that Mahoneism will be defeated in the State.

This fall, Mahone has lost his former grip on the Democratic party. The Democrats look upon him as the fabled boy who stole the spider who invited the buzzing household pest to walk into his parlor. They hate Mahone worse than the Devil hates holy water. The Republicans are angry with Mahone for the same reason that Democrats are angry with the Liberals in North Carolina. Mahone has given out too much patronage to former Democrats. Tom Keen may have a right and he may be wrong, and Mahone is sure to be wrong. I honestly believe, though the Liberals and Republicans may carry North Carolina, that the Mahone party will certainly be defeated in Virginia this fall. Had not Mahone committed himself too fully to the administration of President Arthur (after being such a warm supporter of Gen. Hancock) his party might have a chance. The regular Democracy of the State, call them what you may, will win this fall. Mark the prediction.
