HOME BRIEFS.

Yesterday was what Mr. Vennor said it would be—a disagreeable, muggy day.

Sunday afternoon there was not a turnout at Wadsworth's stables. All gone to the big camp meeting at Belair, in South Carolina.

There was a remarkable scarcity of watermelons in the city yesterday, only two or three wagon loads to be seen on the streets.

Two wife beaters were before the mayor yesterday morning. Their names were Ambrose Patterson and Jake Guinn. Each was fined $7.50.

The ladies held a meeting last night in the interest of the Young Hornets, at the Mint Yard on Thursday night. They offer all that can and are pretty sure to make the affair a success.

The Rudisill gold-mining property, near this city, is to be sold on the 11th of September. The object of the sale is to get it out of the hands of a stock company and bring it under the ownership and control of private parties.

It is a lively scene at Elias & Cohen's establishment at present, the force of clerks being kept as merry as they could wish, opening the immense stock of new fall goods that the house is now receiving.

Mr. E. M. Andrews, the furniture man, has rented the house formerly occupied by H. Morris & Bro., next to Witkowski & Baruch's, and will move into it this week.

The two circuits that are heading this way are Barrett & Co.'s and Maybury, Fullman & Hamilton's. The former will be in Charlotte on the 9th of September and the latter on the next day, 7th. From here, one will go down the Air Line road and the other will take the C. & A. Nat. Gray, the city bill poster, will begin putting up the pictures this week.

A Big Camp Meeting.

As many as one hundred Charlotte people attended a big camp meeting at Belair, last Sunday. They say that over seventy South Carolina candidates were on the grounds during the day...

The Jewelry Thief Captured.

In THE OBSERVER last Wednesday, mention was made of the entrance of the residences of Mrs. John Vogel and Mrs. Pasnach, in broad daylight, by a little negro boy, who carried off a lot of jewelry from each house. The thief, a young ward of the nation by name of Ambrose Caldwell, was caught on Monday by policemen Hill and Farrington, and was yesterday morning arraigned for trial before the mayor. He confessed to the theft and was put under a bond of $75 in each case for his trial before the inferior court. Of course he could not give the bond, and was sent to jail. All of the jewelry he had stolen has been recovered. He said some of it, and threw some of it away. He told officers Hill and Farrington where he had thrown the jewelry, and on searching the spot he described, they found it.

Dead, My Lord; and More of the City.

Ben Withers, the negro man, who, on the 14th day of last March, committed the brutal outrage upon Miss Moore, on the farm of Mrs. Cynthia Hampton, in Lemley's township, this county, and who has since been confined in the jail at this place, has escaped punishment for his horrible deed upon earth. He died in his cell Sunday morning, after a lingering illness of "jail fever." Sunday afternoon his body was buried at the expense of the county. In the death of Withers the gallows is most grievously cheated. Not one of the readers of this paper have forgotten how, upon a bright Spring Sabbath day, this brute waylaid Miss Moore, who was on her way to church, and wound up his hideous assault upon her by cutting her throat and leaving her for dead in the fence corner. He has gone to face his victim before the Judge of all, the Judge who never errs, and from whose decision there is no appeal.

NORTH CAROLINA PHARMACISTS

Their Meeting at Winston and a Review of Their Work.

The North Carolina State Pharmaceutical Association met in convention in the opera house, in Winston, on the 9th, inst., and the subject of the proceedings of the meeting is taken from the secretary's minutes. President S. J. Hinsdale, of Fayetteville, was called to the chair, and the meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. B. W. Daugherty. Dr. T. C. Smith, of Charlotte, was secretary of the meeting. Fifty members answered to their names as the roll was called. Dr. J. F. Shaffner, of Salem, delivered the address of welcome, which was responded to by Dr. W. C. Porter, of Greensboro.

Applicants for membership were considered and eleven new members were elected. The total increase of membership during the past year was shown to be one hundred and seventy-one. Two members of the association, Drs. T. W. Bickett, of Monroe, and Lawrence Steward, of Rockingham, have died since the last meeting of the body. A memorial notice of the deceased members was read and ordered to be printed.

Dr. W. H. Green, of Wilmington, offered a resolution inviting the physicians and the press of Winston-Salem to the privileges and courtesies of the meeting. The reports of the president and treasurer were then read, each showing a healthy and prosperous condition of the association. The report of the treasurer, J. S. Pescud, of Raleigh, showed that there was then $500 remaining in the treasury.

Dr. V. O. Thompson, of Winston, chairman of the committee on education, read a report recommending an increase of facilities for the education of druggists in North Carolina. A resolution was adopted to the effect that the state University at Chapel Hill, should be provided with everything necessary for the education of the young men of the State in the art of pharmacy.

A number of interesting papers were read by members of the body showing much intelligence and familiarity on their part, with the pharmaceutical topics under discussion.

President Hinsdale read a paper on the manufacture of laudanum, showing that much of this drug now in general use is far below the standard of strength required by law. A very creditable exhibition of articles in the drug line was made by different drug houses and manufacturers. The most striking among these, perhaps, was a machine for the speedy bottling of oils, which was patented in Greenville, S. C. During the meeting the rebate system of selling patent medicines, came up for discussion and the body condemned it as oppressive and unfair, and urgently requested all members to withdraw their patronage from all such drug houses as operate and persist in operating under the said system.

Messrs. Horne & Williams, of Fayetteville, exhibited a very creditable and handsome display of pharmaceutical productions, for which they were rewarded a diploma.

A communication was read showing that in some places the pharmaceutical law had not been respected during the past year. This matter was referred to the board of pharmacy, at Raleigh.

The following appointments were made for the ensuing year: Delegates to the American Pharmaceutical Association, which convenes at Niagara Falls, on September 12th: Dr. E. V. Zoella, of Tarboro; Dr. T. C. Smith, of Charlotte; Dr. Wm. Simpson, of Raleigh; Dr. J. G. M. Cordon, of Tarboro, and Dr. A. S. Lee, of Raleigh.

The officers for the ensuing year are: President, Dr. Wm. Simpson, of Raleigh; Vice Presidents, Drs. E. H. Meadows, of Newbern, T. C. Smith of Charlotte, and V. O. Thompson, of Winston; Secretary, James C. Munds, of Wilmington; Treasurer, A. S. Lee, of Raleigh; Local Secretary, J. H. Hardin, of Wilmington; Executive Committee E. N. Nadall, of Wilson; U. S. Mace, of Newbern; N. R. Tunstall, of Statesville; H. R. Horne, of Fayetteville; J. P. Steadman, of Raleigh, and S. R. W. Martin, of Winston.

The following persons were elected to fill the vacancy in the Board of Pharmacy, one of whom will be selected by the Governor, on the 1st of July: J. G. M. Cordon, E. V. Zoella, E. H. Meadows, H. R. Horne and B. E. Seuberry.

The discussions of the meeting in reference to cases of poisoning and the great responsibility of druggists in preparing medicines for the public, were full, free and of much interest.

A resolution was adopted tendering the thanks of the association to the citizens and druggists of Winston-Salem for the handsome entertainment received, and also the railroads and hotels for reduced rates.

A banquet was given complimentary to the association at the Central Hotel. The association received invitations from Greensboro and Wilmington, to hold the next annual session at those places, and after some discussion it was decided to select Wilmington as the next meeting place. The convention was not so largely attended as was desired, but it passed off most pleasantly and will no doubt rebound in much good to the pharmaceutical profession of the State.

Political Meetings and Speakers.

There will be a grand rally of the Anti-Prohibition and Liberal party in this city, on Saturday, August 19th. Speeches will be made by the Hons. J. M. Leach and Chas. Price, two of the acknowledged leaders of the Anti-Prohibition and Liberal party. The speaking will take place at the mint yard, and will commence at 12 m.

Mr. L. H. Fraley, chairman of the committee of the 7th congressional district, has issued a call for a convention of the Anti-Prohibition Liberal party of that district, to meet at Yadkinville, N. C., on Wednesday, August 30th, at 11 o'clock, a. m., for the purpose of organization and consultation, with a view to nominate or agree upon a candidate for Congress, and the committees in the different counties are requested to take immediate steps to secure the attendance of full delegations.

County Convention.

A convention of the Liberal-Anti-Prohibition party of Iredell county, is called to meet in Statesville Saturday, August 19th, for the purpose of nominating a legislative and county ticket, and to appoint delegates to the Liberal Anti-Prohibition Congressional convention for the Seventh district, to be held at Yadkinville, N. C., on the 30th of August, 1882.

Personal Items.

—J. S. Spencer, Esq., is home from Warm Springs. —Judge Thomas S. Ashe spent Sunday in the city. —Miss Ada Ramsey, of Lincolnton, is visiting friends in the city. —Miss Bettie Hawkins, of Louisburg, is visiting friends in the city. —Capt. F. S. DeWolfe, mayor of the city, has returned from his vacation at Warm Springs. —Dr. T. C. Smith and Dr. Robert Beck have returned from the convention of pharmacists, lately held in Winston.

—Judge David Schenck, of Greensboro, spent yesterday in the city. He left in the afternoon for Statesville to attend to some court business.

—Miss Pet Bradshaw, a former Charlotte young lady, but for several years past a resident of New York city, is paying a brief visit to friends in Charlotte.

—Mr. Chas. Fetzer, who is evangelizing commercially for the fine tobacco house of Richardson, Denny & Co. of Reidsville, is now in Charlotte, selling some excellent brands of the weed.

—Mr. John R. Harris, a capital salesman and one of Concord's best boys, has come to Charlotte to live and is engaged with Messrs. T. L. Seigle & Co., where he will be glad to see his friends from Cabarrus and surrounding country, when they come to the city.

Political Meetings.

Pursuant to appointment Senator Ransom and Judge Bennett made political speeches at Mount Pleasant, in Cabarrus county, on last Friday. Senator Ransom spoke for over two hours, a crowd of about three hundred people being present. Judge Bennett had been suffering from chills, and somewhat disappointed his friends. His excuse was that he had a chill during the speech. Both gentlemen made strong speeches, Gen. Ransom's being a masterpiece of eloquence and fine oratory. Neither of them changed a single vote, and there was considerable disappointment at the size of the crowd.

On Saturday the speaking adjourned to Concord. Chas. R. Jones opened the ball by formally declaring himself a candidate for Congress from the 6th congressional district, in a speech which is published elsewhere. He was followed by Col. Wm. Johnston, of Charlotte, in a speech of about half an hour, on the subject of politics as viewed from the Liberal platform.

A recess of an hour was taken, when the court house bell was again rung and the five hundred who assembled were addressed by Hon. Chas. Price, of Salisbury, and Hon. J. M. Leach, of Lexington. Both were in favor of the Liberal platform and were received with enthusiasm by the audience. Having reported both gentlemen in these columns our space will not permit us to notice them further to-day. As we have not been able to report one of Col. Johnston's speeches in this campaign, we hope to be able to do so on an early day. Both Price and Leach are billed to speak here in Charlotte next Saturday, and everybody ought to hear them, whether they agree with them or not.

Starting a Daily Paper.

Efforts have recently been made to establish a daily paper in Charlotte to oppose THE OBSERVER. We have just been put in possession of the result of a similar effort on the part of the good people of Mobile, Ala., which we publish for the benefit of those engaged in the new enterprise here.

John L. Rapier & Co. are the proprietors of the Mobile Register, now in its 62nd volume. It is a good newspaper, and it is fully identified with the best interests of Mobile, and of Alabama as well. It is Democratic in the core, and in full accord with the majority party in the State, but its manager is a Catholic. Among many of the people very strong reasons existed for the establishment of a daily paper to be conducted by a Protestant. Mobile has a population of forty thousand, and twenty-five thousand dollars were subscribed, half of which was paid in, and the balance subject to call when needed, to start the new paper. The Daily Chronicle was started and run six weeks when the manager called the stockholders together and informed them that thirty per cent of the money put in had been expended, and the outlook indicated that the whole amount would have to be expended, before the paper could be brought to a paying basis, and then it would have to fight for life with a paper that had been in existence for many years. He advised the stockholders to take back the unexpended 70 per cent, and drop the enterprise. It was done, and the Daily Chronicle was decently interred in the journalistic graveyard. If Mobile, Charleston, Savannah, Augusta, Macon, Columbus, Atlanta, (which has only one morning paper) Richmond and Raleigh can support only one first-class daily paper, we suggest that the proprietors of the new Daily Journal in Charlotte will have some trouble in getting up to the paying basis. The Richmond Dispatch spent $60,000, in a city of 75,000 population, before it paid expenses. We charge nothing for this information.
