of M.s. Joe Person's valuable Remedy. It came more than twelve months ago, very much like a ring worm. I painted it with tine lodine. It became a very paintul and bad looking place, then I commenced to 'try 'everything I could think or hear of, until it became so very painful that I could scarcely walk. Then I went to the best doctor in the whole country for advice, who told me he could cure me it I would take to my bed and there remain for four or five weeks, and if I did not do this pretty soon it could not be cured at all; the bone would become diseased, and my foot would have to be taken off. Imagine how I felt to be told that I would have to lose my foot, or to be told that I would have to lose my foot, or to give up all business? Fither of the remedies would have ruined me. Mind you, this was the advice of one of the best doctors in the State of North Carolina, and this conversation took place last February. I continued to burn, as he advised, last February. I continued to burn, as he advised, with caustic until September, but found no benefit at all from his treatment. I was then advised by my friends to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. I ordered haif plnts from her, and took the first dose on the 17th of September, using the Wash also, and now I am a well man, the sore is entirely cured, and I can walk as far, dance as much and jump as high as any man. Put me back to the first of September, let me know as much as I now do of the merits of Remedy, and I would not hesitate to pay ten dollars per bottle for it if I could not get it for any less. I think more of it than any medicine I ever heard of. It is not only the best remedy in the world to purify the blood, but I believe it will cure all skin and blood diseases, and it will certainly cure a love of strong eases, and it will certainly cure a love of strong drink. It gives me pleasure to furnish this for publication, as I know there are many sufferers who would be cured, could they know of and obtain Mrs. Joe Person's Bemedy.

Frank H. Darby, the Liberal Candidate for Superior Court Judge Defies the City Authorities of Wilmington for Their Proscription and Business Ostracism -- The Kid Glove Gentry Handled With Gloves Off -- A Telling

The following is the letter presented by me to the board of aldermen at their meeting on the 7th inst., in response to their resolution requesting my resignation. It was by the action of that body laid on the table. My apology, if any is necessary or proper, for having it published, is that the board caused the resolution referred to to be published before I was even notified of its adoption, and not only neglected to furnish the following reply to the Daily Press as a part of the proceedings of the meeting, but the proceedings were so reported by the city clerk and treasurer as to leave the public in entire ignorance of the nature or contents of my communication or what position I had therein taken on the action of the board. Respectfully,

F. H. DARBY.

To the Honorable the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the City of Wilmington: GENTLEMEN:—I am in receipt of a letter from the city clerk and treasurer, WILMINGTON, N. C., Aug., 5, 1882.

asking on the part of your body my response to the following preamble and resolution: "WHEREAS, Mr. Frank H. Darby, in a communication to the Democratic county executive committee, declares himself as opposed to the present form of county government, which we consider of the utmost importance to the people of this city; therefore it is "Resolved, That the clerk of this board is hereby directed to inform Mr.

Darby that his resignation as city attorney is expected and will be accepted by this board.

In response thereto I have to say that I cannot comply with the request, embodied in the above resolution, for the plain reason that I have nothing to resign. I am not holding any office from, by, through or under you or any other person or corporation. You did employ me, perhaps by the year, perhaps dur-ing the term of your board, to attend to your law business. This I have done, receiving therefor very inadequate consideration. In fact, you are and have been about the poorest paying clients in my law office. Your withdrawal therefrom will give pleasure rather than pain. The loss of your patronage is of no consequence to me. Possibly it involves the repudiation of a con tract by you, but men who conspire to rob a free North Carolinian of his liberty of opinion, cannot be expected to observe the inviolability of contracts. Do not imagine that I would make any claim that there was a contract between us, in order to throw any obstacle in the way of a dissolution of our official connection. I am too well informed of the utter and contemptible hollowness, of the hypocritical pretensions to political purity of some of you to ever desire a very close official connection with you. Those who under the cover of secresy, through political friends, buy off partisan opposition before an election, by considerations in votes to be delivered afterwards are not to say the least, such official companions as one would desire to be in too close communion with. They are, more than that, freighted with minds ill-prepared to brook the candid opinions of an outspoken man. Your action, as shown by the fore-going resolution, is only important, because of the public trusts which you have given for your conduct. Entrusted with the power and duty of administering the public affairs of one of the municipalities of the State, holding that trust for the benefit, not of a part, but of all its inhabitants, occupying a place where it should be your pleasure, as it is your duty to be examples of public virtue, you have prostituted your trusts by an exhibition of petty spite and flag-rant intolerance. You have by your example sought to establish a reign of political proscription and bigotry. You seek to punish free men, because they dare to differ with you. You would STARVE men who do not consent to receive their political opinions from you or from those whose willing instru-ments you are. You attempt to carry politics into a mere business employ-ment, which justifies me in charging that yout seek to establish a reign of terror in business and society, under which free Americans are to be the slaves of a bigoted, proscriptive and insolent oligarchy. You seem to forget that it is against just this sort of tyranny that the white men of North Caro-lina are now rising in rebellion. They are tired of being driven and bossed in politics. They are beginning to think that it is almost time for another emancipation proclamation, this time for the benefit of the white men, and they have almost determined to issue it and execute it themselves. This is the fundamental difference between the two contending political forces in Southern politics—the Bourbon and the Liberal. The Bourbon, true to the instincts and traditions of his ancestral party in France, seeks to maintain in the South as near as may be, the status quo under which the great body of the white men were simply the political and social serfs of a few gemi-feudal lords. To this end he seeks to shackle free thought and trample out its free expression. The Liberal, on the other hand, con-tends for the largest liberty of thought and speech. He makes no war on any man because of his opinious. He insists that the Bourbon shall have his opinions and the freest expression of them. He would take from the latter no right and no privilege, except the privilege of denying their rights to others. He would impose upon him no burden except that of respecting the rights of others. He would tolerate everything but intolerance and proscribe nothing but proscription.

As if to aid in intensifying this issue, you step in and open the campaign by advertising that Liberal lawyers must be starved into submission. Of course you would apply the same treatment to all other classes of men. My offence with you consists in my having declared in favor of taking from the "bosses" and giving to the people the right of electing their local officers. There are fifty thousand Democrats in the State who believe as I do. You have given them notice through me that if your party have the power they shall surrenrender their manhood or starve. In short, I am told that I must not express opinions differing from those held by a majority of your body, even about matters unconnected with my duties as city attorney. If I do I shall be made to suffer. I have heard of such actions being attributed to the Bourbons of France or the grandees of Spain, but never imagined that this free country could raise up men who would be guilty as it is, contains no parallel of such intolerance. I am well aware that your thrust at me is not entirely attributable to the fact that I have dared to declare in faof taking these local municipal governments from the "bosses" and giving them to the people. This is not the whole head and front of my offending." It answers for an excuse in a county where the laboring white men are again to be regaled with the stale cry of "ne-gro domination." But there are other reasons for your action which are none the less controlling and powerful, of such tyranny. I will venture to say that Great Britain, limited monarchy

This is not the first time that I have We call attention to the advertisement in an other column of Mr. E. B. Whitman. The tendency of the manufacturing business for years has been towards making but one line of goods in a factory, as workmen become very skillful and can turn out better goods and were of them out better goods. turn out better goods and more of them when kept at work upon one thing year in and year out. The success of this policy may be surmised from the immense factories and enormous sales of the various concerns engaged in the manufacture of reapers and mowers, grain drills, &c., &c. Mr. Whitman represents three separate factories: one manufacturing plows and plow castings, and another, the Champion Grain Drills, and another, making the celebrated British Mixture. He is not favored class in Southern politics. Even while my Democracy was unques. Attorney, that compensation and consideration to which I was clearly entitled was withheld from me.
