To the Editor of The Observer. Leaving Charlotte for the "Land of the Sky," raised our imagination to the highest pitch. We left behind us some sections of country much in need of rain. As soon as we passed Hickory, a beautifully located town on the West-ern North Carolina Railroad, the crops presented a fine appearance, looking as green as the leaves of the forest, and travel. The location is now accessible were splendid as far as the Warm Springs. Tobacco is as fine as in any section of the State. Before the late unpleasantness there was only a few patches of tobacco to be seen in Western Carolina. This year the crop of the French Broad is estimated at a million dollars. Manufacturers from Richmond, Lynchburg, Date the and other places are buying up the face tobacco for wrappers.

Getting a splendid breakfast at Henry's, we commenced ascending the mountains, the grandeur and beauty of which I have not language to describe. One must see it to judge of its beauties. Maj. Wilson has immortalized his name in his engineering skill in locating the road around mountain after mountain, shooting through tunnel after tunnel, and at one point you can see four different portions of the tract at the same time. A stranger inquired what nar row guage road is that far down below us. We told him it was the same road that we were passing over, but we failed to satisfy him that it was the same

road. Persons going over the mountains will get the best views by sitting NEW YORK, August 18 .- At yesteron the south side of the coach. After day's session of the Mississippi river passing through the last tunnel, which commission a determination was reachis eighteen hundred feet long, we soon ed to recommend an approximate allotment of the sum of $4,123,000, which reach Cooper's Station, where we have a good view of the Black Mountain and is for the improvement of the river bethe range of mountains that surround low Cairo in the following manner: the Black. There are other splendid views around Asheville, none of which For continuation of the work at Plenn Point, sixty miles above Memphis, $800. surpasses Connally's view, two miles 000; for continuation of the work in South of Asheville, and here the French progress $6,070, and above Vicksburg Broad and Swananoa rivers unite. The ranges of mountains lying west are at Lake Providence $700,000; for work at New Madrid, 70 miles below Cairo $800,000; for work near Memphis and grand to look upon. I have already written enough to pay any visitor a trip to the mountains of Western Carolina, for continuation of work in harbor of Memphis $300,000; for various harbor but half is not told. Asheville has two works in addition to balances now available $1,230,000; for repair of levees large hotels and some talk of a third one; several smaller hotels and boardone; several smaller hotels and board-ing houses well filled with summer The sum of $100,000 was left unaltered tourist. On the top of the Beauketcher | for contingencies. The commission mountain a citizen of Charleston is | decided that the work should begin on erecting a handsome residence. At Asheville is to be seen the finest and most substantial county bridge in all North Carolina. The old Smith bridge, should continue upward. The commis-sioners recommend that the sum of $800,000, which has been raised by local authorities, be applied in such way as to secure in connection with the work done by the Government a continuance of lines of levces from below, upward, With this end in view the commission in making the allotment took into consid-eration the amount of work likely to be done by local authorities. The work at Plenn Point and Lake Providence consists principally of narrowing the stream so as to increase the rapidity of the current and prevent the formation of sand bars which have a tendency to shift the channel of the stream. One of the proposed projects is to prevent by embankments a flow of the water of the Mississippi through Atchafalaya River. When the Mississippi rises its waters are often diverted into this channel and an increasing tendency has appeared of late on the part of the great river to shift its channel entirely into the course of the smaller stream, a result which would prove disastrous to the cities below,

as it used to be called, built out of Lo-cust timber over half a century ago, has been removed, the timbers still being sound. Over this new bridge leads the road to the Sulphur Springs, live miles west of Asheville. The build-ings of this noted old watering place, known as Henry's or Deare's springs, were burned down during or just after the late war, and the property has been in litigation ever since, until last year it was decided in favor of George W. Swepson. It is to be hoped that some one will take hold of this property and put up suitable buildings. I assert, without much fear of contradiction, that there is no better water in North Carolina for dyspepsia as well as other diseases. I know whereof I speak. It surpasses that at Waynesville, being a stronger sulphur water, and the climate known as Henry's or Deare's Springs, stronger sulphur water, and the climate is splendid and delightful. The moun-tain scenery around this old watering place is very fine; the Ducktown rail-road passes within a quarter of a mile of where the hotel once stood. Leaving Asheville we commence descending the French Broad River. No pen can pic-ture the scepery down the banks of the old French Broad, At Asheville the railroad crosses the river to the west side, and before reaching Marshall the road crosses to the east side, and one mile from Warm Springs crosses to the west side again, over one of the finest and strongest iron bridges in America, which is one single span of one hundred and seventy feet long costing sixty thou-sand dollars. Under this bridge is the deepest water known on the French Broad At this point and just above a single view is worth a trip to the Warm Springs. Reaching the springs located in a valley one mile wide we take in at once the beautiful location and its ap-propriateness for the purposes for which nature seems to have adapted it. When will the art of man finish what nature commenced? As we entered the best hotel we found it well filled with guests from all sections of the country-Memphis, New Orleans, Atanta, Wilmington, Charlotte, Raleigh and Richmond being well represented. A gentleman who had travelled over Europe and most of the old world, re-marked to me as he stepped off the train:

"The whole thing is grand and beaut-iful, and I have not seen it surpassed in all my travels." I doubt if a better class of persons and better society is to be found at any watering place this summer than the company that graces the Warm Springs. There are many reigning and beautiful belles, and in my judgment Tennessee has carried off the plume, though well contended for by Miss H. of North Carolina.

A young lady truthfully remarked to me: "We have not a sufficient num-ber of young men to compare with the number of young ladies." We were delighted to see the splendid little dancer from Tennessee only eight or ten years old. She made no mistakes in the dance. It will be a little surprising if some of the young men do not trayel west during the coming fall.

The Warm Springs is about the old-est watering place in the country, hav-been discovered in 1782 and opened as watering place 1708. The rows of old locust trees of a half century are still standing between the hotel and river. It seems strange that the spring of ghest temperature is on the west side

Mr. Joseph Fisher, of Franklin town-ship, while driving his one-horse wagon with a mule attached, near South River in this county, the animal took fright and ran away. At the time Mr. Fisher had his little son, Tommy sit-ting on his lap. The animal made strides, finally throwing Mr. Fisher out strides, finally throwing Mr. Fisher out bruising his face very much. When he recovered sufficiently to look around him, he found his little son some 15 or 20 feet distant in a dying condition. The little fellow had his right arm broken and his skull fractured. The little boy died before he reached home -some quarter of a mile off. It was a very sad accident. Mr. Fisher has the sympathy of his entire neighborhood sympathy of his entire neighborhood in this sad bereavement. ---- for it. Brunswick county, Va., Nov. 5, 1881. I have been entirely cured of a most fearful looking and painful sore on my ankle, by the use of M.s. Joe Person's valuable Remedy. It came more than twelve months ago, very much like a ring worm. I painted it with tinc. iodine. It be-came a very painted and bad looking place, then I commenced to try everything I could think or hear of, until it became so very painful that I could scarcely walk. Then I went to the best doc-tor in the whole coustry for advice, who told me he could cure me if I would take to my bed and there remain for four or five weeks, and if I did not do this pretty soon it could not be cured at all; the bone would become diseased, and my foot

Springs of Virginia, or those of Arkansas for the reason that the waters contain different minerals. The dancing hall for the custom is too small, and so is the parlor It might be well for persons going to the springs to take their own medicine if there should be any necessity for it, and their own doctors, too, unless they expect to pay fifteen or twenty dollars for two or three potions of medicine. It is true that a large company can not be as well accommodated as a smaller one, but that is no excuse for extortion. A very clever married lady who had travelled much in Europe and America remarked in my presence that she thought it best on such occasions to take things as you find them, and then get the best that you can.

I continued to burn, as he advised, with caustic until September, but found no bene-fit at all from his treatment. I was then advised by my friends to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. I ordered half pints from her, and took the first dose on the 17th of September, using the Wash also, and now I am a well man, the sore is entire-ly cured, and I can walk as far, dance as much and jump as high as any man. Put me back to the first of September, let me know as much as I now do of the merits of Remedy, and I would not hesitate to pay ten dollars per bottle for it if I could not get it for any less.
