STATE NEWS.

Raleigh News and Observer: Gov.

Jarvis will lay the corner stone of Kirtland College on Tuesday, August 29th.

Hon. K. P. Battle, president of the University, will deliver the address. All who are interested in higher education are invited to be present.

Mr. H. C. Moore, register of deeds of Duplin, is the second person to send in an abstract of taxes. He reports as follows: General taxes, $30,919; special taxes, $3,563.65; school taxes, $5,018.08; county taxes, $6,183.84.

Miss Fowler, who lives out on Crabridge, near Rogers, was shot Saturday morning, and killed a highland moccasin about 8 inches in length, and found that she had no less than 150 young moccasins, each 8 inches in length. To the truth of this statement the world is a witness.

Last night in Helli Hat, near George Brooks, a negro, was stabbed in the breast, during a negro row. There were two other rows in that part of the city, last night, and several arrests were made. Yesterday a negro woman assailed and beat a negro who had spoken of her in rough terms. Last night a negro woman cut her husband with a knife.

Mayor Dodd will be busy to-day.

Wilmington Review: George Penny, a little boy about 7 years of age, the son of Mr. W. J. Penny, of this city, but who is now residing in Brunswick county, was severely hurt yesterday by gunshot powder flashing in his face. The powder poured the powder on the ground and stuck a match to it when the powder flashed upon his eyes and face very badly. We are pleased to know that his eyesight is not affected, and trust he will soon be over his suffering.

THE STAR-ROUTE TRIAL.

Two Speeches For The Defense--An Executive Officer's Discretion.

WASHINGTON, August 21.--Mr. A. B.

Williams made an argument for the defense in the star-route trial to-day, dwelling particularly upon the fact that the conspiracy must be proved as charged. He said the prosecution sought to establish the fact that by means of some shadowy agreement entered into some one where and by some one, nineteen contracts were linked together in some way, and that the government was the sufferer by means of this linking together. A conspiracy could not be proved as suspected; it must be a matter of proof.

Must appear not only that there was a conspiracy, but that it was the conspiracious conspiracy. In this conspiracious conspiracy could there be found a scintilla of testimony that could enlighten the jury upon that point. Where was the conspiracy entered into? No one upon the testimony could answer that question. What were the terms of the conspiracy? There was nothing in the testimony to show them. Yet all these points must be proved clearly to the jury before they can be held as conspired. Brady openly entered his orders upon the records of the Postoffice Department, which were under the eye of Postmaster General Scott. Was that the act of a dishonest man? It appeared in absolute overruling proof that Observations in the South.

Gen. Dabney H. Maury has written an interesting letter to the Industrial

South, Richmond, Va., which he delivers his observations upon a recent extended tour through the Southern States. He states that everywhere in Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia and South Carolina he heard the glad surprise of the people at finding that they can raise grass as a paying crop, thus meeting a want long felt. The raising of improved stock is also being extensively engaged in, and the iron and coal developments in the northern counties of Georgia, Alabama and Mis-issippi is simply marvelous.

Gen. Maury says that everywhere throughout the South he found evidences of great energy and prosperity--that "the vast railroad developments are carrying activity into every department of industry; regions are penetrated and developed hitherto unknown with all their treasures," and that there is always a recurring surprise to see how progress in all commercial success is being made along these new centers of commerce." General Maury adds that the population of the cotton States without an adequate to its cheap and abundant supply of the necessity of comfort and health; so that they no longer depend on New England for ice.

The White Flag on Aboukir--An Austrian Boat Crew Seized by The Egyptians.

ALEXANDRIA, August 23.--The Austrian boat Nautilus from Port Said arrived here on Monday. The commander and crew were seized by the flag flying on Aboukir forts supposed that they were in possession of the

on New England for ice.

How England's Seizure of Suez Canal

May be Used.

PARIS, August 23.--La France devotes a leader to pointing out that England's action with regard to Suez Canal may one day be used against her claims to exclusive control of the Panama Canal.
