NOON DISPATCHES.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Fever at Pensacola.
 PENSACOLA, Fla., Sept. 7.—One case of yellow fever reported to-day, and another to-night, but they will not be officially announced until tomorrow. There were no deaths today. Young Frank McCann has been in black vomit and will probably live through the night. Several suspicious cases are under observation and will be reported when the character of the disease more clearly defined. It is the ninth day of the fever and only one case has been reported in twenty-four hours. The slow progress the fever is making has restored the confidence even of the timid who were at the very height of the panic, and the measures being incessantly taken to restrict the progress of the disease. President of the board of health, Dr. Hargis, declared this afternoon in his opinion that ten days yellow fever in Pensacola would be merely a matter of history. Relief committees have been organized.
South Carolina Greenback Labor Nominations.
 COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 6.—The Greenback Labor Reform party convention made the following nominations: Secretary of State, Thomas Perkins; Superintendent of Education, Rev. J. D. Deane; Attorney General, G. B. Farmer; Collector, Treasurer, W. H. Stanton; District Judge, and Inspector General, J. F. Johns; Darlington Superintendent, Education, Rev. J. D. Deane; Attorney General, G. B. Farmer; Collector, Treasurer, W. H. Stanton; District Judge, and Inspector General, J. F. Johns.
Vermont Election.
 BOSTON, Sept. 6.—The Vermonters from Vermont show the election of Poland in the second district as somewhat doubtful. There are 31 towns to be heard from in said district, 19 of which are in the county, the home of Grant. The Poland vote is expected strength in the back towns his election will be doubtful. Returns from the lower part of Vermont, Republican, show a vote of 3,051; Martinson, scattering vote, Bartow's majority over all 1,178. Six Democratic representatives are reported elected, and 7 Republicans. The Legislature will have a decreased Republican majority.

The Cyclone Moving Toward the Gulf.
 WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—The signal office reports that a cyclone is moving in a north westerly direction into the Gulf. A vessel leaving Gulf ports will encounter dangerous winds within the next two or three days.
The Georgia Watermelon.
 Young Joe Brown has a prodigy of industry and intelligence since he went into the melon business and is already at the top. His work takes a practical turn. About six months ago he organized what he calls the "watermelon and melon company" and proposed to take car loads of melons and push them through to the West on quick time and at low rates. Instead of making a schedule to Chicago and Cincinnati, where the markets could be glutted easily, he made time and rates to forty different Western cities, so that the melon shipper could choose his market.
 The result has been wonderful. He has shipped this season over eight hundred car loads of melons from Georgia or Georgia twice the shipment of any previous year. The amount of melons each, or one million melons each over one line of road. They brought better prices and cost less freight, but the net result was a gross of $300 a car, or $140,000 for the crop over this new road. The growers are pleased and encouraged and the dealers in the smaller Western cities say they can handle three times as many melons at good prices. The growers with whom Mr. Brown has had dealings will plant more melons largely next year, and he thinks that his road will carry in 1883, or next year, one million melons out of Georgia. Besides the large number of cars carried by the new road, Mr. Brown says, "I know of one man who planted three hundred acres in melons last year that will plant one thousand three hundred acres this year. I do not know of a single grower that did not make a success of melon planting last year."
 "My ambition," said Mr. Brown, while talking on this subject, "is to get back to the West car load for car load for the sea sends us. If she sends us a car load of wheat I will send her one of melons, or fruit. We are coming to that rapidly. The number of car loads of Western produce we bring in is increasing every day. If we can pay for our Western produce in these special crops and have our cotton crop as surplus, we will soon be the richest people in the world. We have a cash market for these melons to Chicago of 80 hours. We will reduce this to 68 hours by next season. We have settled the matter of melons, and peaches, and I tell you that the melon and fruit crop of Georgia next year will astonish even the most sanguine. We will settle the potato problem this season, and the look out for the potato crop."
 He has now turned his attention to a "sweet potato schedule," and hopes to do great things with the delicate bulb. He has arranged to put the Georgia potato into Chicago at 19 cents a bushel. The command in that market is $1 a bushel easily. If they net the grower even 50 cents a bushel they make the most profitable crop that can be grown. The white and red potato does not sell well, but the yellow Georgia is always in demand at good prices. Encouraged by his circulars a great many Georgians are planting potatoes for the western markets, and he hopes to make a demonstration this Fall that will make the potato in a year or two a leading article of export from Georgia. A million dollars worth of potatoes might be grown and shipped from Georgia every year without decreasing any other crop by a single bushel or pound.
 Mr. Brown says: "My attention was first called to the matter by Mr. R. J. Reagan, of Rome, last January, asking me for rates on potatoes to Rome. I remembered how easily we had raised 300 bushels of potatoes at 19 cents a bushel in Georgia when he refunded there, and how our neighbors raised 400 bushels to the acre and I determined to try and develop this special crop. The boom is at hand, and we shall have fine results this Fall. We can ship millions of bushels in two years from now."

 Captain Von Eisenbacher, who is reported to be transferred from the German legation at Japan to Washington, has for several years dictated much of Japan's policy, reframed or set aside its laws and regulated no considerable part of its external expenditure, all in the interest of his countrymen. It is said that a German ship coming from a cholera-infected port to break through the quarantine established by Japan.

"I Lost My Massa When Dey Set Me Free."
 I run broken down and weary, soon I'll hear the Angel's call, Then I'll leave the Old Log Cabin in the Lane, So I'll bid you good-bye children, for I love you one and all, Like I do the fields of cotton and the sugar cane. I am getting old and feeble, and my hair is turning gray, And the blackberries in the cabin they grow scarcer every day.
 CHORUS—Yes, I lost my Massa many, many years ago, But I still remember what he said to me, You must leave the old plantation, you've no Massa any more, For they've gone and made the colored people free.
