BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A Baby's Feet. NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—A cigar box was found floating in North River yesterday which contained a baby's foot. In the box was a hotel soap dish and a match box and wrapper, bearing the name and address of George S Davidson, room No 121, Fifth Avenue Hotel. The police found Davidson at that address, and he admitted that his wife, whom he had married six weeks ago, had given birth to a child in the room and that on the advice of Dr Theodore Y Kenney, of Paterson, who attended her, had disposed of the feet in the manner named, the paper bearing the address being inadvertently used as a wrapper. The physician and Davidson were arrested. The lady is in a critical

NEW YORK, Sept. 7-A. J. Bloomberg, of Brownsville, Tex., has been engaged for the past two days soliciting subscriptions to the fund for relieving the sufferers from yellow fever in Brownsville. Bloomberg raised $920 in cash which he sent immediately to his house in Brownsville by telegraph. It is stated that Mayor Thomas Carson, of Brownsville, has authorized Bloomberg and assistants to receive subscrip-

A Bonanza Struck. GALVESTON, Sept. 7.-A News El Pasos special says "three young men discovered a gold mine, 60 miles north of this place, in Orga mountain. The News was fully confirmed. A piece of ore weighing two pounds, contains $150 of the precious metal. A shaft has been sunk seven feet to the vein, which is three feet wide. A ton of such ore would be worth $100,000. Every one is wild with excitement.

Refusal to Endorse an Independent. JACKSONVILLE, FLA. Sept 7.—The Times says that at the Republican convention the resolution endorsing Mc-Kinnon, independent for Congress, was not acted upon. Edward F Skinner, of Pensacola, was nominated. Another convention was held in which eight counties were represented and which unanimously endorsed McKinnon.

nated for Congress and Col M N Stone for Justice of the Supreme court.

The Star-Route Trial. WASHINGTON, Sept 5 .- "There is a large audience this morning," remarked Judge Wylie when he took his seat in court this morning. A great crowd, many ladies in it, had gathered to hear Coi. Ingersoll's defense of the starrouters. The pith of his argument was that the scheme of the indictment must be proved precisely as it had been laid, without the variation of a hair. He went over all the routes, pointing out variances between the charges in the indictment and the evidence, especially as to dates. The following are sample fragments of his diction:

The Southern Ore Company.

A company of gentlemen, embracing New York and foreign capitalists have, we understand, secured from F J Lord, Esq. the property on South Water, near the foot of Ann street, as a location for the foot of Ann street, as a location for their business in this city, and that they intend at once to erect works with the view of purchasing and treating sul-phureted gold ores. It is expected that the company will hasten the necessary preparations and be ready for business in about sixty days from this date, when they will at once be in the market for the purchase of any quantity of sulphuret ores at fixed schedule prices, according to assay value or average

The parties interested in this enterprise claim to have ample capital wherewith to operate, and say they will pay cash for all the ores purchased by

We hail with satisfaction all such evidences of progress and enterprise in our midst, and congratulate those interested in this mineral product of the State on the prospect of having a market for their ores so convenient and Attempts at Highway Robbery. Vinston Sentine!.

During the past week several attempts have been made at highway robbery beyond the Salem bridge. Parties have been stopped and money demanded and in several cases the assaulted have saved their finances only through the virtue of their legs. The rascals are unknown and usually carry on operations at night. The people living beyond the bridge are becoming excited at the frequent occurrence of the attempts and will use every measure to stop this nefarious little game and bring the scoundrels to justice.

Special Deputies. Ru'eigh News and Observer.

To illustrate how the Western internal revenue district has been used as a political machine we cite some figures found in the Vance examination. The secretary of the Treasury allows special deputies to collectors on applica-For the year ending June 30, 1874, there was allowed one special deputy who was paid $625. The next year there were three who were paid $1,720. The next year none. The year ending June 30, 1877, there were ten, paid $2,361.

Now we are approaching the election year, and the matter grows more interesting; for the year ending June 30, 1880, there were thirty-seven whose pay amounted to the neat sum of $16,247, and for the following year, from June 30, 1880, embracing the election period to June 30, 1881, the number was fifty-four and the pay $18,312.

Now then the election being well over, the government becomes again somewhat economical, and for the nine months from July 1, 1881, to April 1, 1882, the number appointed was nine, and the pay $1,800. Somehow Uncle Sam and the Republican party manage in of years to get along without a very great number of special deputies. The pay for nine months after election times is just onetenth what it was for twelve months during the election period. These are the facts as stated by the revenue department. They speak for themselves. What to do for a Sick Headache.

Don't take a cup of strong tea, a dose of "blue mass," or anti-bilious pills; but if you have an attack of genuine sick headache, the whole head aching as though it would split, the temples throbbing, the tongue coated, and mouth tasting bad, no appetite, more or less nausea, and constipated bowels, drink a pint of warm (not hot) water. Keep drinking until free vomiting is induced thus washing out the stomach and re-lieving it of its load of decomposing food. Apply hot fomentations to the bowels and drink freely of very hot water. A fomentation about the head or between the shoulders will usually relieve the headache very much. Eat nothing for twenty-four hours, and afterwards live upon fruits and grains, avoiding meat, butter, pastry, sugar, sauces and all indigestible foods.
