

The Charlotte Observer. CHAS. R. JONES, Editor and Proprietor.

SHALL WE CRY-OUT 'PECCAVI?' Mr. Bryan, editor of the Fayetteville Examiner...

We notice it only because a number of such allusions have appeared recently in the State papers.

1st. We are not 'prodigal.' We have been 'so where' and have advocated no doctrine other than that advocated by true Democrats.

2nd. The radicals did not attempt to feed us on 'hunks' or anything else. If we had been 'for sale' we should not have waited for the year of grace 1882.

3rd. No, we don't 'come back with the confession of a genuine prodigal.'

We have claimed, and still claim, that the future welfare of this country depends upon a return to the true principles of government as we understand them.

4th. We are not 'for sale.' We are actually sinned. When we are so convinced our prayer for forgiveness will not be directed to men like the editor of the Examiner.

5th. We are not 'for sale.' We are actually sinned. When we are so convinced our prayer for forgiveness will not be directed to men like the editor of the Examiner.

THE PROHIBITION PARTY. Whist the Republican coalition leaders of this State are trying to resurrect the dead issue of prohibition...

The Republicans in Ohio, Indiana, New Hampshire, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Wisconsin and Minnesota are making their fight this year favoring prohibition and expecting to win on that issue.

Where will the Republican party—as an organization—be then? That is the question which asks of us who are prohibitionists.

It is a question which asks of us who are prohibitionists, where will the Republican party—as an organization—be then? That is the question which asks of us who are prohibitionists.

THE STAR ROUTERS. ARGUING THE MOTIONS FOR A NEW TRIAL.

Some Pointed Dialogues Between Counsel for the Star Routers and a Judge.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—In the Criminal Court today after the counsel for the Star Routers filed their motion for a new trial...

"I have had no opportunity of personal communication with the Attorney General, but in an emergency I have taken the liberty of performing my duty for myself and take the responsibility."

D. A. JENKINS SPEAKS. On the Subject of the Coalition.

Hon. D. A. Jenkins, of Gaston County, ex-Treasurer of the State of North Carolina, and a Republican of the 'fire tried' order writes the following letter on the political situation in reply to a letter from Rev. J. S. Heilig, of Concord, and repudiating the coalition. We copy the letter from the last issue of the Gastonia Gazette:

J. S. Heilig, Esq.:—My dear Sir:—Your favor of the 24th ult. is received. Please accept my thanks for it. Your views in refusing to vote for the hybrid ticket attempted to be forced upon the Republic by the late Administration are the views of a large majority of the Republican party in this State.
