"I know no safe depository of the ultimate powers of society but the people themselves; and if we think them not enlightened enough to exercise their control with a wholesome discretion, the remedy is, not to take it from them, but to inform their discretion by education."—THOMAS JEFFERSON.

[ENTERED AT THE POST-OFFICE AT CHARLOTTE, N. C., AS SECOND CLASS MATTER]

SUNDAY, SEPT. 17, 1882.

When the proprietor of THE OBSERVER left the Congressional race he did so without any desire to have anything more to do with it as a candidate, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding.

Georgia is worth $290,000,000, an increase of $16,000,000 over last year.

Jay Hubbell invested about $200,000 of his assessment spoils in Maine.

Robie, the new Governor of Maine, is a farmer and didn't stump for votes.

Wolseley evidently didn't let the war editors of newspapers run his campaign against Arabi.

Messrs. Ball, Boyd and Henderson are the Republican aspirants for the Congressional nomination in the Fifth district.

We know why Arabi surrendered. He heard about those 500 Missouri mules being shipped and that brought him to terms.

A citizen of New Orleans "shuffled off this mortal coil" a few days ago and seven sad widows, all his own, stood and wept over his grave.

Dickson, the foreman of the star-route jury, was a contractor in Washington, and his work often brought him in business contact with Stephen W. Dorsey.

Some ladies of Barnesville, Ga., have organized an anti-smoking society with a view to preventing boys from contracting the habit of smoking.

Phipps, the Philadelphia alms-house thief, is one of the champion stealers He actually stole the copper sheeting from the roof of the alms-house.

Gen. Mahone is not a very large man, but when it comes to reaching out for the 5 per cent. assessments he can reach about as far as the tallest of the looters.

Col. John R. Winston, engineer of the Greenback party in this State, has issued a call for a conference at Raleigh, on the 27th inst., to put a full State ticket in the field.

The Democrats of the eleventh congressional district in Pennsylvania are going to take that district by storm and have nominated a man with that name to do it.

Fort Worth, Texas, is decidedly in favor of free schools. Out of a population of 12,000 there were but eighteen negative votes on a proposition to levy a tax sufficient to maintain six schools.

Virginia drinks up her entire wheat crop annually, and it is stated that the liquor drank in Louisiana costs $47,000,000, or $2,000,000 more than its combined cotton, sugar and rice crop.

A girl born in Buchanan, Virginia, recently, has living on her mother's side, grandfather, great-grandfather, great-great-grandfather and three grandmothers, and on her father's side, grandfather and grandmother.

After having pushed liquor legislation to the extreme verge of fanaticism the Republican leaders of Ohio have come to the conclusion that the liquor question is not an issue before the people in this election.

Secretary of the Interior, Teller, having gotten through log rolling for a seat in the Senate from Colorado, has returned to Washington, and is the only member of the administration who is there, all the others being frolicking elsewhere.

Herbert Spencer, who is now on a visit to this country, is troubled with insomnia, and seldom sleeps more than an hour or two at a time. It is suggested that if he joins the New York police force he may overcome this and in a little while sleep soundly.

Chief Engineer Melville and two seamen, Noras and Nindeman, survivors of the Jeannette Arctic expedition arrived at New York Friday, and were given a warm welcome. They find it much pleasanter, no doubt, than straggling around among Arctic icebergs.

Here is the last recorded triumph of the book agent: It comes from Missouri: "He piled ties across the railroad track, ran ahead and saved a passenger train, and took one hundred and twenty orders from the grateful passengers without the slightest change of countenance."

The Atlanta Herald remarks that among the summer inconsistencies is to "leave a well spread table and a comfortable bedroom at home, and go to some seaside haunt and eat hash in a barracks and sleep on a short and narrow mattress stuffed with tacks and broken bottles."

The Radical papers North are making the usual campaign capital out of the hanging of Dick Turner, the leader of the conspiracy to murder the white people of Choctaw county, Alabama. As might be expected they give a political turn to it, and make Turner a "Republican leader."

The following are the nominees of the Democratic convention of Buncombe county, held last Saturday. For the Legislature, Messrs. McLoud and Benj. G. Gudger; sheriff, Wm. R. Young; clerk, W. T. Reynolds; registra J. R. Pollason; treasurer, Jno. Hembree; surveyor, A. H. Starnes; coroner, Dr. J. M. Stephens. The Citizen adds that it was the largest convention ever seen in Buncombe.

A Georgia negro writes to the New York Sun that "if the whitewashed carpet-baggers now in Georgia would leave the State and go and fight Indians it would be a good thing for both the whites and blacks. We should understand each other, and advance faster. We would all be better citizens." If he had extended his remark so as to include all the native as well as carpet-bag crowd, who are using the negro to advance their own interests, he would have covered the case better.

POLITICS IN MECKLENBURG.

As published elsewhere this morning it will be seen that the Republican County Convention, which assembled in the Court House in Charlotte yesterday, re-nominated the coalition ticket adopted by the Liberal party in its County Convention on the 20th August, ultimo. It was done without a break in the line, although a small faction inside the Republican party proper were disposed to kick. Such resistance as was offered was too feeble to black the board, and the coalition ticket was carried with a whoop.

It becomes Mecklenburg Democrats to look things fairly in the face. To beat this ticket means up hill work, but it can be done. Enthusiasm is written on the Republican banner, and we might as well understand that victory can be won only by the hardest kind of work. The Republican party is solid, and the man who doubts it is mistaken. All bickerings will be hushed, all preferences will be buried long before the day of election.

Added to the solid Republican vote will be found quite a number of dissatisfied Democrats: Dissatisfied because of the management of the party; dissatisfied because of the prohibition issue, and dissatisfied in regard to the position many of the party take on the County government question. We have been accused of talking somewhat independently of late, and it may be treason to say this much, but we do not believe in mincing matters. We shall never deceive the people, or the Democratic party if we know it. Hence we think it best to talk plainly, so that we may reason together, for the ultimate good of the party.

If there was any doubt before, of one thing we are now assured: The two great political parties, Republican and Democratic confront each other as heretofore, and every Democrat who falters in his allegiance to go with the coalition counts two—one off and one on. Every departure from the Democratic ranks, under whatever name or pretext, will culminate in this struggle in adding strength to the Republican party, and the defeat of the Democracy means the upturning of our county offices, and a representation in the Legislature of two acknowledged Republicans, at least.

Democrats of Mecklenburg, you men who have stood faithfully by your party since its reorganization in 1870, can you afford to see such a result? Errors in the selection of the county ticket there may have been, mistakes in allowing issues to crop out that should not have been there are, but with it all, over it all, in the face of it all, there stands out before you to-day, as it never stood before, the naked question of Democratic or Republican success in the county.

THE OBSERVER proposes to be a private in the ranks, but it will do its part in this battle, and it will now be found in the thickest of the fight.

JAMES G. BLAINE.

The recovery of the State of Maine brings Blaine prominently to the front again in the race for the Republican nomination for the Presidency in 1884, as the result is attributed to his management and personal popularity. The campaign is said to have flagged, with the odds against the Republicans, until he threw himself into the canvass, when the prospects brightened and continued to brighten till victory was announced at the close of the ballot-boxes. Mr. Hubbell's practical aid, no doubt, had much to do with this result, but still Blaine gets the credit for it, not only in Maine, but throughout the country.

He has never abandoned the hope of being nominated for the Presidency, in which he has been twice beaten by combinations in his own party, and it may be said to be the ambition of his life to secure the nomination and triumph over his enemies. At present the indications are that the contest is between Blaine and Arthur, the latter of whom is working up the coalition business in the South with a view to controlling a solid delegation from this section in the next National convention, while Blaine is doing all he can to spike his guns by bringing out straight-out Republican candidates where he can do so. In this business, however, Mr. Arthur has the advantage which the distribution of public patronage gives him, and which he is playing for all it is worth.

Blaine has personal popularity, is rich, has fine ability, tireless energy, and has behind him a large following of disappointed Republicans who have become restive and broken away from the bosses because they want a new deal, and a chance at the flesh pots. With the 306 gang in there is no chance for this, and they look to Blaine as the most available leader in the war they have to wage upon this gang. He has entered upon the work, and his triumph in Maine has given him a fresh boom.

A CLOSE CALCULATION.

Before Gen. Wolseley left England to take command of the British forces in Egypt, he remarked that he would finish up the business over there and return to London by September 15th in time to dine with a certain club as he had been in the habit of doing annually. It began to look as if this was a mere piece of braggadocio, but it was not, for on the 14th inst. his troops marched into Cairo, after having captured Tel El Kebir and put Arabi and his forces to flight, and secured the surrender of the Egyptian chief and ten thousand of his troops. This was but one day inside of the time that Wolseley had given himself to do the work. Arranging the conditions of peace, however, detained him and prevented him from getting home to dine with his friends at the appointed time.

The last trade edition of the Augusta Chronicle contains sixteen pages, and is a typographical beauty. In handsomeness of get up and finish it will compare with the finest illustrated journals of the day.

New York has discovered, without the slightest assistance from her police, that there are six hundred places in the city where lottery tickets are sold, and a complicated net work of politicians and policemen engaged in protecting the business and sharing the profits.

It is stated as a remarkable fact that the English census cost only $700,000, and was begun and completed in one night. The work on the United States' census was begun in 1870, and will be finished in 1883. The report, it is estimated, will cost $5,000,000.

Philadelphia Press: What with writing the secret history of the Garfield administration, prosecuting a hundred or so of the leading newspapers of the country for libel, and attending to his duties as secretary of the National Republican committee, Mr. Dorsey has a busy winter before him. It looks as if he might be compelled to sub-let some of his contracts, though his prospects have brightened considerably in the past 24 hours.

Gen. McDowell to Be Retired--Sending Mail to Brownsville.

WASHINGTON, Sept 16.—Gen McDowell, now in command of the military division of the Pacific, will be retired by superannuation in October under the compulsory provision of the army appropriation bill. Gen. Schofield will be assigned as his successor, and recently the Adjutant General of the Department telegraphed McDowell asking when it would be convenient for him to be relieved of his command. McDowell replied that he preferred to retain his command until retired.

Acting Superintendent Johnston, of the railway service has instructed Warfield at St Louis to have all matter for Brownsville, Texas, which has been accumulating at the surrounding post offices placed on the special mail steamer which will sail from Galveston on the 18th inst., for Brazos and Santiago whence it will be forwarded to Brownsville. No mail has been received at the latter point since September 1st, and this action is taken at the request of the municipal and federal officers at Brownsville.

The Fever at Pennsacola--Church Burned.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 16.—A Pensacola special reports nineteen new cases and two death within the last twenty-four hours. Among the deaths is J. L. Haques, formerly of Louisiana, and among the new cases is Mr. Richards, Southern Express agent.

This evening a fire broke out in a in a shanty and the flames spread rapidly to the Catholic parsonage and thence to St. Michael's Catholic church, which was totally destroyed. Two small cottages in rear of the church were also burned. Rev. Father Bausu, ill with fever in the parsonage was removed and is now reported doing well.

From Matamoras.

GALVESTON, Tex., Sept. 16.—A news' Matamoras special says all mail communication between Brownsville and Matamoras has ceased on account of the quarantine. Messrs. Northwell and Wm. Angell Maise, Spanish merchants, just from the seashore, are down with the fever. During the 24 hours to 9 a. m. yesterday there were two deaths, one from fever. The reports of the quarantine against Brownsville is unfounded. No yellow fever at Tampico.

Death of Hon. C. P. Ramsdell.

PETERSBURG, VA., Sept. 16.—Hon C P Ramsdell, late United States marshal of the Eastern District of Virginia, which position he had held for the past ten years, died of Bright's disease, at Centralia, Chesterfield county, this morning, in his 57th year.

Or rich and poor, if you're not wont,
To brush your teeth with SOZODONT,
You'll one day suffer deep remorse,
For soon they'll crumble in decay,
And soon you'll cry, "Oh, lack-a-day,
That I had never changed my course."

Goldsmith's Testimony.

Goldsmith speaks of

"That dire disease, whose ruthless power
Withers the beauty's transient flower."

No truer description could be given of the disease of the kidneys, which, uncared for, ripens into Bright's disease, and cuts down our strongest men in a very short time. And if Goldsmith had known of Hunt's Remedy he would undoubtedly have continued his poem, and spoken of

"Hunt's Remedy, whose matchless worth,
Makes it a boon to all the earth."

It is surely a boon to thousands of sufferers who have been able to find relief nowhere else.

Preventive of Malarial Diseases.

Opinion of Eminent Dr. H. R. Walton, of Annapolis, Md.—"COLDEN'S LIQUID BEEF TONIC is par excellence, superior to cod-liver oil or anything I have ever used in wasted or impaired constitutions, and extremely beneficial as a preventive of malarial diseases." (Take no other.) Of druggists.

More universally recommended than any proprietary medicine made. A sure and reliable tonic, Brown's Iron Bitters.

I Would Pay Ten Dollars per Bottle for it.

Brunswick county, Va., Nov. 5, 1881.

I have been entirely cured of a most fearful looking and painful sore on my ankle, by the use of Mrs. Joe Person's valuable Remedy. It came more than twelve months ago, very much like a ring worm. I painted it with tine. iodine. It became a very painful and ugly looking place, then I commenced to try everything I could think or hear of, until it became so very painful that I could scarcely walk. Then I went to the best doctor in the whole country for advice, who told me he could cure me if I would take to my bed and there remain for four or five weeks, and if I did not do this a leg or foot would be taken off. Imagine how I felt to be told that I would have to lose my foot, or to give up all business? Either of the remedies would have ruined me. Mind you, this was the advice of one of the best doctors in the State of North Carolina, and this conversation took place last February. I continued to burn, as he advised, with caustic until September, but found no benefit at all from his treatment. I was then advised by my friends to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. I ordered half pints from her, and took the first dose on the 17th of September, using the Wash also, and now I am a well man, the sore is entirely cured, and I can walk as far, dance as much and jump as high as any man. Put me back to the first of September, let me know as much as I now do of the merits of Remedy, and I would not hesitate to pay ten dollars per bottle for it if I could not get it for any less. I think more of it than any medicine I ever heard of. It is not only the best remedy in the world to purify the blood, but I believe it will cure all skin and blood diseases, and it will certainly cure a love of strong drink. It gives me pleasure to furnish this for publication, as I know there are many sufferers who would be cured, could they know of and obtain Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy.

Very truly and respectfully,

JOS. R. MASON, JR.,
South Gaston, North Carolina.

Sores Breaking Out Over the Face and Neck.

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 27th, 1881.

Mrs. Joe Person, Franklinton, N. C.

Dear Madam:—In reply to your letter asking what I think of your Remedy. I would say that my children have been very fair, and so far as I can learn the Remedy has been very satisfactory to my customers who have used it, especially so in the case of a little girl of this city, ten years of age, who was troubled for a long time with sores breaking out over the face and neck, having the appearance of Scrofula, and which had resisted the usual alterative treatment for a long time. She took four bottles of your Remedy last spring, when the sores entirely disappeared, and up to the present she has had no return of them, her skin being as fair and clear as any one's.

Trusting that you may receive the success which your Remedy seems to merit, I am

Very respectfully yours,

WM. SIMPSON, Druggist.

McLure for Coroner.

To the Editor of The Observer:

The friends of Mr. J. A. McLure present his name to the voters of Mecklenburg county, for the office of Coroner in the coming election. Mr. McLure is a resident of Charlotte, consequently would be near the centre of the county and more accessable for the duties devolving upon the office than one residing in any extreme part of the county. He is in every way qualified for the position, and is a prompt and energetic business man. He is presented as the people's candidate and will be supported by MANY VOTERS.
