[ENTERED AT THE FOST-OFFICE AT CHARLOTTE, N. C., AS SECOND CLASS MATTER] "I know no safe depository of the ultimate powers "of society but the people themselves; and if we think them not enlightened enough to exercise their control "with a wholesome discretion, the remedy is, not to take "it from them, but to inform their discretion by edu "cation."-THOMAS JEFFERSON.

THURSDAY, OCT. 5, 1882.

COALITION IN NORTH CAROLINA Baltimore Sun: George C. Gorham, accompanied by Judge Settle and Wm. P. Canaday, of North Carolina, has returned to Washington from a visit to President Arthur in New York, and Mr. Gorham makes the following statement about the result of his journey: "The President, being told that representations had been made to the effect that he was indifferent to the success of the coalition ticket in North Carolina, replied with much emphasis and energy, that it was wholly unfounded, and that, on the contrary, he was most earnest in the hope of success. He held it to be the ticket of the Republicans, duly indorsed by the Republican convention, and hoped that every Republican would yield it his support. The President was very earnest, and said he

be plainly understood."

There must be trouble in the camp when we see such prominent men as those above-mentioned soliciting Presidential action in the premises. It is thus they hope to whip reluctant Republicans into line in support of the mongrel coalition ticket, which means, in fact, the support of Republican candidates under a borrowed name. They inform dissatisfied and doubting Republicans that the President held the coalition ticket "to be the ticket of the Republicans," in which he is about as near right as he ever was in his life, and so much interest does he take in this Republican ticket that he is throwing all the influence his position and patronage give him to insure its success. As in Virginia they struck off the heads of Federal office-holders who refused to bow before Mahone, so in this State are they informing Federal office-holders that they must support the coalition movement if they expect to live and draw rations from the public crib. It is said that eight postmasters have already been decapitated for rebelling against it, and more will go

The President's attitude is no surprise to those who have watched the drift of events, but it is somewhat singular that the ex-Democrats who are co-operating with the Republican managers in this move have the cheek to still pretend that it is not a move in the interest of the Republican party.

MORE COALITION.

Not satisfied with liberal, anti-prohibition coalition, the Republican congressional committee of the 5th district yesterday endorsed Col. John R. Winston, the Greenback candidate for Congress, and yet these tricksters, who have been for years denouncing the rag-baby and sneering at Winston have the effrontery to talk about being governed by principle. Is there any one short-sighted or simple enough not to be able to see through such transparent humbuggery? What estimate must they set upon the people who have been voting the Republican ticket when they trifle with them thus, commanding them to vote for anybody and everybody that they can strike a bargain

Personally, Winston stands well; mentally he does not range above the ordinary degree of intelligence; congressionally he is insane. As far back as 1870 the congressional bee buzzed in his ear and since then it has been his day thought and night dream. He never could persuade the Democrats to nominate him and after his failures and the dissipation of his hopes, he abandoned the Democracy, became an apostle of Greenbackism and nominated himself. He ran two years ago against General Scales and got scarcely votes enough to convince him that he had run. Then, however, T. B. Keogh, was in the race as the Republican candidate, and the Republicans, except at one precinct in Davidson county, where for personal reasons they threw off on Keogh. wouldn't touch him with a forty-foot pole. But they have put their heads together since and now there is a mutual understanding between the ridiculed Greenbacker of two years ago and the supporters of high-toned Republican principles. Of course, with this endorsement he will receive more votes than when he ran last time, but not enough to send him to Washington by long odds.

HEADS OFF.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, writing of the coalition movements in Virginia and North Carolina, says:

The President has also given to that wing of the Republican party which is in the coalition movement in North Carolina the power to dispense the Federal patronage in that State, and to-day eight North Carolina postmasters were removed for opposing the coalition movement. Unlike the unholy alliance in Virginia, the North Carolina coalition movement has some redeeming elements in it, but it is not apt to amount to much. Glowing accounts of its prospects have recently been sent here, but several of the most sagacious Republicans in the State say the facts are not as alleged, and that the regular Democratic ticket will triumph, as Word has gone out along the line that Federal office holders are expected to support the coalition movement in which President Arthur takes such a lively interest, and if they don't, off comes their heads. There is no doubt that those to whom the control of Federal patronage has been given will see to it that the necessary conditions are complied with.

Every day further exposes the plot to deceive the Democratic masses and delude them into the support of the Republican party.

W. J. Munden, a former Republican member of the Legislature, who eloped from Perquimans county with the wife of J. A. Johnson, who took with her $2,300 of her husband's money, fled to Arkansas, where he was arrested and brought back, was tried and convicted at last term of Perquimans court and inday at a depth of a sentenced to ten years in the peniten. fifty feet.

Thousands of tantiles have had occasion to try the never failing qualities of Dr. Bull's cough continue and they all units in the praise of this wonderful prescription.

THE FIRST GUN.

The Democracy of Georgia shot the first gun against coalition yesterday and knocked it into splinters. The dispatches that reached us last night, brief as they were, announced a first-class bust of the independent, coalition bubble, and a clean sweep of the State by the Democracy. And yet, the day before, there were men in that State who doubted the result, and feared that the coalitionists, who made such broad claims and loud noise, might triumph. The fact is, the honest masses do not take well to this coalition business anywhere, and though they don't talk much, rebuke it when the opportunity presents itself at the polls. Georgia has led the way gallantly, and so let the Democracy of the whole Southern states follow and squelch the corrupt combinations that have been formed to hand them over to the Republican party.

Mayor Cleveland, the Democratic nominee for Governor of New York, proposes to take an active part in the canvass, which is something unusual in that State. He has accepted an invitation to address the Brooklyn Young | can majority of 126 on the assessor's | Men's Club next Saturday evening. This will be the first of a series of addresses to be delivered by him in the principal cities of the State.

Raleigh News and Observer: The Republicans claim that when they get the next Legislature they are going to redistrict the State so as to make six certain Republican Congressional districts. The third district particularly is to be made a Republican stronghold. What do our friends in Wilmington and Fayetteville have to say to that? The gerrymander will last for ten years. Do you like it?

Resolved, that the thanks of this convention are tendered Dr. J. J. Mott and Col. T. N. Jay Hubbell don't like the idea of shouldering all the odium of the assessment business. He says it is not his work but the work of the Republican executive committee, numbering fifteen men, and that as chairman his business is simply to see their orders carried out, If he don't like it, why does he do it?

Philadelphia Press (Rep.): The Republicans expect to elect their Congressional candidates in the First, Second, Third and Seventh districts of North Carolina, and are making a telling fight in one or two others. The prospects are encouraging.

The Washington Star, (Rep.) says that the Democrats claim a gain of five Congressmen in Ohio at the coming election, and the Republicans incline to concede a loss of three.

ATLANTA, GA., Oct. 4.- The election for Governor and State House officials is progressing quietly. The election of Mr. Stephens is conceded by all parties, e amount of the majority being the only matter in doubt. In Atlanta Garell is receiving the almost solid negro and Republican vote.

COLUMBUS, October 4.—The election to-day for Governor and State officers passed off quietly throughout this section. The indications are that the whole Democratic ticket will be elected in the 4th congressional district by the largest majority ever given by the party. Eastern and Western Proverbs.

There is an Eastern proverb which says: "Only two creatures can surmount the pyramids: the eagle and the snall." There is a Western proverb that says; "Hunt's Remedy partakes of the nature of both eagle and snall. It is bold in its flight like the eagle; it is persistent in its purpose, like the spall." And thus Hunt's Remedy easily surmounts the pyramid of kidney and liver disease It even attacks Bright's Disease, and hesitates at no form of kidney disease however aggravated.
The story of the cures which it has effected would make a large volume. Bemember it is the one great liver and kidney medicine of the age.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

Rev. Sylvanus Cobb thus writes in the Boston Christian Freeman:—We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly for infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep, and its parents unknown colic pains, quiet sleep, and its parents unknown rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and And during the process of teething, its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething siege, on any consideration whatever.
