followed by consumption or diphtheria. No medicine has ever been discovered which acts so quickly and surely in such cases as PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER. The prompt use of this invaluable remedy has saved thousands of lives.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER 18 not an experiment. It has been before the public for forty years, and is most valued where it is best known.

A few satracts from voluntary testimonials

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for colds for the past twenty-seven years, and have hever known it to fail in effecting a cure.—
L. S. CROCKER, Williamsville, N. Y.
For thirty years I have used PAIN KILLER, and found it a never-failing remedy for colds and sore throat.—BARTON SEAMAN.
Have received immediate relief from colds and sore throat, and consider your PAIN KILLER an invaluable remedy.—GEO. B. EVERETT, Dickinson, N. Y. myaluable remedy.—Geo. B. Everett, Dickinson, N. Y.

I have just recovered from a very severe cold, which I have had for some time. I could get no relief until I tried your Pain Killer, which relieved me immediately. I will never again be without it.—C. O. Force, Lowndes, Ga.

For whooping-cough and croup it is the best preparation made. We would not be without it.—A. P. Routs, Liberty Mills, Va.

For twenty-five years I have used Pain Killer for colds and chapped lips, and consider it the best medicine ever offered.—Geo.Hooper, Wilmington, N. C.

I was suffering severely with bronchitis, and top. medicine ever offered.—GEO.HOOPER, Wilmington, N. C.

I was suffering severely with bronchitis, and my throat was so inflamed I could scarcely swallow any food. I was advised to try your PAIN KILLER, and after taking a few doses was completely cured.—T. WILKINSON.

Dr. WALTON writes from Coshocton: Your PAIN KILLER cures diphtheria and sore throat, so alarmingly prevalent here, and has not been known to fall in a single instance. This fact you should make known to the world.

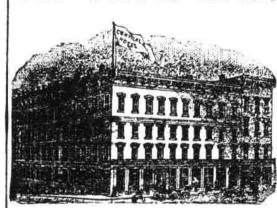

Mrs. Ellen B. Mason writes: My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, high fever, and cold chills. So many children have died here, I was afraid to eall a physician, and tried your PAIN KILLER. He was taken on Sunday, and on Wednesday his throat was clear. It was a wonderful cure, and I wish it could be known to the poor mothers who are losing so many children.

For Chills and Fever PAIN KILLER has no equal. It cures when everything else fails. Delays are often dangerous. A bottle of PAIN KILLER in the house is a safeguard that no family should be without.

All druggists sell it at 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.

Concession to the Clergy. London, October 9 .- A correspondent writes to the Times, stating that as a concession to the feeling of the Catholic clergy throughout Ireland all bisbops except Archbishop McCabe have extended general permission to priests of their dioceses to take part in the Mansion House evicted tenants aid movement and in the new labor league and industrial union founded by Parnell. The writer says several minor church dignitaries have consequently become presidents of branches of the league and will in that capacity participate in the Dublin conference.

Philadelghia American, Rep.

If the Republican party has any leaders, they are perhaps beginning to consider the prospect that the Democrats will have control of the next House of Representatives. The increase in membership under the new census and the apportionment is divided pretty equally between the two parties. The Republicans have a slender majority in the present House, and they may have none at all in the next. The half-hearted policy of Ohio Republicans in the face of the revolt of the Germans, has endangered several seats Quarrels which involve no principle may cost the party one seat in Wisconsin and at least one in Minnesota. Offensive nominations probably will cause the loss of the sixth district of Massachusetts, and may do the same in the Camden district of New Jersey. The acceptance of Mr. Chalmers as the Republican candidate in the Holly Springs District of Mississippi, will limit the Republicans to the control of the Shoestring district in that State. The redistricting of South Carolina reduces the Republican members to one. The quarrel in New York endangers, if it has not lost, the congressman atlarge and perhaps several districts. large, and perhaps several districts. In our own State, the retention of some throughly objectionable candidates, after due warning that they cannot command a united support, will proba-bly cause the loss of two or more seats. To compensate all this, there are gains of two members in Maine, and some slender prospects in other States.
This is where "practical politics" have landed the party. In every instance, except South Carolina, it is the

A Pupil's Adventure. A pupil in the Boston Latin School is none the worse for a recent adventure, which, except for his pluck and endurance, must have resulted disastrously. He rowed to one of the islands in the harbor, equipped with a gun and amunition for an afternoon's sport among the reedbirds. While he was looking for game the rising wind and tide corried him best arms, but undis tide carried his boat away' but, undismayed at the situation, he stripped and swam after it. It was a hard pull through the rough, cold water, but he finally overtook the boat and rowed back to the island for his clothes and his gun. Meanwhile darkness had come on him and he could not find them. The wind cut his bare body like a knife, and after a hurried search for his wad-robe he made up his mind that the on-ly thing to do was to row home as fast as possible and trust to his exertions to keep him from freezing. It was three miles to the nearest shore, but he finally reached it, and, retreating behind the barn, yelled for help.
"What's the matter?" asked a voice

Judge Black on the Mormons.

Judge Jere S Black has been interviewed in regard to affairs in Utah. He concedes the constitutionality of the Edmunds law in striking at polygamy, but declares that the commissioners under the Edmunds law have, of their own motion, without authority of any law, and in the teeth of the constitution, established an inquisition into the life of every man and every woman for twenty years back, and devised a test oath to try them; and all who decline to swear that they have not married or cohabited with more than one woman at any time in the course of the last twenty years are pronounced guilty of polygamy and forthwith punished for the crime by disfranchisement. Judge Black further charges that the Governor and other territorial officials of Utah are engaged in a scheme which, if successful, "will make the whole ter-ritorial government the prey of the spoiler." He says: "Utah cannot stand what South Carolina did. No ten years of good stealing can be found there."

Bible I shall whip you." Mr. Dockery Explains.

To the Voters of North Carolina: A correspondence between S. W. Henly, of the Wadesboro Intelligencer, and Gen. B. F. Butler, in regard to a private transaction between Gen. Buter and myself, has been published in a portion of the Democratic press of the State, with the obvious purpose of in-juring my personal character.

It is proper that I shall give the facts of the transaction, in reply to the suggestions apparent on the face of the correspondence. In 1867 or 1868, R. A. Kendall, of Anson county, N. C., and myself engaged in the commission business in Charleston, S. C, under the name of Kendall & Dockery, Mr. Kendall being the managing partner and conducting the business of the firm entirely.

I put into the firm all the money I could raise, about $20,000, which was an entire loss to me. In addition to this and some other sums. Mr. Kendall borrowed $15,000 from Gen. Butler for the firm, with my consent.

The note given to Gen. Butler was signed Kendall & Dockery, and endorsed by Gen. J. C. Abbott, and Dr. R. J. Powell, both of whom were considered at the time men of means and responsible for their obligations.

I never had or handled one dollar of the money borrowed from Gen. Butler, nor did I represent to him that my father would endorse the note, nor do l know such statement was made by any one. I did say to Gen. Butler that the borrowing was all right and the note good. I thought it amply secured.

Mr. Kendall had the reputation of being a good business man. I entrusted the whole of the affairs of the firm to him and confided all my own money to his management. Disaster followed and, owing to the result, I was unable to meet my own obligations. But I have, from time to time, with a limited income derived from my farm, made good, as far as I could, the losses of my neighbors who had been forced to lose by the failure of the firm of Kendall &

Dockery. I have been unable to repay General Butler, but there is nothing in the transaction which I am disposed to conceal. I regret my inability to pay the debt. I have always regretted the fact. I again regret that political enemies, whatever the exigency of the times, have found it necessary to attempt the injury of my personal character, and I commit to your sense of justice the issue thus unwillingly forced upon me, feeling assured that those who know me will believe me free from wrong in the matter. In support of the above statement I respectfully refer to my neighbors, irrespective of party. They Journalism in Missouri.

The amenities of journalism are not strictly observed in the rural districts of Missouri. The Marble Hill Reflector refers to a rival as follows:

"The ignorant, contemptible, mean, sneaking, cowardly, self important, low-flung, dirty, outlandish, backbiting, self-styled 'politician,' dead-beat, whiskey bloat, backwoods bummer, log cabin child of misfortune, beer-inflated, big-headed, soft-skulled, overrated swamp In the county court yesterday, 'Squire | angel who claims to edit the swamp paper thinks the editor of the Reflector terribly ignorant. Let him look at the twenty-seven mistakes in his last issue: let him remember the 'blantant' in the issue before; and let him not forget that he used 'ardorous' for 'arduous in a leading local in his issue of August I'm gettin' a little sort ob jubous on dis 24th. I'm afeerd dar's more in it crawling, creeping viper; you dirty scum of the dirty, stinking, stagnated swamp; you mean, big jawed, slabsided, knock-kneed, bow-legged, ban-dered-shanked pup; lost, as you are, to honesty, to principle, to justice, to common decency, do you imagine you can rule God's country—the hills? Go back into the cesspool from whence you have crawled, and there remain. Don't come out of your den to abuse respectable people. Go to school, Kelly, and you may learn something yet."

Kelly's reply is awaited with interest.
