ollowed by consumption or diphtheria. No medicine has ever been discovered which acts so quickly and surely in such cases as PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER. The prompt use of this invaluable remedy has saved thousands of lives.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is not an experiment. It has been before the public for forty years, and is most valued where it is best known. A few extracts from voluntary testimonials PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for colds for the past twenty-seven years, and have never known it to fail in effecting a cure—L.S. CROCKER, Williamsville, N. Y.
For thirty years I have used PAIN KILLER, and found it a never-failing remedy for colds and sore throat.—BARTON SEAMAN.

I was suffering severely with bronchitis, and my throat was so inflamed I could scarcely swallow any food. I was advised to try your Pain Killer, and after taking a few doses was completely cured.—T. WILKINSON.

Dr. WALTON writes from Coshocton: Your Pain Killer, cures diphtheria and sore throat, so alarmingly prevalent here, and has not been known to fail in a single instance. This fact you should make known to the world.

Mirs. Ellen B. Mason writes: My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, high fever, and cold chills. So many children have died here, I was afraid to eall a physician, and tried your Pain Killer. He was taken on Sunday, and on Wednesday his throat was clear. It was a wonderful cure, and I wish it could be known to the poor mothers who are losing so many children.

Termination. ST. LOUIS, Oct. 13.—Col A W Slay-back, accompanied by W H Clopton, visited the editorial rooms of the Post-Dispatch yesterday noon to demand satisfaction of Col John A Cockerell for assaults made upon him in the columns of that paper. Slayback was shot and killed. John M McGuffin, business manager and Victor T Cole, foreman, at a late hour last night made a statement of what occurred in the room where the shooting took place. They say in substance that Slayback on entering the room threw his coat back and drew a revolver and advancing said: "Well, I'm here, sir." Then observing a weapon on Cockerell's desk he asked, "Is that for me?" to which Cockerell replied, "no, its for use only to defend myself." Slayback then said: "You are prepared to draw, then draw," and Cockrell answered, "I don't have to draw, I don't want to draw. Go away from here. I don't want anything to do with you." Slayback and Clapton meantime pressed forward and crowded Cockerell against the wall. Then they all got into a sort of a tussle, each having hold of the other. Cockerell being most crowded he asked McGutlin to take Slayback's pistol from him, and while he was trying to do so the weapon was discharged and Slayback staggered and in a moment sank to the floor. ----Washing out Sounders. Jeremiah S. Black being interviewed ent movement in Pennsylvania re-

by a newspaper man on the Independ-"It means washing out Saunders." "I do not understand you at all," said his interlocutor. "Then," said the judge, "I must tell you in a story. In the reign of Charles II. a dirty boy who seemed to know nothing about himself except that he had the name of Saunders, was taken from the gutters of Chancery lane, London, and set to keeping the door of an attorney's office. There he learned to read and write. He was made a clerk, and afterwards being admitted to practice, he became one of the greatest special pleaders in England He rose to be a sergeant, then a solicitorgeneral, and in process of time, attorney-general, the official head of the profession. All this while he stuck to the habits of dirt and dishonesty that he had contracted when a waif on the streets. He lived alone on Butcher's row, and was so filthy in his person that he broke out into running sores, smelling so badly that it was a martyrdom to sit near him in court. He did not pretend to have any moral principles. He even boasted of his personal uncleanness, and told young barristers that although he never was married it was not a fact to be denied that he had issue of his body. Nevertheless, he was tolerated and promoted by a corrupt ministry, which needed such services as he alone could render; for he had ability, wealth and impudence, a heart that feared neither God nor man. and a cheek that blushed at nothing. Altogether he was in their eyes a very grand party. At length, when they wanted an unscrupulous tool at the head of the judiciary to decide a most unrighteous cause in favor of the crown (Rex vs. the Corporation of London.) they made Saunders chief justice of the king's bench. Then the decent men of the law determined that they would stand him no longer unless his habits were reformed. They washed him by main force, cleaned him up, compelled him to wear the apparel of a gentleman and to live in a respectable part of the town. But cleanliness was fatal shall and Lear and Mitchell and Mcdeclare that they have endured as much They will not suffer the martyrdom of sponges and towels and a whole suit of good clothes, determined to wash it and dress it in spite of its cries and struggles. They do not mean to kill it, but perhaps like Saunders, it cannot survive the loss of its filth. At all eventsits friends and guardians, and those who live by its bounty, protest violently that the cruel Independents will be the death of it if they succeed in making it clean.' The Next House. The New York Times is gloomy in regard to the probable political complexion of the next House of Representatives. It says editorially: "The result of the Ohio election is not a cheerful omen for Republican ascendancy in the next House of Representatives, and it is not safe to conclude that it is in no degree attributable to the short-comings of the present Congress. In the present House the Republicans have a majority of about 20, counting with them the two Virginia Readjusters and the four Greenbackers, whose antecedents and general proclivities are distinctly Republican. The increase of membership would not materially affect the balance of parties in the absence of a distinct change of sentiment of the several States, but the changes in Ohio alone represent a loss of the whole of the present majority. The small gain already made in Maine is fully offset by the loss of members in in New Hampshire and vermont, and there is only the gain of one member. possibly two, in West Virginia, to set against the Ohio losses. Moreover, the chances for further losses in Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Indiana are anything but reassuring." Church yard coughs can be cured by Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar.

NEW NOTES.

The Archbishop of Tuam has forbidden clergymen of his diocese from taking part in the national conference. A dispatch from Athens says that the difficulty between Turkey and Greece is considered at an end.

Hon. Montgomery Blair was nominated for Congress Thursday by the Democratic convention of the Sixth Maryland district.

Circulars issued by "matrimonial associations" in Nashville, Gallatin, and other places in Tennessee, have reached the dead letter office and will be destroyed.

The Delaware State Temperance Alliance has addressed letters to the legislative candidates of both parties asking them if they will advocate local option if elected.

Silver ore, mixed with copper, assaying 75 per cent. of silver, it is reported has been discovered in the bed of Panther creek, near Secor, twenty miles from Bloomington, Ill. It is reported that 1,000 pounds have been already taken out.

It has been asserted that certain clerks employed in the office of the Gas Trust, Philadelphia, have during the past six years embezzled large sums of money. At a meeting of the finance committee of the Gas Trust Thursday jority. Kenna, Democrat, Fourth district, is elected. The Democratic maan examination of the books was or-

In the session of the tariff commission at Wheeling Thursday, representatives of the glass manufacturing interest asked an increase of duty on cutglass, glass chimneys and opal shades, and a continuance of the present duty on pressed glass. Representatives of the fire-brick interest asked an increase of duty from 20 per cent. ad valorem to $6 per thousand.

At the meeting of the new board of directors of the Western Union Tele-graph Company Thursday the following were elected: Dr. Norvin Green, president; Gen. Thomas T. Eckert, vice-president and general manager; Augustus Schell, John Van Horn and Harrison Durkee, vice-presidents; D. H. Bates, acting vice-president and general manager; J. B. Van Eveny, acting vice-president. The other officers hold over. The public prosecutor at Long Branch N. J., has brought a criminal charge against J. H. Corry, keeper of the Bellevue Hotel, on the charge of having extorted money from Cyrus W. Field, Jr. Judge Scudder charged the grand jury that the hotel was represented to have been kept in an unhealthy condition, causing disease among the guestss, and that the manager, Corry, through threats, extorted large sums from his guests. Mr. Field's brother in-law contracted fever at the hotel, and the proprietor threatened summary removal at night.

How Cartooning Pays. A correspondent in New York writes: "There is a capital fellow who sprang into fame very suddenly," a friend of mine remarked the other day as Joe Keppler, the caricaturist of Puck, passed. "A few years ago he was working hard and making a scant living by writing for the St. Louis papers. Some of Frank Leslie's folk's, seeing a rough election cartoon of his offered him $100 a week to come to New York, which he accepted eagerly. Soon after he came here he started "Puck," Schwartzman, his partner, furnishing the money Puck, which was the only German comic paper of any sort of ability in this country, sprung into popularity with its first issue and immediately became a well paying investment. The cartoons, being bold and attractive, be-came so popular with the Americans that the partners decided to publish an English edition. The result was that in less than a month the English translation doubled the German edition. It now has over 65,000 copies in circulation in English and 15,000 in German. Now each of the partners draw $1,000 a week besides improving the property and leaving a surplus to make up a re-serve fund. Keppler's rock and tree faces in the Hancock and Haves campaign gave him a reputation that made him the rival of Nast." By the way, Tom Nast is getting to be one of the richest newspaper men in this country. He has been getting $250 a week from the Harpers for ever so long, besides what he has made by outside work and in the lecture field. He is without any extravagant habits and has saved his money. Matt Morgan, who is probably the most cultivated caricaturist in this country, and who was brought over from England by Frank Leslie to compete with Nast in the Greeley campaign has abandoned the profession and settled down in Cincinnati. He gets $200 a week from a large show printing house and is building a $40,000 house

Two Washington Lawvers Sold. Washington Republican. Weather in Central Europe.

Owing to the weather the state of Central Europe is in a more melancholy condition than it has been for many years. The whole of Northern Italy is more or less under water, the Simplon and Splugen are blacked by the snow that has fallen, and the latter lies a foot deep in all the Swiss cantons excepting only those of Vaud and Geneva. The cattle are lying dead on the hills, the wine crop immediately north and south of the Alps will have no actual existence this year, and what would have been the winter's hay is buried beneath the snow.

From eminent W. L. Almon, President Medical College, Halifax, N. Many wonder how Prrker's Ginger Tonic can perform such varied cores, thinking it essence of ginger, when in fact it is made from many valua-ble medicines which act beneficially on every dis-

The Enormous Size of London.

London has a larger population than many a European state with a sovereign and a parliament. At the census of 1881 the area of metropolitan taxation and police contained 4764 312 persons. Thus there are in London more than double the number of people in Denmark, including Greenland; nearly three times as many as in Greece; more than eighteen times the population of Montenegro; some thousands more than Portugal, including the Azores and Madeira; nearly treble the population of Servia; more than double that of Bul garia: three quarters of a million more than in Holland; more than Sweden or Norway or Switzerland. And yet this plendid capital, the most populous and wealthy city the world has ever seen, is practically without a government.

Three Comets in the Sky at Once.

The notion that the new comet discov ered by the Athenian astronomer is a fragment of Crull's comet-our Aureola Austrolia, or Southern Oriole-is looked upon by Prof. Frisby, of the Naval Observatory, with suspicion, inasmuch as the discoverer's announce ment that it is distant four degrees from the latter is equivalent to saying it has gotten 8,000,000 miles from the parent body. That is hard to believe. A fragment could hardly get so far away in so short a time. Further advices, however, showing that the new comet's orbit crosses that of the old, may enable us to locate the scene of the "bust up. The Athenian and the Barnard comets' are both of telescopic size, so that all speculation as to their past and future will be confined mainly to the astrono-

Not a Whit Better.

It is the vicious and demoralizing interference of the national administration in New York and Pennsylvania that is one of the things complained of in those States. If the Republican party in two of the largest States of the Union has become incorrigibly corrupt, the Republican party of the Union cannot be much better.
