"Democracy is a sentiment not to be appalled, corrupted compromised. It knows no baseness it cowers to no danger ; it oppresses no weakness ; it is destructive of despotism; it is the sole conservator of liberty. labor and property; it is the sentiment of equal rights, of equal obligations, the very laws of Nature teself pervading the land."

"I know no safe depository of the ultimate powers "of society but the people themselves; and if we think "them not enlightened enough to exercise their control "with a wholesome discretion, the remedy is, not to take "it from them, but to inform their discretion by edu "cation."-THOMAS JEFFERSON.

FRIDAY, NOV. 10, 1882.

Grant says he is out of politics and will probably stay out.

Perhaps Mr Conkling thinks it as well to be out of politics just now.

Felton and Speer, independent candidates for Congress in Georgia are both beaten.

If Guiteau were in postal communication with Washington he would probably drop a line to Mr Arthur.

They are now making billiard balls, pipes, &c., out of Irish potatoes. The pipermade out of it is said to resemble and to be equal to the meerschaum.

If there is anything for which the American people have a supreme contempt, if ballots be any indication, it is a President whom the bosses own.

Let the Democracy now so use the glorious victory it has won as to retain the confidence of the people and insure future victories.

In 1880, in the last important election in Pennsylvania, the vote stood as follows: Republican, 444,704; Democratic, 407,428; Greenback Labor, 20,-668; Prohibition, 1,939.

for years broke lose all at once and swept everything before it.

Such a revolution cannot be accounted for on any ordinary hypothesis. It is no question of national policy, tariff or no tariff, protection or no protection. It goes deeper than that, for the people were divided on these questions and they did not become issues in the caripaign at all.

It is the first instance in the political history of the country when the issue was made square between the bosses and the people, the bosses headed by the Arthur administration, and the people led by leaders of their own choice. While it is a Democratic triumph in fact it is more than that, it is a triumph of thepeople who fell into line and marched under Democratic standards, because they felt that in the triumph of the Democratic party was the only hope of crushing out the bosses who have been dominating the country and running the Republican party as a close corporation for their own use and benefit. When Guiteau's bullet which was the result of the conflict between the stalwart and anti-stalwart wings of the Republican party, placed a tool of the most arrogant of the bosses in the vacant presidential chair, the better element of the Republican party began to see the necessity of a revolt, and have been moving in that direction ever since. It took all of Blaine's personal influence and popularity to prevent a break in Maine, and when the battle began in Ohio, in October, it was evident that the day of retribution was at hand, and it came Tuesday with such CHICAGO, Nov. 9.- The returns up to ported on the streets in Charlotte that Wilkes county had given 1,200 to 1,400 majority for Dr. York in the seventh Congressional district. In reply to a request for a special dispatch from Statesville late last night we got the following: STATESVILLE, N. C., NOV. 9, 10, P. M.

MORE DEMOCRATIC VICTORIES AND THE FIGURES STILL GROWING.

RICHMOND, Oct 9-Nothing more definite has been received as to the election in Virginia than was embodied in yesterday's dispatches. It is impossible to hear from the remote counties, in the 1st and 9th districts. Large Democratic gains are reported in the latter, but not enough to elect Fulkerson over Bowen, Coalitionist. The first district is very close, and full returns will have to be received before the election is decided between Garrison, Democrat, and Mayo, Coalitionist. In the 7th district the official figures will be required to decide between O'Ferrall, Democrat, and Paul, Coalitionist. If Paul is returned, O'Ferrall will contest his election on the ground of fraud, of which he claims to have ample evidence. Libby, Coalitionist, in second district, is elected by nearly thirty thousand majority. Geo. D. Wise's majority in the 3d district is 2,800. Hooper, Coalitionist, in the 4th district, is elected by about nine thousand. Cabell, Democrat, in the 5th district, has an estimated a majority of 1,500. Tucker, Democrat, in the 6th district, has an estimated majority of 2,000. Barbour, Democrat, in the 8th district, has over 5,000 majority. Democrats are still hopeful of the election of Massey as Congress men at Large, and are sanguine of having six other Congressmen, while the Coalitionists claim that John S. Wise is elected by from 5,000 to 10,000, and that they have secured four district Congressmen. Illinois.

o'clock, p. m., indicate that the Congressional delegation will be evenly divided, as follows: Democrats-2nd district. Finerty, 8th Haley, 11th Neece, 12th Riggs, 13th Springs, 16th Shaw, 17th Moulton, 18th Morrison, 19th Townshend, 20th Murphy. Republicans-1st district Dunham, 3rd Davis, 4th Adams, 5th Elwood, 6th Hitt, 7th Henderson, 9th Payson, 10th L F Cannon. 14th Rowell. This shows a republican loss of 3 and a democratic gain of 4. Owing to the accession of a new district the democrats admit a doubt about Haley's election in the Sth and republicans do not concede Murphy's election in the 20th district. The control of the State legislature on joint Reports are conflicting, but we are allot is now in doubt with chances in satisfied here that Robbins is elected favor of the democrats. P. C. C. The K y-Stone State means that there is an irrepressible conflict between tyranny and freedom, and one or the other must succumb. So there is between health and disease. Every force that lights successfully against disease should be heartily welcomed. Such of the a heart in trails heartily welcomed. Such a force-a host in itself - is Hunt's Remedy, and its special line of attack is sguitst kindly and live diseases, over which it achieves a wonderful triumph. If you have bodily weakness, an aching back, a general sense of weathess, an aching back, a general sense of w-ariness or inertia, or dropsical symptoms: if the kidneys or liver are deranged, there is no such m-dicine as Hunt's Remedy. It gives notice to all such diseases to quit. Pennsylvania is right; both Hunt's Remedy and these diseases can't sur-vive, and it is they that are conquered.

The telegraph announced the startling fact that President Arthur voted in New York city at 3 o'clock and 40 minutes in the atternoon. Had it not been for the telegraph we probably should never have known precisely at what time he voted. It is an exceedingly important matter and we are glad it has become a matter of record for future generations.

Gen. Butler had a narrow escape from drowning on Friday evening. He was on his way to Lawrence, Mass., when the steamer ran on a rock. He and several others got in a small boat, but the current was so swift that the boat was carried under the wheels of the steamer and was partially swamped. The deck-hands managed to haul the General back to the steamer with a banged-up hat and a thorough ducking, and now the boss Radicals of Massachusetts are wishing those deck hands were somewhere else about that time.

DEATH OF DR. B. CRAVEN, PRES-IDENT OF TRINITY COLLEGE.

We are pained to announce the death of Rev. Dr. Braxton Craven, President of Trinity College, and one of the leading men in the State of North Carolina. As announced in the Raleigh papers he died at his home Tuesday night while sitting in his chair. He was complaining during the day, and was too unwell to go to the polls, expressing deep regret that he could not vote. His end wasisudden and startling. His death will cause profound regret throughout North Carolina. Braxton Craven was born in Randolph county, August 26, 1823. He was raised a farmer boy and trained to hard work. From boyhood he had to think for himself, and guide his own destiny. He received A B from Randolph Macon College; A M from the University of North Carolina; D D from Andrew College, Tenn.; and L D D from the University of Missou-

WITHOUT A PRECEDENT.

The result of Tuesday's election is without a precedent in the political annals of this country, for the uprising is confined to no particular State nor section, but is witnessed from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from the Lakes to the Gulf.

States which have been almost solidly Republican for the past twenty-two years have been completely revolutionized, while others which have also been solidly Republican for the same period send divided delegations to Congress. Pennsylvania, which has not had a Democratic Governor in twenty-five years elects a Democrat by an overwhelming majority and defeats a Republican candidate who personally stood well and was highly regarded. The majority which is conceded to Cleveland in New York is phenomenal and nearly doubles the greatest majority ever given to any candidate of any party in any State.

Kansas, which since her admission into the sisterhood of States never had a Democratic Governor, elects a Democrat. We mention these cases to illustrate the scope of the revolution which has taken place, while in every former Republican State heard from there have been great Democratic gains.

As we remarked above it is an uprising without a precedent and a rebuke at the same time to the party in power without a parallel. It seems as Speer, term expired.

The Evening Post's Cotton Market Report says: Future deliveries followed in the course of the last few months, namely: first higher, then a loss of the advance and a subsequent further decline of several points. A decline of 25%c for spot cotton without any reaction has, to our knowledge, never been witnessed before. At the first call buyers paid an advance of 1 to 2 points, and after the call another advance of 1 to 2 points, then a downward movement commenced, reducing prices at 1.40 p. m., 7 to 5 points below ; esterday's closing quotutions.
