Medical. Diphtheria.

A cold or sore throat may not seem to amount to much, and if promptly attended to can easily be cured, but serious danger follows by consumption or diphtheria.

No medicine has ever been discovered which acts so quickly and surely in such cases as PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is not an experiment. It has been before the public for forty years, and is most valued where it is best known.

A few extracts from voluntary testimonials read as follows:

"PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for ails for the past twenty-seven years, and I have never known it to fail in a single case."

"For thirty years I have used PAIN KILLER, and found it a never-failing remedy for colds and sore throat, and consider it the best medicine ever offered."

"I have recovered from a very severe cold, which I have had for some time, and could get no relief until I took your PAIN KILLER, which I took in the usual way, and I am now again in the enjoyment of good health."

"I have used PAIN KILLER in my family for forty years, and have never known it to fail in a single case."

"I have used PAIN KILLER in my family for forty years, and have never known it to fail in a single case."

To Keep Pork Fresh.

The Lambert Robesonian thus tells how Mr. George W. Jones, of Bladen county, keeps his pork fresh.

He showed us a ham, which though 12 months old, was as good and sound as though right fresh—no signs of bugs or worms about it.

The plan for this preserving ham is very simple and we give it for the benefit of our readers as given us by Mr. Jones. First the pork is sufficiently salted, wash the ham clean and sprinkle with fine black pepper some dry day in February, before the flies and bugs get on the meat, wrap the ham in two common newspapers, then wrap them in large strong paper sacks, such as fancy grocers put up flour in, fold the sacks close round the ham and double the end down and tie tight with a string, hang them up and wait for use, and they will be all right, with no bugs nor worms on them.

Put Me in My Little Bed.

MUSIC—"Dead March in Saul."

Rise bloody shade, of slaughtered Sins arise! Like Banquet's father's spirit from the skies!

At Buzzard's Roost, in mournful numbers tell, How he'll travelled when condition fell!

Can sing "I've seen my fondest hopes decay," That not a sign of Robert "Davy" serene,

Is left to figure in the rooster's tale, And Charlie Walker's walked, so slow and lame,

While Schenck's meandering in his one horse bar, Is pondering, "Will I get my next month's pay."

These be the airs on which to tout your horn, A couple of the still-but now willborn,

That damned your parent to the Revenue, And the great credit of the National Fund,

Can't restore the many moribund, Nor all the weeps of your fair virgin boys,

But let us sing, and sing for the fray, As Matt exclaims, "Oh, Put me in my little bed."

NOON DISPATCHES.

Resignations Requested.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 23.—It is understood now that Mr. Breed has not resigned the position of assistant general manager and purchasing agent of the Louisville and Nashville railroad, but his resignation has been requested by the company.

It is said he will be relieved of the position of purchasing agent on December 1st, but will hold his other place until January 1st.

De Funiak's resignation will be accepted on the 1st of January, 1883. He will continue to be president of the Louisville and Atlanta road, which is being built under the auspices of the Louisville and Nashville company and expected to be completed in February, 1883.

It is not known who will succeed either in the places when vacated.

Meeting of Bondholders.

FRANKFORD, Nov. 23.—A general meeting of the bondholders of the Brunswick and Albany Railroad company, of Georgia, was held here yesterday.

The bonds represented amounted to $500,000. The agreement in accordance with proposals of the Brunswick and New York counsel was unanimously approved.

It was decided that the coupon certificates and coupons of 1872 and 1873, should be paid at the rate of one mark each.

Murdered his Brother for Some Wat.

PETERSBURG, Nov. 23.—A horrible murder was committed near Smith Cross Roads, in Mecklenburg county, a few days ago.

Alpheus Thomas Jones, and his brother Henry, both youths, quarreled over the distribution of a lot of walnuts, and subsequently the former shot the latter with a shot gun killing him instantly.

The murdered boy's head was torn almost completely from his body.

Eminent St. Louis physicians say: "Golden's Liquid Beef Tonic is a very agreeable article of diet, and particularly useful when tonics are required, as it is tolerated when other forms of animal food are refused."
