CHAS. R. JONES, Editor and Prop'tor. [ENTERED AT THE FOST-OFFICE AT CHARLOTTE, N. C., AS SECOND CLASS MATTER]

"Democracy is a sentiment not to be appalled, cor rapled compromised. It knows no baseness it consers to no danger; it oppresses no weakness; it is destructhe of despotism; it is the sole conservator of liberty, labor and property; it is the sentiment of equal rights, of equal obligations, the very laws of Nature iself pervading the land."

"I know no safe depository of the ultimate powers "of society but the people themselves; and if we think them not enlightened enough to exercise their control with a wholesome discretion, the remedy is, not to take "It from them, but to inform their discretion by edu "cation."—THOMAS JEFFERSON

SUNDAY NOV. 26, 1882.

The full returns from the State give Bennett for Congressman-at-large a majority of 448.

Mr. Caine, the Mormon delegate elect to Congress has but one wife. Can a man with but one wife be a proper representative of Mormondom?

First let Congress take off the taxes on the necessaries of life, and then if the tax on luxuries can be reduced, reduce it, but look after the necessaries Last Wednesday is said to have been the biggest day for stock transactions ever seen in the stock exchange in New York. Over 850,000 shares of stock changed hands within the five hours' session of the board. Politicians are beginning to discuss the probabilities of a call for an extra session of the Senate next spring. David Davis' time as United States Senator expires next March and that leaves the country without a Vice President unless an extra session be called to elect a President of the Senate.

Louisville Courier-Journal: "General Green B. Raum is now making some pretensions as a reformer. He has been giving his views to a newspaper correspondent, and we observe that he declares in favor of the control of primaries by the people and against boss manipulation. Raum himself is a veteran machine politician and spends more a straight fight and went it singlethan half his time away from his offi- handed. It shows that the Republican cial duties at Washington running the | party proper was stronger than the alpolitical machine in Illinois to promote his own chances in the Senatorial election." Gen. Green B. Raum is one of the most thoroughly unscrupulous partisans that ever held a responsible position under the government. He has run his department as a political machine. No election of importance has taken place in North Carolina since he has been commissioner in which he has not figured extensively.

THE INTERNAL REVENUE SYS-TEM.

The abolition of the Internal Revenue system is becoming a topic of general discussion in the press North and South. There is a remarkable unanimity of opinion as to the desirability of getting rid of the system as it now stands, though there is a difference of opinion as to the advisability of doing away with the entire tax. We quoted an article in yesterday's issue from the Louisville Courier Journal as indicative of following we quote from the Rome, Ga., Courier as indicative of public sentipublic opinion in Kentucky, and the ment in Georgia:

In our judgment, the chief object in desiring the abolition of the whole internal revenue system of the General Government is the getting rid of the host of officials who execute it, and whose constant conflicts with the people lead to many scenes of bloodshed and destruction of private property. Only yesterday we had an account of a disastrous affair of this kind in North Georgia-an account furnished by a revenue officer and giving his side of the story. The other side may make a material different showing. No matter which side is most to blame, these conflicts between Government officials and the people are exasperating and deplorable, and a system of taxation which occasions them should not be continued any longer than it is absolutely necessary.

It is not a desire for cheaper whiskey that makes the abolition of the system desirable. Indeed we doubt whether whiskey would be any cheaper. The people of the several States have found out how great a tax the commodity will bear, and they will increase their taxes as soon as the Government relinquishes its exaction. This will at once dispose of the objection of the temperance people to the cheapening of whiskey, and at the same time afford to the States an opportunity of making a much needed addition to their common school funds by taking the place of the Federal Government as a leaver taxer of intoxicating liquors. The sentiment of the people of Georgia and some other Southern States is certainly in favor of either the prohibition of the sale of whiskey or its taxation. We believe that they would impose the tax as soon as the Federal Government relinquishes it, and that they could manage its collection without any of the deplorable conflicts with the people that attend the operations of the internal revenue officials. For this reason, as well as to get rid of an army of useless officials to interfere in our State politics, we favor the entire abolition of the internal revenue system. Its abolition need have no effect whatever in preventing a material and much desired reduction of the tariff, for the revenue from the latter source would be increased, rather than diminished, by lessening duties which are now so high that they amount to prehibition, and thus cut of revenue. Reform in taxation demands both the abandonment of the internal revenue system and the reduction of the tariff.

COUNTY GOVERNMENT.

We hope it is not the purpose of the Statesville Landmark to misrepresent THE OBSERVER on this or any other question, and yet it does so by insinuation in its Friday's issue. It says:

THE CHARLOTTE OBSERVER has for months represented that the people of Mecklenburg were clamorous for a change, but in the recent election the Democratic party in that county made a splendid gain—nearly 500.

We claimed that it would be good policy in the Democratic party to eliminate this question by remanding it back to the Legislature. In other words asked the Democrats not to waver in their allegiance to the party, no matter how they might feel on this question. And they did so. All issues were sunk in the one grand effort to win Democratic success. Our battle was fought for principle, as wide and as broad as the platform of the Democratic party in North Carolina, "which was not wedded to any particular form of county government." We may remark, however, that if this were a sole issue before the people of Mecklenburg county the majority against is would be quite as large as the Democratic majority in the last

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25 .- The follow-set down for the first week in Decembelieve, be ready with a large number of witnesses and some new testimony.

It seems to me very important to the case and desirable in every aspect, that before that time the atmosphere which surrounds the case, officially, should be in some measure purified, that every one may know what I know so thoroughly, that the prosecution is in dead that end, I call your attention to certain facts, most of which are unknown to you. I address you because the statements I desire to call your attention to concerns persons in several distinct departments of the government.

The Marshal of the District of Columbia is undoubtedly in sympathy with the defendants and does not desire the government to succeed. Without going into furter details he, during the deliberately impugned by two postoffice inspectors in a report as to the certificases. It was only a question of gross carelessness or bad faith, as there was no doubt that both of them did the acts alleged. Mr. Ainger is the proprietor of a newspaper in Michigan. His name appears on it as such proprietor. Dursome months ago, to the case of Geo. E in the interest of the defendants and the detectives unblushingly did their work. One of them has admitted that under oath in court. Now I am quite aware that it is very difficult for you to act as to some of the matters to which I have called your attention. But as to some of them you can act and it seems to me the facts ought to be brought to your knowledge. You have tions of the womb, and proposes to so centrol the Menstrual Function as to regulate all the derange-ments and irregularities of Woman's MONTHLY SICKNESS. Its proprietor claims for it no other medical property; and to doubt the fact that this medicine does positively possess such controlling and regulating powers is simply to discredit the voluntary testimony of thousands of living witnesses who are to-day exulting in their restoration to sound health and happiness. Bradfield's Female Regulator is strictly a vegetable compound, and is the product of medical science and practical experience directed towards the benefit of SUFFERING WOMAN! It is the studied prescription of a learned physician physician whose specialty was WOMAN,
