SUPREME COURT DECISIONS.

Full Term, 1882. Reported for the Observer by Walton M. Busbee.

SMITH, C. J.: The complaint asserts that the plaintiff is owner in fee and entitled to the possession of the land described in the writ.

The court says: The issues as to the right to use the highway and make it to depend upon the single question, whether the user amounted to a partial or complete obstruction of the highway.

SMITH, C. J.: The court says: That a matter of public utility and material to the result is conclusively determined by the verdict and judgment when land is sought to be recovered as it would be if the recovery of personal property was the object of the action.

SMITH, C. J.: The case comes up on the defendant's appeal from the court overruling his exceptions to the report of the referee, who was appointed to ascertain the facts and report his conclusions thereon.

SMITH, C. J.: The referee finds that under the decree rendered in 1860 there was $416.10 due the defendant, Robt. Shields.

SMITH, C. J.: The court says: Conceding the points to be against the plaintiff, it is not only could, but should, have sought their relief by proceedings supplementary, still it was too late for the defendants to make their objection to the verdict.

SMITH, C. J.: The court says: The court is of the opinion that the defendant is entitled to the benefit of a plea in abatement upon a motion in arrest of judgment.
