Malaria, Chillis and Fever, and Billious attacks positively cared with Emory's Standard Cure Pills—an infailible remedy; never fail to cure the most obstinate, long-standing cases, causing no griping or purging; they are mild and efficient, certain in their action and harmless in all cases; they effectually cleanse the system, and give new life and tone to the body. As a household remedy they are unequaled. For Liver Complaint their equal is not known; one box will have a wonderful effect on the worst case. They are used and prescribed by Physicians, and sold by Druggists everywhere, 25 and 50 cent boxes. Emory's Little Gatharic Pills, best ever made, only 15 cents. Standard Cure Co., 114 Nassau street, New York.

- A Modest Suggestion. If the proud and scholarly State of Massachusetts, which puts so much Laifn upon every official State document, stamped upon it by its great seal would put a bottle of Hunt's Remedy on its seal instead, it would be briefer, and answer every purpose. There is a vigorous arm with a sword striking Latin blews, and an Indian shooting Latin rows. But Hunt's Remedy does more than this it strikes blows in Latin, English, French and German, and in every language, against the most insidaous and deally seemeds of the human frame, and shoots destructive arrows into disease. It specially wages war against kidney diseases, so common in our afflicted humanity; and cures allments of the kidners, bladder, liver, and urinary organs, and brings health again to the despairing. If Massachusetts doesn't wish to change its seal Hunt's Remedy would be a significant design for he seal of some new State.

If health and beauty you'd maintain. And keep your breath a perfect charm, Use SOZODONT with might and main; For it alone prevents the harm That mers a woman's teeth and breath And leaves her mouth as dark as death.

No Whiskey!

Brown's Iron BITTERS is one of the very few tonic medicines that are not composed mostly of alcohol or whiskey, thus becoming a fruitful source of intemperance by promoting a desire for rum.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is guaranteed to be a nonintoxicating stimulant, and it will, in nearly every case, take the place of all liquor, and at the same time absolutely kill the desire for whiskey and other intoxicating beverages.

Rev. G. W. RICE, editor of the American Christian Review, says of Brown's Iron Bitters:

Col. A. B. Andrews spent Sunday in the city, and left yesterday morning for Salisbury to attend a meeting of the board of directors of the Western North Carolina Railroad Company, held in that place yesterday.

The city ordinances prohibit the sale of fireworks within the corporate limits, but Zeke Johnston's advertisement elsewhere shows how the fireworks can be sold anyhow. Zeke has a good selection and plenty of them.

Edward Orr, a little ten year old son of Cap. Orr. died at the residence of his father near Sugar Creek church, yesterday morning, of diphtheria. The sympathies of the community are extended to the bereaved parents.

After the depot fire yesterday the Neptunes for a little exercise, and to test their engine, tapped the court house plug and threw water into the standpipe. They are good workers, the Neptune's are, and always do efficient service at fires.

The Richmond and Danville stockholders meet in Richmond to-day. The rumored changes in the management are denied by the knowing ones, and we learn from trustworthy sources that all the principal officers will be retained.

Pegram's lamp is the tonies thing in Charlotte. It was lighted up last night for the first time and the way the people took to that side of the street was worthy of remark. Inside the lamp gas jets are arranged so as to spell the name "Pegram's," and it is a pretty thing to be sure.

Robbed of $45.

Mr. B. F. Wiley, of Pineville, this county, had the misfortune to be robbed of his pocket book, containing $45, in the vicinity of the old Rock Island factory, Saturday night. Ann Ricketts, one of the sirens of the classic Buzzard Roost, is suspected of having committed the robbery. Ann, hearing that the police were after her, fled the city and has not been captured.

The Federal Court. His Honor, Judge R. P. Dick, arrived in the city yesterday, and will open the fall term of the Federal court this morning. Col. J. E. Judge Dick will be assisted by Chief Justice Waite, of the United States Supreme Court.

Capt. L. S. Clarkson had quite a lively time of it in his up trip Saturday on the C. C. & A. Railroad. notes of the fire bell, were raised out of bed a good deal earlier than they had meeting of the street committee this calculated on last Sunday morning. About seven o'clock the alarm was sounded and the fire companies made their way as rapidly as possible with their reels and engines through a cold drizzling rain and over streets that were covered with a slippery coating of ice, to the tall Sims & Dowd building on the corner of Trade and Church streets, almost opposite the court house, from which the smoke was lazily rolling. Four streams were soon playing in the burning building, though it was sometime before the location of the fire was known, so dense was the smoke throughout the house from second story to roof. The Horset firemen who carried the nozzle into the burning building had to hold their faces close to the stream so as to be able to breathe. The Pioneers Neptunes and all walked into the smoke right manfully, and their efforts soon began to tell. For a long time to outsiders nothing was known of the movements of the firemen inside of the building except now and then when one would rush to a window and empty himself of his load of smoke by blowing it from his nose and mouth. The four streams were kept playing for two hours, before the fire was extinguished. An investigation showed that the fire had started in a room on the second floor occupied by Mr. Ben Hahn, who is employed in Butler's jewelry store, ran up to the ceiling and then burned through the third floor and entirely across the building from one wall to another. The wa-ter came tumbling down the stairway in volumes sufficient to run a mill and drenched. Mr. L. J. Walker, who keeps a whole sale and retail stock of groceries on the first floor suffered heavy damage by water, nearly everything in the room being soaked. He is insured for $3,000 in companies represented by Capt. Fred Nash and Mr. R. E. Cochrane, and his the inspection of the underwriters to assess damages. The amount of damage done to the building is estimated at $1,000 and the loss is fully covered by insurance. The second floor was occupied by Maj. C. Dowd, and Col. J. E. Brown, law offices, and were dismantled of furniture and books by the crowd lodgers and all their property was removed to the street. Mr. Hahn lost a lot of clothing. The third floor was occupied as a lodge room by the Good Samar- | place. itans, and the mystic throne was burned and the other furniture damaged. The basement was occupied by Marshal McCord's bar room, and for an hour or two after the fire, the man who wanted a drink would have had to swim for it. Yesterday at noon the fire alarm brought out the department and the companies went rattling to the depot, where some cotton had become ignited at the compress, and they got there just in time to be ordered back. A truckman in rolling a bale into the compress ran over a match which instantly ignited the bale, and the flames were communicated almost immediately to two other bales. The compress and depot hands fell upon the burning cotton with buckets of water which were handy and soon had it extinguished. The cotton platform is filled with cotton from the R & D to the C C depot, about 2,500 bales in all, and it was a close shave from a repetition of the great cotton fire of April 1875. The wind was blowing directly across the platform and one fairly trembled to think what the result might have been. At Oates Brothers cotton factory fire occurred yesterday morning in the spindle room, but was quickly extinguished before any alarm was raised. It was caused by a hot box and the damage is confined to the burning of a small lot of cotton. A Crazy Man Servant. Albert Fipps, colored, has been in the employ of Mr. W. J. He was brought up town and put in the guard house over night and yesterday moraing was sent to the county poor house The man had always been a little weak minded, but the other day he came up town and got drunk on forty rod whiskey, and never had any sense after that, He is of the quiet, harmless sort of ma-

For Dyspepsia Costiveness, Chronic Diarrhœa, Jaundice, Impurity of the Blood, Fever and Ague, Malaria acaused by Derangement of Liver, Bowels and Kidneys.

SYMPTOMS OF A DISEASED LIVER. Bad Breath; Pain in the Side, sometimes the pain is felt under the Shoulder-blade, mistaken for Rheumatism; general loss of appetite; Bowels generally costive, sometimes alternating with lax; the head is troubled with pain, is dull and heavy, with considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of leaving undone something which ought to have been done; a slight, dry cough and flushed face is sometimes an attendant, often mistaken for consumption; the patient compliance and flushed face is sometimes an attendant, often mistaken for consumption; the patient complains of weariness and debility; nervous, easily startled; feet cold or burning, sometimes a prickly sensation of the skin exists; spirits are low and despondent, and, alshough satisfied that exercise would be beneficial, yet one can hardly summon up fortitude to try it—in fact, distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred when but few of them existed, yet examination after death has shown the Liver to have been extensively deranged.

It should be used by all persons, old and young, whenever any of the above symptoms appear. Persons Traveling or Living in Un-healthy Localities, by taking a dose occasion-ally to keep the Liver in healthy action, will avoid all Malaria, Bilious attacks, Diginess, Nausea, Drowsiness, Depression of Spirits, etc. It will invigorate like a glass of wine, but is no intoxicating beverage.
