INDUSTRIAL EXPOSITION.

INITIATORY STEPS TAKEN YES-TERDAY.

The Carolina Pair Association Resolution to Hold an Exposition Next November--- Meeting Adjourned to Next Sat-

Pursuant to the call of Capt. S. B. Alexander, President of the Carolina Fair Association, a number of the members of that organization met at the Court House yesterday, to discuss the question of holding an Industrial Expesition, in Charlotte next fall. There were present, R B Caldwell, Esq, one of the Vice Presidents, Latta C Johnston, Esq, treasurer, Chas R Jones, secretary, and a number of other members. But for the inclemency of the day it is believed that a full meeting would have been the result of the call, as considerable interest is already being manifested in the proposed enterprise. Mr R B Caldwell, Vice President, was called to the chair, and the secretary was directed to keep a record of the proceedings.

One of the matters proposed to be discussed, in the event that the Exposition was decided on, was of course, where the Exposition is to be held. The old Fair Grounds just south of the city are said to be so much out of repair that many members discard the idea of using that locality under any circumstances. Others there are, who think the present owner has acted arbitrarily towards the Association, preventing already the holding of at least two county fairs, and these would like to see some other place agreed upon. Others there are who are patrictic enough to want to see an Exposition which will be a credit to North Carolina, and who are willing to leave all the details either to a competent executive commit-tee, or to the Association itself, after the programme or plan, shall have been blocked out.

Knowing that this was one of the questions which would inevitably come up at the meeting yesterday, the secretary some days ago addressed a letter to S P Smith, Esq, 109 Pearl street, New York, the owner of the controling interest in the Fair Grounds, which was replied to as follows:

The letter was read by the secretary to the members present, It is published in full for the benefit of the members: NEW YORK, Dec. 18, 1882.

Chas. R. Jones, Esq , Secretary Carolina Fair Association, Charlotte, N. C. DEAR SIR:-Your favor of the 14th inst., received to day and I hasten to answer as requested. I have noticed a called meeting of the Carolina Fair Association by Capt S B Alexander, President, to be held on the 20th, for the purpose of discussing the propriety of holding an Industrial Exposition in Charlotte next fall, at which meeting you say "the subject of the old Fair Grounds will come up," and desiring to know "on what terms the Grounds can be had" for that purpose?

I will state in the beginning, that so far as I am concerned, I will do (as I have always done), anything I can to forward the interests of the people of my native county and State; and that l look with great favor upon the enterprise proposed. There is an increasing disposition on the part of capitalists from abroad as well as in the North, to invest fargely in Southern enterprises and development, and if you can make the Exposition a representative exhibit of the wealth and resources of each of the Southern States and especially of the Piedmont region, you will do much to attract capital and enterprise in the establishment of many important industries and manufacturing schemes, as you well know. In my opinion you should make the Exposition as broad and comprehensive as possible-not local, but sectional, in the sense of presenting to the world, the many opportunities and advantages in the Southern States for the employment and profitable use of capital. Each State should be asked to establish a Hall of Industry, &c., at Charlotte, (at the expense of each State) for the exhibit of its own products, &c. Charlotte is most fortunately located for such a purpose, being as it is on the great thoroughfare between the North and South and in a most healthy region and easily accessible from all points East and West and nearly equi-distant from the coast from Norfolk to Savannah. There is no better location in the South for such an Exposition as you propose. I wish you therefore the ful-lest measure of success, will do what I can to promote it, and to that end I will, in answer to your enquiry, say that if your association desires to use the old fair grounds, so far as I am concerned, you can do so upon liberal terma -and I have no doubt the other stockhelders will meet you in a like manner. I have authorized Cel. A. B. Springs, of Charlotte, to represent us, and will be pleased to entertain a proposition from your association for the use of the grounds mentioned, and would like you to take immediate possession.

o take immediate pours truly;
S. P. Smith, After some discussion on the subject of the letter, Circs R Jones offered the following resolutions, which were

Resolved, That it is our opinion, that an Industrial Exposition should be held in Charlotte, under the auspices of the Carolina Fair Association during the month of November, 1883,

Resolved, That we invite the people of Charlotte as well as the citizens of Mecklenburg and surrounding counties to co-operate with, us, in this enter-

Four charges were preferred against Geo E. Rice, ex-president of the Utica, Ithaca and Elmira Railroad, at the Tombs Police Court in New York Monday by Henry S King, of London, England—one for embezzlement, two for forgery, and one for larceny. The embezzlement consisted in having pledged false certificates of stock of the road. The charge of larceny alleges conversion to his own use of $10,000 belonging to King. In default of bail, Rice was locked up in the Tombs.

Durham Plant: A little colored girl about two years old was badly burned a few days since. Her mother went out of the house for a few moments, and hearing the child scream, ran in and found its clothes in a blaze.

A few days since Mrs Geo W Watts was sitting before the fire writing. Before she was aware of it, her dress was in a light blaze and it spread rapidly. She had the presence of mind to gather the rug and arrest the progress of the flames. She did not succeed, however, in extinguishing the fire till she ran down the steps to the kitchen and secured the assistance of the servants. The only think that saved her was she wore a silk dress, which does not burn very rapidly. We are glad to learn Mrs Watts escaped unhurt.

Dorsey in Print Again.

Despite his ill-health and inability to be present in court, ex-Senator Dorsey, one of the defendants in the star-route trial, has given to the public a batch of letters which he received from Gen. Garfield and others in 1880, most of which were written pending the can-vass in Indiana, and which Dersey, as secretary of the republican national committee, conducted in person. These letters show that Dorsey enjoyed the fullest confidence of Gen Garfield and all the recognized republican leaders, and that they awarded him the warmest praise for his services during the campaign. In one of the letters of Gen, Garfield he referred to the large vote of the Disciples in Indiana, which has the Disciples in Indiana, which, he thought, could be secured for the republican ticket, provided proper attention was shown them. The correspondence further shows that Mr. Levi P. Morton, now United States minister to France, was very active in securing campaign funds, which were entrusted to Dorsey in full confidence that they would be put where they "would do the most good." The showing made by the publication of the correspondence is not creditable to any one connected with it.

John Tobin, who was once president of the Hudson River Railroad, a great stock operator, and reported to be worth at one time $5,000,000, was locked up for drunkness in New York one night last week, having been picked up in the streets in a destitute condition. He has been a wreck for years. He was formerly a wholesale liquor dealer, went from that into speculation, and became a great operator with Drew and Vanderbuilt during the war. At one time he withdrew his accounts from the banks and carried home $1,600,000, in greenbacks, besides other bonds and securities. When Harlem stock went up from $9 a share to $179 he made immense sums. Vanderbilt bought a controlling interest in Hudson River stock and deposed Tobin from the presidency. He met with great losses after 1866, his desperate fortunes declined, old habits grew worse, and in a few years he became the dissolute beggar he now is-a melai choly example of human folly ard
