DR. J. W. C. L. ALEXANDER

THE SENATORIAL QUESTION.

Ransom the People's Choice.

CHARLOTTE, Dec. 27. The people have spoken. Shall their voice be obeyed, or shall it be thwarted by designing politicians and the bosses?

A Friend of Mr. Dortch Speaks.

The recently published articles in the Standard, touching the election of the Hon. W. H. Dortch, are eminently fair and just.

HERRY SALISBURY.

Christmas Day and Night, and the Masked Ball.

SALISBURY, Dec. 27. 1882. The general character of this Christmas has not been in any living memory here, but to many its enjoyment was greatly marred by the racket and danger of incendiarious powder.
