[ENTERED AT THE POST-OFFICE AT CHARLOTTE, N. C., AS SECOND CLASS MATTER]

SUNDAY, MARCH 11, 1883. The Public Printer is quoted as stating that it will be necessary to purchase presses and machinery to the amount of $50,000 to complete the issue of the reports of the tenth census, now in course of preparation.

It would seem that the Indiana Legislature presents a fine field for temperancelecturers. A few nights ago one of the Seators offered a resolution of adjourment, giving as his reason that the members were so drunk that they were unable to properly attend to bus-

The legislative committee which has been investigating the removal of the warden of the Massachusetts State Prison, have quietly dropped the matter. It was discovered that the further the investigation of the charges, against the Governor went the case became more favorable for Butler and worse for those bringing the charges.

A public highway law has been put in force in Florida. Every citizen is compelled to perform the same duty, six days' work in each year, and a failure to perform the labor or pay the equivalent in cash, which the law fixes at 50 cents per day, is made a misdemeanor, punishable by fine and imprisonment.

Richmond State: The distress in Ireland is very great, and calls for relief. The British Government, which has brought on this distress by its misrule of that country, should be the one to afford relief, and it is the shame of the century that it does not properly providelfor that nation, which has done so much for the glory of the British Empire.

Macon Telegraph: Mr Stephens is in his grave. Had the counsil of his real friends been heeded, he would probably be living in honored retirement at Liberty Hall. But, for all that, he sleeps the sleep of an honest man. He did not plunder the people. He did not get rich in office. The fact should never be

The former predicts that the question is settled for the next ten years, while the latter says the recent act is "hodge podge," and that "the next House will take up the matter and pass a genuina revenue reform bill."

People who send valuable articles wrapped up to resemble newspapers in order to save postage need never be surprised when they find that no trace of their gifts can be found. The ease with which such things are detected by postal clerks would astonish most people, and the articles are sent at once to the Dead Letter Office.

The representatives of the Greenback labor party in the Forty-seventh Congress have issued an address to the country, in which they say: "We hold that the Government can issue paper meney in the time of peace as well as in war, and should do so if the necessity of the people require such action. Money issued and used to build monuments of peace, thereby giving employment, to labor, would produce more lasting and beneficial results than money expended in war and the destruction of property."

The total discharge of the Mississippi during the flood of 1882 was 2,200,000 cubic feet per second, and it was then estimated that the Atchafalaya carried off one-sixth of the volume of the river. This year the Atchafalaya is discharging at the rate of 600,000 cubic feet per second, equivalent to 30 per cent, or nearly one-third of the volume of the Mississippi, having more than doubled its overflow since last year. Here is a danger that is threatening and immedi-

AN INTERESTING DECISION. The recent decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of the States of New York and New Hampshire against the State of Louisiana, to recover payment of special tax bonds which those States had purchased from individual citizens, or which, more likely, had been turned over by individual citizens to those States, is of interest to North Carolina as well as to Louisiana. In brief Judge Waite rendering the opinion says the suit instituted by those States places them simp y in the attitude of collecting agents for their citizens, which they could not become, and that one sovereign State | an equal footing with the foreign mancould not be sued by another sovereign | ufacturer, and which, while yielding the political campaign of last summer it was charged that if the Republicans, or Liberals, got into power there would be an effort made to recognize the validity of the $20,000,000 of repudiated special tax bonds, and that an effort would be made to get the case into the United States courts, and judgments rendered to compel their payment. There was some reason for this for it is well known that a number of these bondholders had organized a mutual protective association, and by assessment had funds raised to carry this question through the courts. Their programme was substantially that pursued in the case of the Louisiana bondholders, that is, turn over their claims by an understanding with the State. and have the State institute suit in the Federal courts for recovery. They had counted pretty confidently upon being able to do this, of course not then anticipating the adverse position that would be taken by the Supreme court. If a legislature had been elected which would have pronounced in favor of the validity of the bonds, while of no legal force, it was thought it might simplify matters somewhat and hold out the idea that they were going into the courts with a just and valid claim. At all events they had certainly made up at the next term of the United States their minds to test the matter in the courts, and put their States forward to stand in their shoes. But this decision the Supreme court interferes with that programme, and makes the special tax bonds a rather poor investment.

HOW FAR PROTECTION OUGHT

We clip the following remarks on the

The difference against the American gators. A tariff rate adding an average rate of 20 per cent. to the price of all imported manufactures would,

therefore, put the American manufacturer on an equal footing with his foreign competitor. The moderate protec-

This is substantially Hon Abram S

Notwithstanding the high tariff protec-
