At the great Centennial Exhibition of 187d, the leading products of all the branches of the World's Industry were assembled at Philadelphia. To carry off a prize in the face of that tremendous competition was a task of no ordinary difficuly. Inventions and preparations for the alleviation of pain and the cure of disease were present in the greatest possible varie'y, representing the skill and he profoundest study of the age, and it may be of vita' importance to you, personally, to know that the highest and meda given to rubber Porous plasters, was awarded to the manufac ur ers of BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER, by the following jury:

The decision was afterwards confirmed by the medical jury at the last Paris Exposition. Knowing the value of such high and unbiased testimony, the medical profession, both in the United States and Europe, quickly threw aside the old, slow-actin plasters they had been using, and ado; ted Benson's in their regular prac ice. That physicians and surgeons of the broades reputation did this, distinctly proves the intr nsic merit of the article.

It is no more than just to add that the average physician of to-day is not dominated by the prejudices which retarded the progress and modified the success of his predecessors of not more than twenty-five years ago. He accepts hints from all quarters and endorses and adopts demonstrated healing agents wherever he finds them.

Charleston News and Courier. COLUMBIA, March 19 .- The seventeen Democrats from Monticello, Fairfield county, whose examination was so abruptly stopped a fortnight ago by Willard in order to give the prosecution time to rake up new witnesses, came down on the train this evening and are awaiting further examination to-morrow. On the train with them came some twenty negroes who had been secured by the scouring of Fairfield. The negro circuit rider, Dave Screven, for whose testimony alone the Government officers professed to get the cases continued, secured a number of these witnesses by calling from his church for volunteers to come here and testify against the Democrats. Thus urged some negroes volunteered to swear and they are here. The negroes in a gang repaired on the arrival of the train to the United States court house, where they waited until nearly 9 o'clock to-night for Snyder or Willard to meet and instruct them in their roles for the morrow. As both of these worthies dislike to walk at night they did not come, and the negroes finally dispersed The effect of this first failure to drill will be observable in their testimony. They are the rif-raf of Republicanism in Fairfield, the prosecuting officers having abandoned white witnesses as over scrupulous. The persecuted Democrats, accompanied by Mr. Gaillard and Col. Woodward, are at the Grand Central Hotel. Not a man is missing. Among them are a member of the present Legislature, a member of the last House and a colored Democrat.

At the close of the service yesterday at the Methodist Episcopal Church South at Monticello a conference was held and resolutions were unanimously adopted to the effect that after a critical investigation of the assertion made by one Martin (the first Greenback witness in this Monticello case) that Mr. J T. Magill, one of the defendants, swore and drank at the polls, the church affirms that no one in the community ever heard Brother Magill swear or knew him to take a drink of liquor, and the church exonerates him from this vile slander. The church furthermore commends Brother J M Kirkland, Jas Magill and J T Dawkins, also defendants in the case, to the sympathy of the public. They are, the church affirms, among Fairfield's best and most law abiding citizens and high-toned Christian gentlemen, Brother James Magill being a class leader and Sabbath school superintendent and Brothers Kirkland and Dawkins two of its most promi nent stewards.

This declaration adds to the proof that the best and most active Democratic citizens of Monticello were brought into this case with the intention of distressing and bullying the community.

Synder says that a Democratic detective in the employ of the government is at work in the lower part of the State getting cases against Republican negroes for violating the election law? We will see.

The Channel Tunnel Still Under Discussion

The project of a tunnel under the English channel was thought to have been buried by the unfavorable report made upon it by General Wolseley and other distinguished personages, civil and military, but it is tenacious of life, and is now said to be occasioning a division in the English cabinet. The practibility of its construction is thought to be demonstrated, and its utility from a commercial point of view is obvious, But it is feared that the construction and financial success of one submarine road would lead to the construction of many others, and -what is of most importance-destroy that insular character upon which Englishmen rely for security from invasion.

last of these cases is that of Col. F. H. Archer, Democrat, and T. J. Jarratt, readjuster, claimants of the mayoralty of this city. Jarratt was elected mayor at the last municipal election, but being a member of the city council at the time and failing to qualify for the mayorality his right to the office was contested by Archer. The case was taken to the court of appeals of Virginia, and by agreement neither of the parties atcempted to hold court. The court of appeals has just decided that Jarratt was legally elected mayor and he will enter upon the discharge of his duties probably on Monday next.

Arrested.

A white man, a stranger in this city, who gives his name as Wm. Crawford. was arrested yesterday morning, on a warrant issued by Justice Gardner, charged with offering for sale on the streets an article which he claims possesses the properties of "winning women" and "attracting money." The article resembles red led in appearance, and is wrapped in tin foil. In off-ring it for sale he charged one dollar for a piece about one and a half inches.

The defendant, in default of bail, was committed to await a hearing at 3 o,clock at which time he was arraigned before Justice Gardner, who, after hearing the testimony, reserved his decision until this morning, and in the meantime he was remanded to jail.
