Having passed several sleepless nights, disturb ed by the agonles and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Snotoing Syrup was just the article needed, pro-cured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homosopathy. It is night the child pa sed in suffering, and the parents without steep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still worse; and while contemplating, another sleepless night, the mother stepped from he room to attend to some domestic duties, and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a por-tion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the sudden and wonderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has con-tinued to use the Syrup, and suffering crying bables and restless hights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet talled to relieve the haby, and overcome the prejudices of the mother.

Political Excitement in Danville.

From passengers who arrived in the city on the Richmond and Danville train vesterday. we learn that the state of affairs in Danville over the political situation is exciting, and that they are having hot times. The colored office holders in the city made a requisition upon the government for troops to protect them from violence, and a company of soldiers are expected to arrive in Danville from Washington City to-day. From this information we would infer that they are having lively times in the city on the Dan.

THE SYNOD CLOSED,

And Our Northern Visitors Cone Home .. Some Proceedings of the Session. The Potomac Synod of the Reformed Church closed its annual session at Newton on Monday night. Sunday night a mission service was held and enthusiastic addresses were delivered. Dr. Santee, of Maryland, spoke on foreign missions, Rev. Clever, of Baltimore, Cort, of Pennsylvania, Carnahan and Whitmore, of Virginia, on home missions. Dr. Walker set forth the field open in North Carolina.

On Monday by special invitation the synod in a body visited Catawba High School, under the management of Revs. Clapp and Foil. Col. McCorkle, as President of the board of Catawba College, welcomed the synod and was responded to by Rev. C. J. Mussen, Chairman of the Committee on Education. Other members of the synod responded in a happy vein and the success and prosperity of the institution were laud-ably commented on. The synod also took favorable action in regard to education and mission work among the colored race. As a token of the favorable impression made on the synod by Dr. Welker's statements and hearty welcome they received at Newton fifteen hundred dollars were voted to church extension in the South, $500 of which goes to Concord mission, $1,000 to Roanoke, Va. The majority of the members took the train for home on Monday night, carrying happy remembrances of their first visit to the South and leaving sunny recol-lections in the minds of their generous host of friends.

Cone Up for Five Years.

W. R Swinson, alias King, alias Bonbright, the young man who was sent to the penitentiary from Mecklenburg for two years, but who was pardoned out by Gov. Jarvis, is again in grief. After receiving his pardon from the Governor, he came back to Charlotte and loafed around town for a while, finally leaving for Spartanburg, S. C. He had not been there long before he forged a check for $75 on McGowan & Co., endorsed by W.C.Cannon. His arrest for this offense was noted in this paper at the time. This week he was tried at Spartanburg, found guilty and sentenced to five years imprisonment in the South Carolina penitentiary.

A Supposed Train Rocker Arrested and Gives Big Bond.

Coroner Smith yesterday captured a negro named Elijah Gilmore, at Wolfe's crossing and carried him before Esq. W. L. Carpenter, at Mathews Station, to be tried on charge of rocking a train on the Carolina Central Railroad. One witness was produced who swore that another witness swore that he had heard Gilmore make threats of giving evidence sufficiently strong against Gilmore to bind; him over to the Inferior court for trial, and require a bond the bond and the prisoner was released. Coroner Smith is morally certain that he has the right man and that the Inferior court will convict him, in which event he will get $300 from superintendent Jones. Gilmore says that he can produce witnesses to clear him.

The Youthful Bridal Couple in Town.

Mr Robert Robinson and his bride nee Miss Jennie Costner, the young couple who ran away from their homes in Lincolnton and were married in Chester, are spending their honeymoon at the Charlotte Hotel, in this city. They arrived here day before yesterday from Chester and have remained quietly "at home." The young people do not belie their ages in appearances, and Mrs. Robinson is actually the youngest looking bride the reporter has ever seen-Their ages are 16 and 14 and they appear to be perfectly contented and hapbe in any hurry to return to Lincolnton $1.60. and says he will remain about two months in Charlotte. About a year ago they planned an elopement and were about to put it into execution, but were foiled by their watchful parents. The only objection their parents had to the match was the extreme youthfulness of the couple.

A Petition to the President.

Washington, Oct., 24.-A petition was presented to President Arthur to-day by Messrs. Horner and Grant of New Orleans signed by two hun dred merchants and bankers of that city, asking the President to examine into the matter of the Postmaster General to receive order against the Nat'l Bank, and if he finds it illegal and dangerous to the rights of citizens to direct its revocation. The President promised to give the matter early attention. This refers to the order issued by Postmaster General Gresham cutting off the national bank's mail on account of the bank receiving mail for the Louisiana State lottery company.
