GETTING TIRED OF IT.

D. C. Forney, of Philadelphia, a son of Col. John W. Forney, and a Republican, who has been traveling in New York, reports the apathy of Republicans in that State is at freezing point, and from all he could learn by conversation with intelligent people whom he met from Pennsylvania, Ohio and Massachusetts, the feeling among Republicans in those States is not much better. From the present outlook he sees nothing ahead of that party but defeat. He attributes it to the fact that the people have become dissatisfied with the leaders who have been running the party in their own interest, and for their own advancement and gain. This is true as far as it goes, but it don't go far enough. The people have become not only dissatisfied with the class of men who have gotten control of the party, but they have become dissatisfied with the policy of the party, and the utter impossibility of reforming the party and bringing it into accord with popular demands.

The fact is the people became tired of the Republican party several years ago, but it was kept alive by a peculiar combination of circumstances, the most potent of which was sectionalism, to which it is mainly indebted for its prolongation of life. Its leaders have resorted to every device that cunning or villainy could suggest, and when these failed they fell back on the sectional cry, and made the credulous masses believe that there was danger to the country in the restoration of power to the Democratic party, which would be under Southern or, as they liked to call it, "rebel" influence. But gradually this foolish fear wore out, and as it did the Republican leaders lost their grip, and State after State passed from their control. It is a notorious fact that outside of two or three States every victory the Republicans win now is won by the lavish use of money. When they lack money they are beaten. Gov. Foster said they were beaten in Ohio at the recent election for want of money, although it was said that a considerable sum had been sent into that State, but not enough it seems, to save them.

It yet has control of the national administration, with its vast patronage, its army of officeholders and employees, which will enable it to continue the fight for some time yet, but without which it would enter the next race without the shadow of a hope.

NEAL DOW GIVES UP THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

Gen. Neal Dow, of Portland, Me., has written a letter to Dr. Miner, in which he says:

"We have fully made up our minds to break with the Republican party in Maine, as you have done in Massachusetts.

You may perhaps know that during all these years I have entertained the hope of accomplishing our purpose, viz: the final suppression of the grog shops through that party as the easiest and speediest way of doing it. We have not abandoned all hope of that. The party here is in Massachusetts, Ohio, Michigan, New York, Connecticut, and many other States, is openly in league with the gigantic crime of crimes, and has now undertaken the task of defeating it against the will of the people. When I speak of the Republican party in Maine, I mean the bosses; the party now, as heretofore, is thoroughly against the liquor traffic. In this State we can easily overthrow this wretched rum ring as you have not yet been able to do in the old Bay State. The present is a particularly favorable time for carrying our great questions to the ballot box, since there is absolutely no question now up between the Republican and Democratic bosses except this, 'Keep them out, and turn them out.' That is what it is all about, and the importance of our election to the prosperity and happiness of nation. State and people is so great that it cannot be estimated by any process of computation now known to us. May God defend and prosper the right."

SPIDERS AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

At the White House yesterday afternoon the roof of the main portico was cleaned by throwing a stream of water upon it. The result was a perfect shower of spiders. Thousands of these animals of every species had collected under the eaves and in the nooks and corners, so that the roof of the portico was actually discolored by them. The water, sent with the force of a fire engine, brought them the stone floor below, and soon perhaps a million of them had almost covered it. All kinds of spiders—big spiders to little spiders, black spiders and green spiders, brown spiders and yellow spiders, rolled and tumbled and swam around in the water, which to them was a veritable flood of Noah. The spider most common is called the "President's spider." These spiders are as old as the White House, and have probably been there since that day where the majority of men fails to go. As evening drew on the spiders began to crawl back to their old homes, and for a time the marble pillars were so covered with them that they looked as though they were painted black.

MEETING OF THE BRITISH CABINET.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The cabinet met at noon. Earl Spencer, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland was present.

POST RATE NINETY YEARS AGO.

Now that the two-cent postage law has gone into effect, the following provisions of the first law of congress on the subject will be read with interest:

February 20, 1792, was the date of the first acts fixing rates of postage on domestic letters, and established the following rates to take effect June 1, 1792.

Act February 20, 1792, section 9, by land. For every single letter not exceeding 30 miles six cents.

For every single letter over thirty miles and not exceeding sixty miles eight cents.

For every single letter over sixty miles and not exceeding 100 miles 10 cents.

For every single letter over 100 miles and not exceeding 150 miles 12 1/2 cents.

For every single letter over 150 miles and not exceeding 200 miles, 15 cents.

For every single letter over 200 miles and not exceeding 250 miles, 17 cents.

For every single letter over 250 miles and not exceeding 350 miles, 30 cents.

For every single letter over 350 miles and not exceeding 450 miles, 32 cents.

For every packet weighing one ounce avoirdupois, to pay at the rate of four single letters for each ounce, and in that portion for any greater weight.

COULDN'T BE EXPECTED TO.

DETROIT FREE PRESS.

Two ladies entered a Fort street car one day recently and took seats beside a lady well known to one of them. She gave her friend an introduction and directly this one remarked:

"I think I saw you at the—street church one Sunday several weeks ago."

"Yes."

"You seemed to be as much disengaged with the sermon as I was, for I saw you terribly uneasy."

"Yes," again.

"Did you hear a worse preacher in all your life?"

"Well, perhaps."

"I never did, and I haven't been there since."

The conversation then rattled off on some other subject, and by the two ladies got off.

"I wonder why she didn't agree with me about that preacher?" queried the one who blasted him.

"Why, how could you expect her to? That's very same minister's wife!"

IT'S MAJORITY OVER ALL.

The full return from the Ohio election show that Hoadly, Democrat, not only has a majority of 12,529 over Foraker, republican, but he has a majority of 1,383 over his republican, greenback and prohibition opponents combined, and this despite the fact that the republican vote shows an increase of 50,000 over that of last fall. The total vote this year is 721,464, nearly 3,503 less than was cast at the presidential election in 1880. At that election Garfield's majority over Hancock was 34,227, the late election thus showing a difference in favor of the Democracy of 46,956. In the Senate the Democrats have elected 22 Democrats against 11 Republicans, and in the House 60 Representatives against 45 Republicans, giving a Democratic majority of 26 on joint ballot.

IT'S MAJORITY OVER ALL.

In the recent fair in Cecil county, Md., some fine Spanish chestnuts were exhibited by Mr. George Balderston, of Colora, who grafted some of our native trees with this variety a few years ago, and this fall raised a few quarts of them. They ripen some weeks in advance of our native chestnuts and sell in our cities for twenty-five cents per quart, which is about five times the ordinary price of our native fruit when it ripens a few weeks later. Farmers and others so situated as to be able to give their attention to raising chestnuts would do well to plant this variety, or probably what is better, graft their native trees with cuttings from the Spanish chestnut.

WOMAN IN POLITICS.

Canton, O. Report.

It appears that two Canton ladies were by the official count, found to have received votes for State offices one for Governor and the other for Lieutenant Governor.
