FACTS ABOUT THE CHILD.

Fact the First .- The life of a natural, healthy child is a joy to all who are in the house with him. A childless house is a dull place,

Fact the Second.-A healthy child is clastic, lively, and happy. A loca and alling child loses his sparkle, and goes about in a moning and journful manner.

Fact the Third .- There are so many dangers constantly lurking in the ray of small children that it is a wonder that any child escapes death an i lestruction.

Faci the Fourth .- Such dangers as falls, bruises, runaways, crushed ingers, dog bites, cuts, wounds, and the like are guarded a rainst with comparative ease.

Fact the Fifth.—Such dangers as those which proceed from malaria in the atmosphere, poison from badly-closed droins, defective sewerage, nd unwholesome food, come as a thicf in the plant, in help de all vigilance.

Fact the Sixth.-The diseases which dome to the child are mostly those which attack the digestive organs and the set. They must be met with active measures, by toning up the system and the set of the blood.

Fact the Seventh .- To arrest the troubles whe harould undermine the child's vitality and carry him down to death the reasoned ing like BROWN's IRON BITTERS. This is the great Iron medicine, which enriches and reddens the child's blood, tones up nerves, muscles, and stomach, and drives out disease.

Fact the Eighth .- The use of BROWN'S IRON DITTERS has restored thousands of children and brought them up almost from death's door. For this you may ask physicians and druggists. They know. This medicine is so gentle in its action that a child can take it without fear of injury, and with certainty of happy results. It is as efficient as it is gentle, and it is so pleasant to take that the mother has no trouble in administering it. 5

THE:

As the figures are produced from the different counties giving the result of the last election in Virginia, they show with emphasis how unfounded and grossly slanderous was Mahone's cold-blooded and base at- dent, Senator Isham G. Harris, of tack upon the people of that State. We published a few days ago an article from the Richmond Dispatch giving the aggregate vote at the last election as compared with the two previous elections, and showing the increase of the vote cast by both parties as an answer to the charge of intimidation. We herewith reproduce from the State of Tennessee, with a from the same paper an extract giving the official returns from a number of counties cspecially referred to by Mahone as counties in which intimidation and force prevailed. There is no answer to figures like these, which tell their own story with a force which volumes of writing could to obtain the reward which it was exnot increase. Thus the figures stand : In Pittsylvania county, in which Danville is situated, the Coalitionists, or we might say the negroes, there being only a few hundred white Mahoneites in that county, increased their vote from 2,895 in 1882 to 3,547 in 1883. In Henrico county, in which Richmond is situated, the Coalitionists in creased their vote from 1,481 in 1882 on the eve of accomplishment. to 2,162 in 1883.

In Halifax county, adjoining Pitt-sylvania, and one of the counties named by General Mahone as those in which the negroes had been intimidated, the Coalitionists increased their vote from 2.610 m 1882 to 2.985 and respectable couple were murder-ed here last night. Their son Arthur their vote from 2,610 in 1882 to 2,985 in 1883.

In Hanover, another of the counties named by General Mahone as the scene of violence and intimidation, the Coalitionists increased their vote from 1,008 in 1882 to 1,641 in 1883.

In the county of Charles City, another of the counties libelled by General Mahone, the Coalitionists increased their vote from 481 in 1882 to 611 in 1883.

In the county of Floyd, another county libelled by General Mahone, the Coalitionists increased their vote white men. Ward Groom, colored, from 668 in 1882 to 1,247 in 1883.

In the county of Augusta, another of the counties libelled by General Mahone, the Coalitionists increased their vote from 2,014 in 1882 to 2,249 in 1883.

In the county of Lee, another county libelled by General Mahone, the Coalitionists increased their vote from 732 in 1882 to 1,290 in 1883.

These are all the countie: except Charlotte named by General Mahone. In Charlotte the Coalitionist vote fell off from 1,237 in 1882 to 1,072 in 1883. least one Democratic negro club, and at every precinct a smaller or larger number of negroes voted the Democratic ticket.

Mahone was never suspected of fronted with cold facts and figures ent incumbent. like these.
