Congressman Horr hails from Michigan. Among other things he is remarkable for activity of jaw and loudness of speech. He has made himself somewhat conspicuous by his partisan rancor and aspires to be even more conspicuous than he is. He belongs to the bloody shirt fraternity and believes in it. His resolution introduced in Congress Friday asking the President to investigate the Danville riot for the purpose of ascertaining whether the men who were killed and injured were citizens of the United States, and if so, whether the killed and injured were killed and injured in violation of any of the laws of the State of Virginia or of the United S ates was of the bloody shirt order and inspired by bloody shirt influences. Mr. Horr knew that they were citizens of the United States, made citizens by the special legislation of the party of which Mr. Horr, is a shining, if not a brilliant light, and hence he . idn't need any additional information on that subject. He knew, too, that the subject had been investigated by reporters sent down by Republican papers who told all there was to be told, omitting showing that he had come through nothing in the way of coloring. THE RECENT RED SUSSETS.

Different Explanations by Astronomers of the Phenomenon. At a meeting of the American Astronomical Society, at the Packer Institute, Brooklyn, Mr. G. P. Serviss spoke on the recent red light in the sky at sunset. He said this phenomenon was seen in San Francisco as early as November 20, and subsequently in Havana and the Valley on the Mississippi. By the dates of its appearance in different parts it was supposed that the phenomenon had a progressive motion from west to east similar light had been seen Novem ber 9 and 10, and the descriptions of it showed that its origion was the same as that seen in America. Vari ous theories had been put forward in explanation of the phenomenon. Some suggested that a bank of clouds might have been so placed below the horizon as to reflect the rays of the sun downward toward the city. Others thought different densities in different layers of the atmosphere might act as banks of cloud and produce the red effect. This sasted at least an hour and a half after sunset, and in some cases two hours and a half. The same effect was seen before sunrise in Utica, Rochester and Buffalo, Mr. Serviss showed by a calculation that the reflecting matter was sixty-one miles above the surface of the earth. Consequently no matter could exist at such a height in sufficient quantity to produce the effect. He thought that the phenomenon was due to the fact that the earth was passing through clouds of meteoric dust.

We are often asked wherein, the great Empire of China, power really resides, and we believe the best short statement is this: Subject to certain immovable customs, the Emperor, in s capacity of father of the people can in the theory give any order, and an in practice punish with decapitation or exile any official or person who disobeys it. He is, in all serious affairs, however, obliged to consult. though not obey, a rather large group of princes of his dynasty and great nandarins, who divide the departments and the great vicerovalties among themselves. The dynasty moreover, being foreign, is compelled o respect the army to some extent; while this aimy is, for financial reasons, so limited in number that it is difficult to garrison the empire, and impossible to hold it down for an hour. It is the tradition of the court, therefore, never seriously to offend either the army or the people in such a way as to provoke emeutes, more especially in Pekin. At present the Emperor is a boy, only just 12 years of age, and all real authority belongs to a widow of the last full grown Emperor, Hien Fung who is called the Empress Mother, but is not the mother of the Empeor to Prince Kung, Li Hung Chang, the favorite of the native Chinese, and two or three less known high of- of Fort Davis last winter was execut ficials. Progress of Sorgham Sugar Manufac-

The Champion Sugar Works, Cham paign, Ill., were the first large sorgum sugar works ever started in the United States. They have ground the caue this season raised on about 1,000 acres of land, and the result is a perfect success in the way of making a first-class quality of sugar that polarizes 67 degrees, and much sweeter than sugar made from cane or beet roots. For years experiments have been made to find out some way to change sorghum syrup into sugar The attempt was unsuccessful up to last year, when the State of Illinois offered a bounty to any one who would succeed in granulating the syrup into sugar. Experiments made at the State University of Illinois, in Champaign, by Profs. Weber and Scovell, succeeded in accomplishing the result. A ready sale is found for all the sugar and svrup made, and the success here will cause a large number of sugar works to be erected all over the West, for sorghum cane will grow where corn can be raised, and where farmers can make $15 an acre in raising corn they can realize $30 in raising sorghum cane to sell to the factories. The result of this dis covery is likely to make as great a change in this country as the making of beet sugar has in Europe, where to-day two-thirds of all the sugar in the world is made.
