-The spring term of the Inferior court for Mecklenburg county will matter out so as to facilitate the healconvene on the third Monday in February, and the Superior court will convene on the last Monday in that month. There will be plenty of work for both courts, the four libel suits adding interest to the docket.

Mr. Carl Roediger has been very low with pneumonia, but we are glad to state that he is improving and is now out of danger. Opera House Monday Evening.

Mr. Chas. M. Caughy has engaged the opera house Monday night, when he will give an instructive and de-lightful entertainment for the benefit of the Home and Hospital of this city. Mr. Caughy's entertainment will consist of panoramic views of scenes in foreign lands, all of them of great interest and well worth seeing. A matinee will be given Tuesday, when London and Paris will be presented. The general admission is only 25 cents, reserved seats 50 cents, and as the proceeds are to be given to the Home and Hospital we trust all the seats in the house will be filled.

Resignation of the Cotton Weigher. Mr. Eldred Griffith, who was last fall elected city cotton weigher by the board of aldermen, and who has since been discharging the duties of that office, yesterday tendered his resignation to Mayor Maxwell. Business Change.

Mr. C. C. Snyder yesterday sold his store and good will to Messrs. Lee Hunter and R. F. Stokes, who will conduct the business in the fu-ture at Mr. Snyder's old stand, under the firm name of Hunter & Stokes They will carry a stock of fancy groceries. The new firm will no doubt have a fine run of trade from the start. It would be hard to pick out two more popular young men in the whole city, or two who command more friends. They were formerly employed by Wittkowsky & Baruch, Mr. Hunter as bookeeper and Mr. Stokes as salesman, and in embark-ing in business for themselves they have an influence at their command that will insure them a successful trade. Horrors of the Inquisition. The "inquisition" of olden time inflicted horrible torments on its victims, such as stretching them in all kinds of unreasonable shapes and breaking their bones. But these torments were not much worse than those which are experienced by people who now suffer from muscular rheumatism. Mr. L. O. Morgan, of Syracuse, was a martyr to muscular rheumatism, but Perry Davis's Pain Killer made him well. Mention this to your friend who is tortured with rheumatism.

The North Train Demoralized.

The north train due here yesterday at 12:53 p. m., was a long time getting in, but managed to reach the city last night at 12 o'clock. The shoofly train from Richmond, consisting of two coaches, came in on the delayed train's schedule, bringing a few passengers, but no mail or express. The cause of the delay was an accident to a freight train 40 miles this side of Lynchburg. A broken rail threw the train from the track, causing a bad blockade. A negro whose name we could not learn, was killed in the wreck. He was not a train hand but was stealing a ride at the time he met his death.

worn Statement of a Robin Hunter. Mr. W. C. Graham came into our office yesterday and reported Wednesday night's work among the robins in the roost on Mr Jas Pharr's place, near the city. Being duly sworn he said that Mr. John Beattie and eight others went into the roost at 7 o'clock in the evening, and remained there until 3 o'clock in the morning, and that when they counted up their birds they found the whole number killed during the eight hours sport, was eight hundred and sixteen. Mr. Graham says it was the first time he had ever been in a robin roost and it beat anything he ever heard of The roost is in a big swamp and they knocked the robins down as fast as they could ply their sticks. There was a party of negroes on the oppo-site side of the roost and they killed several hundred birds. An Eye Put Out by an Accident.

We regret to learn of a very painful accident that occurred to Mr. Junius Hayes, a citizen of Paw Creek township, resulting in the loss of one of his eyes. Mr. Hayes was splitting a plank, last Saturday, a week ago, when a splinter flew up and struck him in the eye, cutting the top of the eveball. The injured eye became inflamed and gave Mr. Hayes great pain. It continued to grow worse until last Sunday, when Dr. George Graham and Dr. Paul Barringer found it necessary to perform an operation. All efforts to save the sight having failed, it was decided to matter out, so as to facilitate the healing process. This was done and the eye was relieved of the matter, leaving a sightless, sunken socket. Since the operation, Mr. Hayes has suffered less pain and the inflammation has been rapidly subsiding.
